Earl Wiglesworth, prominent But- ter creek sheepman, was trading in town Saturday.

J. H. McDaniel, a well known resi- dent of the Hardman country, was a visitor in Heppner Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Townsend, of Ione, were visitors in Heppner for a few days last week.

George C. Patterson, of Herndon, was a business visitor in Heppner during the week.

Jack Hynd was in from Cecil Sat- urday as were Will and Dave Hynd from Sand Hollow.

Tillie Duncan has been granted a divorce from Walter Duncan, both parties are residents of Heppner. The couple were married in Heppner in 1914.

John McNamee, who wintered his sheep at Boardman was in town a few days during the week getting ready to go to the mountains for the summer.

Mrs. Sam E. Van Vactor, Miss Ruth Van Vactor and Sam Jr., left Thursday morning for The Dalles where they will make their future home.

Frank Turner's shearing crew, oper- ating at the Headquarters ranch on upper Balm fork, were laid off Thursday on account of a rain and snow storm that morning. It is sure some freak season the world is getting this year.

Pruitt Cox was in from his wheat ranch on Heppner Flat Thursday and reported a small snow storm at his place that morning. Wheat is doing well, Mr. Cox says, and he has never had a better prospect for a good crop than at present.

Ed Burehell was in town from Lex- ington Saturday afternoon and re- ports the wheat doing pretty well in his section. A week of good, warm weather and then a good rain is all we need is his idea about it.

F. A. McMenamin returned from a short business trip to Spokane a few days ago and he says Heppner looks mighty good after a trip to the met- ropolis of the Inland Empire. Busi- ness conditions are none too good there, Mr. McMenamin says there be- ing many empty buildings both in the business and residence districts and the people are generally com- plaining of the pinch.

Jake Young and daughter, Mis- Fay Young, who reside at Aloha, Oregon, near Portland, arrived in Heppner early Wednesday morning, being called here the evening before by the serious accident to his son Ray Young, who was burned in a powder explosion at the road camp near Lexington.

R. H. Lee, fireman on the branch, went to Portland Saturday on a busi- ness trip.

GILLIAM & BISBEE'S COLUMN

Before summerfalling use a Disk, we have them in tandem or single.

What has become of Morrow county's early settlers? We don't know. They have surely left the county or may be with their Hon- orable Father, for there is very little sign of any early settlements around our place.

A Rotary Rod Weeder pulls them out roots and all and leaves them on top of the ground.

We are well supplied with astrala and garden seeds.

We have plenty of poultry supplies suitable for baby chicks up to old roosters.

Come to us for sheep marking ink, Red Black and Green. Sheep shears and sheep dip.

Pete Farley who has been at Castle Rock with his sheep for some time, was in town Saturday on business.

Joe M. Hayes, Butter creek sheep- man, was a business visitor here Sat- urday.

H. W. Lang, publisher of the Ar- lington Bulletin, who took in the Ar- lington-Heppner game here recently, gave the occasion a write-up in his paper last week which proves that he can easily qualify either as a sport- ing editor or as a humorous "coly- mist."

Mrs. J. P. Conder went to Portland Saturday to meet her two sons who have been visiting at Salem. After visiting friends at Portland for a short time they will visit her brother and other friends in the state of Washington.

A. L. Larson, of Boardman, who is teaching school at Pine City, this term, was a visitor in Heppner Sat- urday, having come in to secure a little political information regarding the outcome of the primaries. A. L. looks and feel like a Democrat and will probably vote that way.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Kirk were in town Friday evening and Mrs. Kirk went to Ione, Saturday morning where she expects to open a hospital soon. John, who used to be in the sheep business, can't keep out of the mountains during the summer he will go to Baker county soon with Joe M. Hayes camps. Mr. and Mrs. Kirk took a flyer in the dairy business over on the edge of the Pacific ocean a couple of years ago and John con- fesses that he got all the mud wading and cow milking he wants. From now on his good, old eastern Oregon for him.

The weed burning engine and crew are clearing the branch of weeds and grass this week. The growth was seriously interfering with train ser- vice lately.

"The Magic Cup"
The old silver goblet with the coat of arms engraved on its side was Mary's only treasure. She pawned it whenever she needed money in a hurry. It had saved the day so often that she called it her "magic cup." Of course it brought her love and romance at last, proving her honorable ancestry and restoring her to her family. A typical Constance Binney picture—clean, wholesome comedy, brimming over with romance, surprise, mystery.

First to establish the $10.90 price—"Usco"
THE makers of U. S. Tires made this announcement last November—
"Hereafter the price of the 30 x 3 1/2 'Usco' is $10.90."
The lowest price ever quoted on a tire of quality reputation and standard performance.
And now, with the opening of Spring, there seem to be quite a number of "New and Special tires" coming into the market in the $10.90 price range.
Perhaps you are wondering just what there can be either "new" or "special" about these tires.
It can't be the $10.90 price—"Usco" established that five months ago.
Nor quality reputation and standard performance—for it takes more than one full season for any new tire to demonstrate where it stands in quality and value.
With so many tires rushing into this $10.90 price
