Problems" and R. V. Gunn on "The Cost of Production. Miss Smith, the Nutrition Specialist, gave a short talk on proper foods and their value. Mr. Dean of the experiment station at Hermiston gave a short talk. These speakers are from the Extension Division of the Oregon Agricultural College. The meeting was held under the auspices of the Farm Bureau. After the lectures the ladies served supper which was followed by dancing.

Harvey Warner was absent from school Monday on account of his father's illness.

Prayer meeting night has been changed from Thursday to Friday for the convenience of some who are unable to be present on Thursday night.

Rev. Harper of Milton, Oregon, was in town between traits Sunday.

W. L. Suddarth and Mr. Brown from Hermiston had the misfortune of a headon collision with their Fords Wednesday night near Bally. They wore both traveling without lights. They left their cars at the Rand farm to be repaired. Batie Rand took Mr. Brown to Hermiston and Harvey Warner came to the aid of Mr. Suddarth and took him home.

Among those who have been ill with la grippe this week are: William, Delbert and Karl Knight, Miss Skells, Snow McCoy and Bishop Wisdom.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander are being congratulated upon the birth of a daughter.

The school observed Washington's birthday with a holiday.

Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Wadsworth entertained a number of their friends. An atmosphere delightfully suggestive of Washington's birthday greeted the guests. Cards were played, honors going to Miss Corrigan and Mr. Harvey Wolfe. After a very enjoyable evening a buffet supper was served.

Wm. VanWinkle and family have moved into the manse.

Prof. C. F. Grover and family, accompanied by Mrs. Frank Frederickson, drove to Pendleton Saturday where they spent the day shopping.

Mrs. Charles Dempsey and son, Fay, left for Portland Thursday morning to visit her daughter, Mrs. Lister.

Miss Dorothy Flegel of Portland visited on Monday and Tuesday with Miss Corrigan.

The two Pinson boys, who have been working on the section here for a couple of months, left Thursday.

Rev. Harper of Milton, Oregon, was in Irrigon Sunday.

Mrs. C. C. Backer, of Umatilla, spent Thursday visiting with relatives in Irrigon.

Ralph and Guy Benefiel spent the week end with relatives in Irrigon. Otto Benefiel left Tuesday morning for Portland where he will receive medical attention.

Miss Gertrude Graybeel visited in Umatilla with Mr. and Mrs. William Graybeel over the week end and returned to her home Monday morning. Young Peoples Orchestra practiced at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Seaman Thursday evening. Mrs. Eggleston and Miss Corrigan, who were dinner guests at the Seaman home, had the privilege of hearing a very delightful program.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Brown went to Portland Sunday over the highway expecting to return today or Wednesday.

Cliff Sims, formerly employed in the Farmers & Stockgrowers Bank here, but for several years in the employ of the state as an examiner of state banks, was a visitor here during the week visiting friends and relatives. Mr. Sims was making a regular inspection visit at the lone and Lexington banks and came on to Heppner for a little visit. While in town he was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. A. D. McMurdo.

The End of a Perfect Meal

Never overlook the prime requisite to perfect peace of mind and calmness of thought —by omitting the after-dinner coffee.

"The Cup That Calms and Pacifies"

Don't unnecessarily take the joy from a perfect meal for most red-blooded Americans. We keep the best—
