

CECIL

Mesdames E. R. Lundell and J. E. Swanson, of Ione, have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lundell at Rhea Siding for several days during the past week.

A large party of the young people from the Cecil district thoroughly enjoyed the Harvest dance at Ione Saturday night but we only wish they hadn't sung "We Wont Go Home Until Morning," in such a high key for all the cats and dogs in Cecil joined in the chorus. And Oh Boy! The results were—

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Hynd and children, of Ukiah, W. G. Hynd and Dave Hynd, of Sand Hollow, spent Sunday and Monday visiting their friends in Sunny Cecil and also taking in all the improvements at the Hynd Bros. Butterby Flat ranch.

John Krebs sat dreaming over his campfire in the mountains a few nights ago. Sleep at last overcame John and all went well until he was aroused by a terrific heat and smoke and discovered his clothes burned to a cinder. John conquered the fire and then fled to his friend Phil Brady's camp, where that gentleman was peacefully snoring. John helped himself to some clothing and returned to his own camp. We have been told that later that night Phil went through the same trouble and was without clothing until he visited his next neighbor's camp. It is rather funny that John didn't tell Phil of his trouble nor Phil didn't tell John yet the news got out.

Misses Zella and Reita Kelly, of Parkdale were the weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Krebs at the Last Camp.

Walter Pope left Cecil on Thursday for a trip on the Columbia highway.

Misses A. C. and M. H. Lowe of the Highway House visited with Mr. and Mrs. Phil Brady at Athlone Cottage on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hardesty and family and also E. B. Gorton, of Morgan, were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Streeter on Sunday. Mr. Gorton had heard so many good things said about Cecil that he felt obliged to call personally and verify the reports.

Mr. and Mrs. Kari Farnsworth and family who have been spending several weeks in the Hood River district, returned to their ranch near Rhea Siding, all feeling much improved in health by their outing.

Grover Curtis, of Rhea, left Thursday for The Grand Dalles, Washington, where he will visit with his sister before leaving for a tour through the Eastern states.

Oviatt here recently, met with a fatal accident near Tacoma while on their way from Heppner to British Columbia to visit a son who resides there. While driving on the Camp Lewis highway, a cow stepped in front of their car so close that Mr. Stilwell could neither stop nor avoid the animal. The car was overturned and Mrs. Stilwell was so seriously injured that she died before reaching a hospital.

Two Ford loads of young people from Gresham arrived in Heppner Sunday afternoon after many trials and tribulations. They left Gresham Saturday and expected to reach Heppner the same evening but they also left the proper road to Heppner and it was not until sometime Sunday forenoon that they located it again. They figured that the detour amounted to only a hundred miles or so. While in town they visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Adkins. The party left for Gresham Monday morning.
