We presume Bob Thompson, leading sheepman of Morrow county, has gone out of the business at least for a few days and joined the plumbers union. The last seen and heard of him at the Shepherd's Rest, he was in a rubber suit in an irrigating ditch near his sheep sheds, trying to fit pipes to convey water to his stock. At the time of writing he was still sweating and murmuring, "Water, water everywhere and not a drop to drink."

ANSWER TO HARDMAN

We really aren't so much for looks. About that dot upon the map. And wondered where they found the nerve To brag as much as that. Now, though we are some smaller, Our town at least is known; And people come from far and near To visit old Lone Stone. We really aren't so much for looks. In fact, we're rather plain, But, what we lack in looks, We make up for in brain. On Friday nights, our shows are held, On Saturdays, the dances, Then Sundays when we all turn out To church we try our chances. We live in congeniality. We seldom have a fight, For each and every one of us, All do just what is right. Our teachers are above reproach, They keep the school together, And stand as models for the kids No matter what the weather. Late in December, we did start Our basketball to play, A game that isn't always learned In just a single day. We accepted Hardman's challenge Though we never had played before. So didn't feel down hearted When we got the lowest score. "Be careful there, don't get so rough" Those Hardmanites all cried, "Don't play so rough, a foul! A foul!" Echoed from every side. Next time, they came to Lone Rock, And with due preliminaries The game was nicely started, Between the high school boys. But hark! Loud sounds the whistle shrill. Really he might just as well smile. The game goes on, so do the yells, For quite some little while. Up goes the referee's right hand, We watched his lips move well; But what's the use? He can't be heard Before that awe inspiring yell. With shrieks and yells, and jumping jacks The game does onward go. They won by a two-point margin, But not enough to crow! We like to see team spirit, It sure is mighty fine, But when they brag on trifles, It's time to draw the line. Their reason was quite nicely veiled, But still it left no doubt, That Heppner only won because They knocked Hardman's captain out. Then called a foul when Hardman roughed. But that was only just, For that's the same old stone age stuff. That Hardman pulled on us. The ceiling on the Hardman hall Is much too low by rights, They have to play of afternoons, Because they have no lights. The tenth we went to Hardman. Once more we took that trip, And once more they beat us, But do we give a rip? No! Not on your tin-type, We only went to show That we can play ball with them, Regardless of their crowd! Now we give the reason That our captain was laid low, But we don't make excuses, We'd like to have you know. Our boys are only practising And just to show our 'Rep' We'll take the worst and still come back And "Razz" with all our pep. Now Hardman, don't try to kid your-

MASONIC FRATERNITY ENJOY INSTRUCTION SESSION

Members of the Blue Lodge, Masonic fraternity, to the number of about 70, enjoyed an instruction meeting last Thursday evening, with District Instructor Frank French, of The Dalles, present to instruct the members in the unwritten work of the order.

A sumptuous banquet was served before the lodge session was called and a pleasant and profitable meeting is reported.

ROOK PARTY LAST EVENING

Miss Dorothy Metcalf entertained a group of young people at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. B. Calmus, last evening, in honor of Miss Marie Curran. Progressive Rook was the form of entertainment and six tables were occupied. Honors were awarded to Walter LaDusire, first and "Buck" Bucknum, second.

Dainty refreshments were served after the games. Everyone present reported that the affair was a most enjoyable one.

"Rush Hours"

In all lines of business patronage is irregular. Street cars, stores, banks and restaurants have their "rush hours" when some delays in service are unavoidable. The public, with the situation before its eyes, good naturedly accepts a degree of inconvenience.

There are "rush hours" in a telephone exchange. With business service the "loads" of telephone traffic are determined by commercial activities, banking hours, etc.—the "load" of the residence telephone varies with household and social needs.

The demands upon the telephone operator and a complicated mechanical equipment cannot be seen, but telephone traffic varies in every hour of every day according to the individual desires of thousands of patrons.

If there should be at times a delay in answering your call, remember that trained young women with nimble fingers are doing their best to serve you, and that at the moment there may be a "rush" of telephone traffic.

The exercise of patience and consideration will mean better service.
