STAR THEATRE

Program for Dec. 7 to Dec. 12 Inclusive

Wednesday:

"THE FAMILY HONOR," a picture of thrills and romance in the sunny Southland. Also Two Reel Skipper Comedy.

Thursday and Friday:

Corinne Griffith in "DEADLINE AT ELEVEN." Last episode of "FIGHTING FATE." First episode of "WINNERS OF THE WEST." And "THE DANGER THAT NEVER SLEEPS," a short reel that every home owner should see, a fire prevention reel.

"Winners of the West," our new serial is based on historical facts, interwoven with romance and thrills. It depicts the trials and adventures of Capt. John C. Fremont and his party during their trip to California Gold Fields in 1845. It is both entertaining and instructive.

We are going to show these pictures two days so as to give everyone a chance to see them, and at the following prices:

ONE ADULT 30c TWO TOGETHER 35c
ONE CHILD 20c TWO TOGETHER 25c

Who can afford to come by themselves on such a proposition as this? After the first episode this serial will be shown one day only, each Friday, with a cracker-jack five or six reel feature with each episode.

Saturday:

Leah Baird in "THE HEART LINE." The story of a lost boy, his growth to manhood and his family's search for him. Side lights are thrown on the trickery practiced by clairvoyants at their readings and seances. Very interesting.

Also Comedy

Sunday and Monday:

"THE OLD NEST." Without a doubt the biggest "home" picture ever produced. A real special. Showing two days so everyone can see it.

PRICES: Children 30c, Adults 40c. Reserved seats on sale at Patterson's Drug Store, 53s
