THESE GOOD OLD DAYS REPLY TO CRITICISM OF

ARE GONE FOREVER HIGHWAY COMMISSION

Just as Christmas is the Christian's festival, so the day is a time for the good old days. This week

the highway commissioners will hold their

Christmas dinner and it is interesting to see that many of the old timers are to be present.

The dinner will be held at the Fm. house

on Friday night and will be attended by the commissioners, their families and friends.

The meal will consist of a large menu

and will be served at 7 o'clock.

The program will include entertainment by the local band and also a few other items that will be announced later.

Christmas was quiet in 1921. Christmas was quiet in 1922.

From the first of the year to the last it was wholesome and healthy.

It was quiet on the east coast.
