

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Mrs. Minnie Picket is here from Los Angeles visiting her mother Mrs. S. A. Potter.

Rev. C. W. Dulais will hold regular services at Episcopal church next Sunday morning and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Devine were in town from their Lexington ranch yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Maloney drove to Portland Saturday evening for a few days visit.

John Keenan, well known resident of the Lena county was a business caller in Heppner Monday.

Dr. D. R. Haylor in Heppner, July 29-31, August 1 and 2.

Mrs. Derran, of Payette, Idaho, returned home last Thursday after visiting her sister, Mrs. H. P. Stone for several days.

P. A. Mollahan, who is engaged in cattle ranching and farming in the Lena county, over near the Umatilla county line, was in town Monday on business.

Why pay more for gasoline when you can get it at the Byers Chop Mill for 20 cents a gallon?

Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Clark left home at 4:00 A. M. Sunday, drove down to the Columbia river gorge, returned most of the day and reached home at 10:20 P. M. A pretty good day's drive at that.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith returned Saturday evening from a few week's vacation trip during which they visited Portland, Salem, Van Couver and Mount Hood. They report a very enjoyable trip.

Dr. McMurdy has moved his offices into the suite in the Masonic building recently vacated by Woodson & Sweek and now has one of the best and best equipped professional offices in this part of the state.

Dr. D. R. Haylor, eye specialist, of Portland, will be at the Haylor jewelry store, July 30-31, and August 1 and 2.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Sweek and Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Patterson have returned from an auto trip to Tacoma, Seattle and British Columbia. Mr. Sweek says they had a splendid trip and he also says that B. C. is not nearly so "wet" as some people would have you believe.

Tom O'Brien and family drove in from Fine City Thursday and spent the night here on their way to Long Beach to visit friends. Since the washout on Cook Creek some time ago all travel from Heppner to Long Beach has to go via, Goshute.

Dave Riser was in Long Beach on Thursday on a short business trip. Wagg Bros. have one of the best alfalfa, green and stock ranges on the coast but they are thinking of selling out and seeking a change of scene and occupation.

John Kilkenny Jr., accompanied by his sister, Miss Rose Kilkenny, who is a student at U. of O., and Miss Ruth Flood, of Portland, a student at St. Mary's, Notre Dame, Indiana, returned from Portland a few days ago after spending a week or more visiting in the Rose City.

W. H. Irwin returned Friday from a pleasant sojourn with his family at Rockaway Beach, where they are spending the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Bayless returned Sunday evening from a month's auto trip to various points in the Willamette valley and the coast.

A big crowd attended the public sale at the Wm. Hendrix ranch last Saturday but prices were not high. Cows went at from a couple of dollars up to twenty-five. The cayuse on which McCarty finished his famous ride from The Dalles to Canyon City during the Whiskey Gulch rebellion, brought $4.00.

C. D. Morry was in from the Alpine country Thursday and reports the crop ready to harvest in his neighborhood. While the hot weather curtailed his wheat to some extent Mr. Morry says it is not damaged as much and his fall wheat will make about as good a crop as last year. He will head and thresh his crop beginning yesterday.

Miss Eulalia Butler arrived from her home at Monmouth last evening and will spend a couple of weeks visiting friends in Heppner. The Butler family moved to Monmouth a couple of years ago after a residence of several years in Heppner. Miss Butler recently finished her freshman year at the University of Oregon.

O. M. Whittington and family, former residents here, came over from Bend for a short visit with friends. The Whittingtons recently returned from a ten-month tour of the east when they visited New York City and many other points of interest.

Frank Winnard was here a few days last week from his new home in Hood River.

Miss Violet Corrigan, popular Butler creek girl was in town Saturday on a short visit.

County Commissioner I. J. Davidson was in town Thursday from Jones trying out his new Franklin car.

Miss Florence Cason is again at work in the postoffice having taken the place of Miss Thelma Miller who has resigned to take a position with Patterson and Son.

Miss Pearl Hall, a popular employee at the local telephone office, has been transferred to the Portland office and will leave to assume her new duties about August 1st.

Miss Lyle DeVore, senior in the University of Oregon, who is spending her vacation here, has gone to Moro where she will be employed until school opens in September.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Spencer and Mrs. Josie Jones left Thursday morning for an auto trip to Portland, Astoria, Salem, Crater Lake and other western Oregon points, expecting to be away a couple of weeks.

Kenneth ("Bingo") Binns, who filled in recently on the presses at the Oregon City Enterprise, has moved to Portland, where he has an extra sit on the News desk.—Oregon Exchanges.

I. H. Clabough has returned from Portland where he spent some time with Mrs. Clabough who recently underwent a serious operation in one of the hospitals of that city. She is still in the hospital but is improving.

A tragedy was enacted at the Van Marter summer camp on upper Willow creek one day last week when Van's favorite dog was attacked with rabies and had to be killed. Mr. Van Marter was alone with the dog and was compelled to act as executioner, a job he did not relish.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Countryman, of Nampa, Idaho, are the proud parents of a baby daughter, Gloria Dee, born July 8th. Mrs. Countryman, formerly Opal Hall was a well known Heppner girl and Mr. Countryman was formerly engaged in the garage business here.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Buscke have returned from Parkers Mill where they spent the fourth. Mr. Buscke will return to the mountains soon to spend the summer for the benefit of his health which has been very poor for the past couple of years on account of his war experience in France and Belgium.

SEE WHAT SHE FOUND

Miss Mildred Lee of Los Angeles, Cal., with the two large and valuable pearls which she found recently in an oyster which she was preparing for a ste...

Bad News for Highbrows.

"Men with extra-large heads," says one of the doctors, "are likely to have brains that function poorly, owing to the excess water inside the skull. Now let the man who wears a 7 1/2 hat come to lunch when the clerk asks: 'What size, please?'"

Irrigation Notice

Owing to low water due to the extremely hot, dry weather, all persons using city water for irrigation are hereby notified that irrigation must be governed by the whistle. Do not commence irrigating until the first whistle blows and shut off the water promptly when the second whistle blows. We will give as many hours service as possible. Every irrigationist must use nozzle or sprinkler. IN CASE OF FIRE ALARM SHUT OFF IRRIGATION IMMEDIATELY. City of Heppner By W. E. Pryun 12-14 Water Superintendent

Pat Phillips, former resident of Heppner, is here visiting his sister, Mrs. Chas. Reno for a couple of weeks.

Mrs. S. A. Potter and daughter, Mrs. Minnie Picket, went to The Dalles last Wednesday to visit friends.

Little Miss Dorothy Herron was the guest of the Alstott girls at the R. E. Alstott ranch on Thea creek last week.

Miss Lucy Marie Metcalf is here from Glenhaven, Wisconsin, visiting her sisters, Mrs. J. B. Cairns and Miss Dorothy Metcalf.

Dr. C. C. Chick met with a painful accident the other day while cranking his auto. The crank resisted being "cranked at" and flew back giving the doctor a bad thump over the eye causing a painful wound.

Mrs. Elsie Stevengen has returned from a vacation trip to Salem and coast points, returning with Ralph Bengtson and family.

Miss Nora Hughes is taking Miss Clowrey's place in Dr. McMurdy's office while Miss Clowrey is away on her summer vacation.

Bill Austra, formerly with the Standard Oil Co. here, now employed by an automobile firm in Portland, stopped over a day last week to visit his sister, Mrs. Chester Darbee, while on his way to Pendleton on a business trip.

GILLIAM & BISBEE'S COLUMN

Obituary

Our Business

Now she's dead again. We don't know where she has gone to, only trust for the best. But trusting won't do, that is what caused her death. Bring some money instead of flowers to the funeral.

GILLIAM & BISBEE

STAR THEATRE B. G. Sigsbee, Mgr.

Program from July 20 to July 26 Inclusive

THURSDAY & FRIDAY Hobart Bosworth and Madge Bellamy in "THE CUP OF LIFE" Both a colorful romance of Singapore and the East Indies and a tense, stirring drama which evolves around the racial dividing line between Oriental and Occidental.

SATURDAY Constance Binney in "SUCH A LITTLE QUEEN." The story of a girl queen who became a poor little nobody when kingdoms went out of fashion in Europe, but she is just as much a little queen in poverty and hardship as she was in Gzoferingambia.

SUNDAY & MONDAY Special Cast in "THE CONCERT." A comedy about a musician who attracted women with a fatal facility and his courageous wife. Comedy humor, suspense, heart throbs—they're all there.

TUESDAY & WEDNESDAY J. P. McGowan and Fritzie Brunette in "DISCONTENTED WIVES" Picturing the struggles of a man to support his wife in the manner she had been accustomed to and her efforts to smother the discontent bred by hardship, loneliness and disappointments. A play that contrasts the color of the East with the reality of the west.

GET A COPY OF OUR DESCRIPTIVE PROGRAM FOR JULY

NORMAN'S ICE CREAM "Best in the West" Always ready to Serve TAKE A QUART HOME FOR LUNCH McAtee & Aiken

F. L. Harwood Diamonds, Watches Jewelry A Portland Man and Portland Prices Odd Fellows Building Heppner - - - Oregon

25 Cents out of every $1.00 You are now paying for insurance can remain in your pocket when you renew that Fire Insurance policy in the Oregon Fire Relief Assn. F. R. Brown Agent For Morrow County Phone—Office 642, Res. 29F14. Heppner, Or.

OUR NEW Woolens and Fabrics for Summer wear are the finest imported and domestic woolens from F. J. Price & Co. whose great custom tailoring organization makes it possible for us to offer you the highest grade of individual tailoring combined with every exceptional value. PLEASE Stop in today and let us show you our wide assortment of new patterns and exclusive styles. MINOR & CO.