Our Business DIED

Now she's dead again. We don't know where she has gone to, only trust for the best. But trusting won't do, that is what caused her death. Bring some money instead of flowers to the funeral.

Sheriff Cy Bingham, of Grant county, was a visitor in Heppner for a short time Friday being on his way to north Idaho where he will spend a short vacation visiting friends. Mr. Bingham came via Heppner to get some information about a Morrow county man who is in jail at Canyon on a number of bad check charges. His name is Jimmy Leach and he hails from somewhere in the Hardman country and it is said he sowed quite a crop of phoney checks among the Grant county business men.

LEWIS' COMPROMISE REJECTED

tion of the resolution, which motion was duly seconded, and on being put by the chair was unanimously adopted.

Mr. M. D. Clark then offered the following resolution, to-wit:

Whereas the indebtedness evidenced by many outstanding District warrants is in litigation, and

Whereas there is much uncertainty as to what warrants will be held valid and what invalid,

Therefore be it resolved that the County Treasurer be instructed not to pay any District Warrants until the legal status thereof has been finally determined and he is advised by the Board what warrants should be paid out of the funds of the District.

Mr. M. D. Clark moved the adoption of the resolution which motion was duly seconded, and on being put by the Chair was unanimously carried.

Mr. M. D. Clark then offered the following resolution, to-wit:

Whereas a notice of pretended appeal to the Supreme Court of the State of Oregon in the case of Northern Pacific Railway Co. et al vs. C. C. Clark et al, has been filed by F. A. McMenamin and C. H. Finn, pretending to act as attorneys for the John Day Irrigation District, and

Whereas the Board has heretofore discharged said attorneys and have employed Mr. S. E. Van Vactor as its attorney, and Whereas the Board has never authorized said attorneys to give notice of appeal on its behalf and do not desire to appeal from the decision of the Court in said suit,

Now therefore, be it resolved that Mr. S. E. Van Vactor, attorney for the District, be instructed to take such steps as may be necessary to dismiss said pretended appeal.

Mr. M. D. Clark moved the adoption of the resolution which motion was duly seconded and on being put by the chair was unanimously carried.

No further business appearing, the meeting adjourned.
