OF PERCALE AND DIMITY

White dotted percale and white checked dimity make this pretty dress for little missy. It is in two pieces. The blouse of the dimity has a Peter Pan collar and turn-back cuffs adorned with feather stitching of silk floss. A white silk cord ending in small tassels is laced across the front of the bodice and a patch pocket at one side maintains that practical things can be pretty.

GINGHAM AND ORGANDY

There is a dainty, little girlish charm about this unusual frock made of gingham and trimmed with organdy. It shows the genius of an expert handling familiar materials. Organdy makes the narrow, plaited frills that adorn the skirt and finish the neck and sleeves. Narrow bands of it slip under slides of gingham on the bodice and tie at each side.
