FOREST NEWS FROM THE GURDANE DISTRICT

Work is being rapidly pushed on the Gurdane Base Line Trail. It has been extended from Silver creek to Ellis creek, a distance of five miles. The trail is being constructed along section lines, the section corners will be plainly marked and signed. Besides being a much needed travel route it will be a base line from which smoke-chasers may ride to the location of reported fires. Upon completion the trail will be fourteen miles in length and will pass through the very heart of the most hazardous fire region of the Gurdane district. R. A. Cullek is in charge of construction.

The Forest Service and stockmen are cooperating on the maintenance of the Arbuckle to Thompson Flat road. A small crew with a team have been put on the job. Trees and logs are being removed from the road, brush cleared from the sides and the road straightened. It is hoped to be able to complete the road entirely across the district. It will be passable for cars. It will cross the Gurdane Base line trail at right angles and will afford a north and south base line from which to ride to fires.

The Hall canyon division of the Five Mile drift fence is completed. A. D. Hileman, contractor, completed the work last Saturday.

A report recently came from the camp of the Gurdane Base line trail crew that a cougar had killed a colt on East Matlock creek. Archie McCampbell, government hunter, immediately went to investigate. It was McCampbell's conclusion that the colt had died a natural death and the remains dragged a short distance by a bear. No sign of cougar was found. Government Hunter McCampbell captured a family of five lynx cats at one clip on the head of Five Mile creek last week.

No fires have yet been reported in this district. The drift smoke from fires elsewhere is so thick that the lookouts can seldom see more than about five miles. The timber is getting so dry and the atmospheric conditions such that a fire might easily gain great headway before being discovered. Every forest officer and construction foreman is on his toes. All persons coming into the forest are urged to exercise great care with fire.

RECALL ELECTION IN JACKSON COUNTY FAILS

The special election held in Jackson county last Saturday for the purpose of recalling Sheriff Terrill resulted in that official being retained in office by a majority of 300 votes.

The attempted recall came as a result of the bitter feeling that has been engendered in that county during recent months by the alleged activities of the Ku Klux Klan. The organization is charged with a number of masked mob attacks on citizens and is now being investigated by a special grand jury in session at Medford.

Sheriff Terrill not being in sympathy with the Klan is said to have incurred the displeasure of that organization and a desire to have a member of their body in the sheriff's office is said to have led to the attempted recall. Much bitterness has been engendered among neighbors, old friends and citizens generally and it is reported that, so high has the feeling run, that at times the community has been on the eve of serious rioting.

It is believed the result of the recall may have a tendency to quiet the ill feeling and bring about a better condition in the county.

ROUND-UP WILL ECLIPSE ALL PAST PERFORMANCES

PENDELTON, Oreg., July 29—Talent at the 1922 Round-Up will eclipse that of any other year according to word received from the sons and daughters of the range and plains who will compete here September 21 and 22.

Ray Bell, last year's champion, who first rode in the big show when he was a mere stripling of 14, will enter the lists again. "Yak" Canutt, three a champion, will be there as will be Hugo Strickland, also a former champion. Added to these stars of the Round-Up constellation will be scores of others who have won laurels in the bulldogging, broncho riding, steer roping and races, and still others who will make new records. Tom Mix, celebrated motion picture star, and 50 cowboys, skilled in the art of throwing a rope and riding bronks, will be entered in the contests.

Pendleton is making extensive preparations for the show. The grounds and grandstands are being put into shape and everything placed in readiness. The Round-Up is strictly a community show, staged by an association of Pendleton's prominent citizens, who serve without salary, and who have the backing of every citizen of the town. The show pays no dividends, all profits being used for prizes and improvements to the grounds.

Happy Canyon, the "little brother of the Round-Up," which will provide entertainment for the evening hours, will be staged in improved quarters. The old pavilion is being rebuilt and a balcony constructed.
