

CECIL

Miss Minnie Reis, teacher at Four-mile school, was calling on Mrs. Zeneth Logan at Cecil on Thursday.

Master Harvey Smith, of Fourmile spent Friday and Saturday with his pal Noel Streeter. Not a single corner was left unexplored within twenty miles of Cecil by the time Harvey made tracks for his home.

Earl D. Wright, of Ione was the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Lowe at the Highway House Sunday. Jim Logan who has been through harvest on his father's ranch at Four-mile, took a well earned holiday and is spending it along with his cousin Reith Logan in the mountains above Heppner.

John Krebs and Ed Comiskey landed in the Last Camp Saturday with a fine bunch of lambs belonging to Minor & Krebs which will be fed on some of Cecil's fine hay before being shipped to the markets. John Krebs left Thursday for Willula to meet another band of sheep belonging to Minor & Krebs which have been pasturing during the summer in Montana.

Mr. and Mrs. David Bomer and son arrived from Arlington on Saturday. They will work for Leon Logan on his ranch at Fourmile.

J. W. Osborn, Mr. and Mrs. Zeneth Logan, Miss Logan, Mrs. T. H. Lowe and Walter Pope were all seen during the week taking in the sights of the county seat.

A. Henriksen returned to Cecil Saturday for a short rest after his busy week buying and selling ranches. Mr. Henriksen informs us that Mrs. Henriksen is improving rapidly and expects to be in her new home in the near future. Wm. Chandler, of Lebanon, will take possession of Willow Creek ranch October 1st. It is understood that he will start a dairy with a select bunch of famous dairy cattle. We are hoping the mayor will erect a creamery and then Sunny Cecil will be hard to beat.

Master Jackie Hynd returned to Cecil on Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Oral Henriksen, who had been visiting in Heppner. Jackie had to come to see if the ranch was in the same place before he could stand another week at his studies.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stender, of Selmsmeen ranch, are spending their vacation at Salem and will take in the State fair before returning home.

Arthur Turner, of Dothebays Hill, and C. Wright of Cecil, left Sunday to take in the State fair.

Miss Crystal Roberts, of Ewing, was the guest of Miss Dana Logan on Saturday.

George Perry, of Ewing, spent Wednesday with friends in Heppner. Harvey S. Ewing left on Tuesday for his home in Weiser, Idaho after spending some time among his Morrow county friends.

Miss Mildred Henriksen and Miss Violet Bedford, were calling in Arlington on Saturday.

same equal service—favoritism will be shown to none.

To doubly insure fairness an Advisory Board of prominent citizens of Heppner, whose names appear in the advertisement elsewhere in this issue has been appointed. The campaign will also be brought to a close with a sealed ballot box placed in local bank. No one—not even the salesmanship club manager—can possibly know how many credits any club member has secured, thus absolutely precluding the possibility of unfairness or partiality. The Herald Salesmanship Club will be on a high plane of business efficiency from start to finish. Other campaigns of this nature which have been inaugurated in this section cannot be compared with it. There will be no risks, no losers, no regrets.

In order to give everyone who becomes a member of this club the greatest possible assistance the publisher has secured the services of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Hynes who are thoroughly experienced in this line of work, and who will give their entire time and attention to club members.

Come to the Herald office and meet them personally and secure first hand information as to how to go about winning one of the valuable prizes. Or, if you can't call clip the Entry Coupon from another page and mail it to the Herald Salesmanship Club. A complete working outfit consisting of subscription blanks, rating books, etc., will be forwarded to you at once.

The campaign is of such short duration that immediate action is necessary if you wish to capture the Ford Sedan or one of the other valuable prizes. Don't wait to see what other fellow is going to do but get right in and show the other fellow how to do it. Remember this is not a popularity contest. It is a straightforward business proposition. Someone will win the Ford sedan and other valuable prizes for only seven weeks effort—and that someone may as well be YOU. In any event you CAN'T LOSE BY TRYING as every active club member will be paid for his or her time.

Send us your name at once. Participants are expected, and urged, in their own Entry Blanks. This is not a "please vote for me" proposition—it is salesmanship to the nth degree and the best salespeople—men and women of determination, hustle and stick-to-it-iveness will be paid for their time as they have never dreamed of being paid before.

Call at the Herald office, phone or write today—NOW—right at the beginning of the campaign. An early start is half the battle won.

Cuts the World's Whiskers.

The American safety razor is given the credit of having conquered the Spanish beard. On account of the heaviness of their beards, the Spanish men generally shave much less than those of other countries and the result was they presented a rather unshorn appearance. The visit to the barber was a serious matter and the Spaniard selected his barber as other men would select a dentist, the one that was least painful. But the American safety razor is said to have overcome this and the men are not only enabled to shave themselves, but to shave more frequently.

Penny-urious, So to Speak.

A man who had just opened a store in a strange town was interrogating one of his early customers on the purchasing power of the citizens.

"Now, there's Deacon Brown," he said, "He has the reputation of being wealthy. Would he be likely to spend much money in here?"

"Well," drawled the native, reflectively, "I wouldn't exactly say that he'd go to hell for a nickel, but he'd fish around for one till he fell in."—Salt Lake Telegram.

Now is the time to order that new suit in order to have it before the Round-Up.

The Eats That are TREATS

We make it our business to sell meats for eats that are real treats. And we don't comply with the food laws because it is compulsory—we do it because we want, and expect to get good service and fair treatment from merchants and professional men with whom we deal, and because we know it is our business to sell only the best.

For breakfast, lunch, or dinner we can supply your wants, no matter how elaborate or how conservative. We have arranged to fill all orders and would like to see your meat order.
