

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

F. A. McMenamin coming out from Portland to attend court. The Key you get today in the Key Contest at Patterson & Son's might win the $125.00 cost of silver. E. C. Rowley, U. S. naturalization examiner, was here from Portland yesterday assisting in the examination of applicants for citizenship. Verne Pearson, of the firm of Pearson & Sons, Butter creek ranchers, was in town yesterday on a short business trip. Bill Padberg was in town yesterday trying to get a line on the weather as it may affect next summer's wheat crop. Buy your candy at Patterson & Son, Rexall Store. You get double keys which improves your chance of winning that beautiful chest of Community Silver. Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Minor and two children, of the "End of the Trail" ranch below Ione, were week end visitors in Heppner, guests at Hotel Heppner. Lotus Robison was in from Eight-mile Monday and says the roads are well filled with snow out his way. Senator Robert N. Stanfield, rep. He had to come around by Lexington to reach Heppner. Mr. and Mrs. George Krebs, of Cecil, are the proud and happy parents of twin sons born at the home of Mrs. George Aiken last Thursday morning and all are reported doing fine. Handkerchief Sale—47 varieties, Federated Church parlors December 15. 31-33 Fancy Work Sale December 15th. Federated Church parlors. 31-33 How many keys in your collection now? Everyone in Heppner is collecting them. The more keys the better the chance. The Rexall Store will tell you about it.—Patterson & Son. FOR RENT—Furnished housekeeping rooms. Enquire Mrs. Mary Bartholomew, Heppner. Phone 213. 32-34 Sam E. Van Vactor, well known attorney, is here from The Dalles attending court this week. Van has many friends in Morrow county who are always glad to see him return for a visit. Prof. C. E. Glover went to Portland on Friday and returned on Sunday, driving a Chevrolet automobile which he purchased while in Portland. Miss Carrie Skells, teacher of the

Hugh Stanfield, of Weiser, Idaho, is here for a few days on a business trip. Mr. Stanfield, who is a brother-in-law of the Stanfield Co.'s livestock interests in Idaho. Don't forget the Fancy Work Bazaar December 15. Federated Church parlors. 31-33 Joe Kirshner, county surveyor, while doing some surveying on the Antione Vey ranch on Butter creek a short time ago, was one of a party that opened up a bee cave where they secured more than 100 pounds of fine honey. A sheep herder found the cave last summer when the swarms was busy working and with considerable discretion decided to wait for the honey until cold weather drove the bees into their winter quarters. Mr. Kirshner says they opened the cave only about three feet and got all the honey they wanted. The bees were evidently "holed up" deeper down in the ground for the invaders saw only four dead bees and no living ones. FOR RENT—Good 8-room house in Heppner. Good condition; bath. $25 a month. Phone Mrs. Hattie Kirk, Ione, Ore., or call at this office. 33-34 Judge G. W. Phelps arrived from Pendleton Sunday evening to hold the regular term of court here. Judge Phelps is much interested in the weather situation and the prognostications occasionally given out by the Herald, but does not disguise the fact that he takes but little stock in weather prophets. In fact the judge admits that he took a whirl at the weather game himself last winter, pinning his faith to the chances for an early spring because of the long drawn out winter, and the result was that we didn't have any spring at all. "When it comes to weather in eastern Oregon," concluded his honor, "all is vanity and vexation of spirit." Look up the advertisement of Closing Out Sale of Jewelry at William Hayler's for bargains. 33-34 IRRIGON Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Graybael spent the holidays with relatives at Imbler, Oregon. Milton Strader spent several days last week at Kelso, Washington. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Glasgow and Mrs. Anna Eggleston attended lodge in Umatilla Tuesday evening. Mrs. Edward Benz and children, Edward, Jr., and Eleanor, of Seattle, spent Thursday and Friday at fourth and fifth grades, spent Thanksgiving at her home in Portland. Miss Gertrude Graybeal entertained a group of young people at her home Saturday evening. Games were played, refreshments served and everyone present reported a good time. Mrs. N. Seaman and son, Lyle, spent Friday and Saturday in Portland shopping. Miss Clary Corrisan spent Thanksgiving at her home in McMinnville and stopped in Portland on her way back. Mrs. W. Lewis Suddarth entertained with a progressive five hundred party Saturday in honor of Mr. Suddarth's birthday. The evening was spent in playing five hundred, after which refreshments were served. About forty people were present and all vote Mrs. Suddarth a very fine hostess. Mrs. C. C. Bracker spent the week end with her aunt, Mrs. A. B. Smith. Miss Winifred Steward is back in school after a week's illness. Mrs. W. T. Eggleston, teacher of the seventh and eighth grades, visited in Pasco with her husband during Thanksgiving. Ralph Benefield left Thursday, November 28th, for Willows to work in the road camp for his uncle, E. W. Benefield. George G. Abad, of Plymouth, Washington, arrived in Irrigon Sunday and will visit with friends until Thursday. Mr. Ernest Fagestrom spent Sunday at his farm west of town. Mr. Fagestrom and family are now living at Arlington. Mr. Ashby returned home Monday morning from Portland where he spent the holidays with his wife. The basket ball team wish to remind you again of the game with Boardman Friday evening. Miss Blanche Inus who is making her home with Mrs. W. L. Suddarth and attending school, visited at her home near Lexington Thanksgiving. Christine Bray accompanied her. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Graybael spent the holidays with relatives at Imbler, Oregon. Milton Strader spent several days last week at Kelso, Washington. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Glasgow and Mrs. Anna Eggleston attended lodge in Umatilla Tuesday evening. Mrs. Edward Benz and children, Edward, Jr., and Eleanor, of Seattle, spent Thursday and Friday at the C. E. Glasgow home. Mrs. Benz has spent the past four months in Chicago and is returning to her home in Seattle for the winter. Mrs. Blanche Watkins, who is teaching at Boardman, was at her farm home during the holiday vacation. Mrs. Ben Howard and son spent Thanksgiving at Washouga, Washington. Mrs. C. F. Glover and family drove to Hermiston in their new machine on Sunday. C. E. Glasgow was in Hermiston on business Tuesday. CECIL CECIL ITEMS Master Jackie Hynd escorted Miss Violet Hynd to Heppner on Sunday. "The Mayor" saw the young ladies safely on board the local and we presume Master Jackie had the time of his life before the young ladies were safely delivered at their respective homes in town. W. Poe and W. Lowe of Cecil were doing business in Arlington during the week. Mr. and Mrs. Joe White of The Willows, spent Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Melville Logan. T. W. May of Lone Star ranch was calling on his Cecil friends Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stender of Selkome, and J. E. Crabtree of Dotheboys Hill, were visiting in Cecil on Sunday. Mr. Franklin Ely, of Morgan, was sporting a fine new Ford roadster in Cecil on Sunday. No need to say that a charming young lady was the only occupant of the new car. Mr. and Mrs. Karl Farnsworth and children of Rhea Siding, also Mrs. Geo. Henriksen of Strawberry ranch, were callers in Arlington on Saturday. John Krebs, of The Last Camp, made a visit to Ione on Tuesday with the express purpose of having a shave, but when John showed the growth of hair on his face the barber quietly shook his head and said, "nothing doing, young man," so John still wears the whiskers. Geo. W. Wilson left on Tuesday with W. G. and Jack Hynd for Sand Hollow where they will look up the sheep and cattle which were coming in from the "Freezout" ranch.

STAR THEATRE B. G. Sigsbee, Mgr.

Program Dec. 13 to Dec. 19 Inclusive WEDNESDAY and THURSDAY— THE THREE BUCKAROOS an original comedy-drama of the Western Range; a riot of action, love and red blood. The spirit of Dumas' "Musketeers" is reincarnated in "The Three Buckaroos"—hard-riding, sure shooting giants of the range. Come, a good laugh is good for your system and the other fellow. Also "FELIX IN THE SWIM." Drat that cat. FRIDAY— FRANK MAYO in DR. JIM the rushing drama of a society man who went to sea, and who swapped his kid gloves for bare knuckles. He was a great surgeon with a great heart. But he loved his work and he loved the kiddies he restored to health and wholeness to such a degree that his wife fancied he willfully neglected her for them. Then came the breakdown from overwork and the long voyage in the South Seas, on a vessel manned by roughnecks and captained by a handsome brute. One story in which a husband's negligence of his wife cost him nothing but the effect of proving her wrong and himself right. Also 12th episode of BUFFALO BULL. SATURDAY— A drama of home and family, of a man who lost himself and found himself by the strength of "THE POWER WITHIN" Also two-reel Comedy and Movie Chats. SUNDAY— BETTY BALFOUR in ME AND MY GAL A rollicking comedy drama that will satisfy your craving for something different, and give you a new viewpoint on the English sense of humor. And a new star you will simply adore. Also two-reel comedy, "BEWARE OF BLONDES" MONDAY and TUESDAY— Mary Alden (the mother of "The Old Nest") Cullen Landis and Sylvie Breamer in THE MAN WITH TWO MOTHERS A picture with a punch and a heart grip, with five reels of action and a hundred laughs, a love-story that appeals, and surprises galore. Also comedy, "TAKE IT EASY"

Christmas=1922

CHRISTMAS with its visions of well filled stockings and its dreams of Santa Claus will soon be here

Santa Claus was good to us this year, and left us the most wonderful pack of toys and things you ever saw.

The only way you can realize this wonderful showing is to come down and see the display. There are toys of every kind, so you'll be sure of finding just what you want.

For the grown ups we have many practical gifts to offer for your approval

We would suggest that you do your Christmas shopping early so you won't be disappointed later on

The Christmas Store MINOR & COMPANY

NORMAN'S ICE CREAM "Best in the West" Always ready to Serve TAKE A QUART HOME FOR LUNCH McAtee & Aiken

IT PAYS TO READ THE HERALD ADS

The Eats That are TREATS We make it our business to sell meats for eats that are real treats. And we don't comply with the food laws because it is compulsory—we do it because we want, and expect to get good service and fair treatment from merchants and professional men with whom we deal, and because we know it is our business to sell only the best. For breakfast, lunch, or dinner we can supply your wants, no matter how elaborate or how conservative. We have arranged to fill all orders and would like to see your meat order. Central Market