

CECIL

Messrs. W. G. Scott and L. McMillan, two of the leading citizens of Lexington, honored Cecil with a visit on Saturday.

H. E. Harbison, grain buyer of Morgan, made a short call in Cecil on Saturday.

Harold Ahalt, government trapper, was calling in the Cecil vicinity on Saturday.

Misses Annie C. Hynd and Annie C. Lowe spent several days during the past week visiting friends in The Dalles.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Chandler of Willow Creek ranch were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hynd of Butterby Flats on Sunday. Martin Bauernfiend, store-keeper at Morgan, was also a guest at Butterby Flats on Sunday.

Leon Logan and son, John, of Fourmile were visiting with J. W. Osborn at Cecil on Sunday.

Messrs. A. C. Minor of Portland and Phil Brady of Athlone Cottage near Ione spent Sunday at Tre Last Camp. We all congratulate Mr. Minor and hope his renewed health will continue.

Max Gorkle, of Pendleton Hide & Junk Co., was a busy man around Cecil on Thursday and Friday.

J. W. Osborn made a business trip to Heppner on Tuesday.

Bob Thompson of Heppner made a hurried trip to the Shepherd's Rest on Thursday, and finding all in order, he also made a hurried leave of his flocks which are doing fine.

Farmer Mac, with half a dozen horses at The Last Camp, and Herb Hynd with a Fordson tractor at Butterby Flats, are doing their level best to raise the sand around Cecil. Mac is so busy trying to beat Herb that he has retired from the weather bureau forever, and Herb is so sure he will beat Mac that he has fore-sworn courting for the time being, so we can safely hand Herb the hat.

The Mayor and Walter Pope have been joy riding for several days this last week, but the heavy wind and sand storm of Friday blew them back to where they belonged.

March 17—a beautiful day, finest of the season. Many thousands of fine lambs are playing around the Cecil hills. Sheepmen wearing bigger smiles than ever.

Herman Haverest of Cecil left Sunday for Portland, returning on Thursday.

Messrs. Geo. Henry and John Krebs of The Last Camp, were doing business in Ione on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. May of Lone Star ranch were calling in Cecil on Friday.

Congratulations are extended Mr. and Mrs. Oral Henriksen of Ewing on the arrival of a fine nine pound girl on March 17. Dr. McMurdo of Heppner was in attendance and reports all doing well.

A car of corn arrived in Cecil on Thursday after being chased up and down and round and about for a week or two and was very quickly unloaded by the Cecil stockmen for their stock which were beginning to feel the effects of being without corn.

IRRIGON

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Walpole, of Pasco, Washington, are visiting with Mr. Walpole's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Walpole.

Mr. and Mrs. Graybeat and Mrs. Steward spent Saturday and Sunday in Hermiston visiting friends.

Mr. Madden of Hermiston filled the Irrigon pulpit Sunday.

Shirley Hendrick and Ethel Knight were absent from school last week because of illness.

A number of people from Paterson attended the dance Saturday night. Everyone had the usual good time.

Several of the Irrigon people will attend the dance at Coolidge, Washington Saturday night, March 17.

Guy Benefiel of Pendleton visited his sister, Mrs. D. E. Ricketts, Sunday.

Quida Hendrick has been absent from school this week on a business trip through eastern Oregon.

Beecher Lewis left Sunday morning for The Dalles and returned early Monday morning.

Ray Lamoreaux has accepted the position of cashier in a Stanfield bank.

Christine Bray was absent from school Monday morning.

Glen Rider has purchased the Overland formerly owned by Chas. Dempsey.

James Warner and son, Harvey, drove to Umatilla Saturday.

Mrs. W. B. Howard has been seriously ill with la grippe.

Ralph Lamoreaux has taken the place of Ray Lamoreaux and will drive the school bus the remainder of the school year.

Dale Albright was in Irrigon Monday evening.

Mr. Gordon of Hermiston has been visiting at the W. B. Howard home this week.

C. F. Grover was in Hermiston Saturday.

Mrs. Missildine, recently chosen as head of the Heppner Library board, is busily engaged in cataloging the books and getting things in shape for opening the library to the public which she hopes to be able to do in about a week. Many of the books are in rather bad condition and the ladies on the board are repairing all such in an effort to have them in a serviceable condition. When the library is ready to open the chairman hopes to secure enough volunteer workers to keep the room open two or three hours each day. For the present the library will be kept in the council chamber.

Miss Helen Barratt came in from Corvallis Friday evening to spend the Easter holidays with her parents. Miss Barratt is a student at O. A. C.

SQUIRREL POISONING CAMPAIGN

Squirrel poison mixing demonstration will be put on by the county agent during the latter part of this week and the first of next week. As in the past the farmers will furnish the grain, oats being used most effectively, which will be mixed with the other ingredients which will be furnished by the county.

The squirrels have made their first appearance within the last few days which means that the poisoning must be done at once to be most effective. There can be no good reason why any farmer who is bothered with squirrels should not prepare at once to bring his grain to me at the mixing stations listed below and get the squirrels while getting is good.

Mixing demonstrations will be held in the following communities, but since the exact mixing place has not been arranged in each case anyone interested can call at places specified and find out where the mixing is being done:

Alpine, Wednesday afternoon, Mar. 21, C. D. Morey ranch.

Morgan, Thursday morning, Mar. 22; call at store.

Ione, Thursday afternoon, Mar. 22; call at Mason's store.

Lexington, Friday morning, Mar. 23; call at McMillan's store.

Heppner. Grain can be left at county agent's office at any time and it will be mixed within a few days.

Definite arrangements for mixing demonstrations at Dry Fork, Hardman and Rhea creek have not been made but farmers of these communities who are interested should get together and notify the county agent if a demonstration is wanted.

F. E. PRICE, County Agent.

O'NEILL, SLATES JAKE FOR WORLD'S CHAMPION

In a recent letter to the Herald Jack O'Neill, who is managing Jake Dexter and training him for fast company, says:

"I'm surely going to make a world's champion of Jake. I know he's going to knock the Oregon giant out in short order. I'm going to have him back down here and finish up his training in about two weeks and then you will hear some encouraging news from your little Heppner boy when he gets to using his premium ham fists on some of these fellows' jaws. When he and the Oregon giant come together that will be a real championship bout and will interest everybody."
