LEXINGTON ITEMS

The condition of our public school building has caused quite a little unrest and comment. So the school board sent for the State Building Inspector to examine the building. He came and reported that the auditorium was unsafe and to keep the pupils out of it. He also said that he would make his report and then send the board complete plans as to the best way to repair the entire building so as to make it completely safe for our pupils. From the discussions that one overhears on the corners at Lexington, we judge that at the coming election next Tuesday, the vote will be strong for Olett and against the School Bill. The boys all seemed to have a jolly time on Halloween, a few pranks were played like hanging your own state on your own windmill, and hanging clothes up high in the air, but nothing serious was done and everyone took things as a joke. People of Lexington are beginning to think that they are being "petitioned" without limit. In the past week one petition was circulated desiring the retention of the health nurse with salary and an automobile furnished. While another was also presented declaring that the people were not ready for anything that would cause more taxation at this time. Another petition, we understand, that is going the parade last year, is in favor of establishing a Star-Route from Astoria to Heppner. Most people considering their own troubles with motor cars and inability to arrive on time on account of tire troubles, broken rods and burnt out hub bands and brake linings, prefer to leave it to the post with old faithful 100 and 110. They much prefer a 2 or 6 hour delay with letters, rather than a complete loss of their parcel post.

Our local high school football team will over to Ford to play Saturday. The score was 20 to 0 in favor of Lexington.

A Red Cross benefit program was held Friday night in Leach's hall. A good time was enjoyed by all present, except Mr. K-ling who was unfortunate to lose his big prize amount.

A Halloween surprise party was given on Eva Lane at her home Tuesday evening. The ladies all dressed in costume and a happy evening was passed.

The funeral of Mrs. Irene Zink, beloved wife of A. L. Zink was held Friday afternoon from the Christian church. Rev. E. A. Palmer, preaching the funeral services. Mrs. Zink was well known and liked for her charitable and willing manner. She leaves to mourn her loss, her husband, A. L. Zink and the following children, grown: Mrs. Vida Helleker, Mrs. Addie Devine, George, Everett, and Eldred Zink. Being a Rebecca, that lodge had charge of the services. The Zinks were formerly residents of Lexington, but the past four or five years have been living on a ranch near Ione. To those who are left to mourn the loss of a wife and mother, we the people of Lexington, extend our heartfelt sympathy, in this, their hour of great sorrow.

Mrs. Lydia Carmichael who has been visiting her parents for some time, returned to her home here last Monday.
