Did you ever have the embarrassment of being dead broke and nothing in sight? A man with a savings account has something to fall back on when he gets into such a position. He has made the day of plenty contribute to the support of the day of need. He has used foresight.

A small amount deposited every month on a savings account will never be missed, and when you find yourself "flat on your back" you will have something to give you a lift.

We would be pleased to have you call and open an account with us. We pay 4 per cent interest, compounding the interest every six months.
