Mrs. Ella Vale has returned to Walla Walla after an extended visit with friends here. Mrs. Vale will teach music in the conservator at Walla Walla the coming term.

Mrs. Phil Cohn and daughter, Edleanor, are leaving this week for Portland where the latter will attend school this year. Mrs. Cohn will remain in the city to be with her.

Charles Vaughn and Orvo Raamuse and their families returned from an outing spent at Lehman springs. They brought back a fine, big buck killed near the springs.

County Commissioner Bengo has been kept busy for some time superintending the fencing of the new road up Heppner hill. The road work will progress faster since the new crusher has been installed.

Special interest, good attendance and special music. Come. Federated Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Latourell and Mrs. Irene Sprague spent last week in Portland attending the Ford and Fordson power show which lasted the entire week. The show was a great success, Mr. Latourell reports.

John C. Doherty, who is summering his sheep in Wallowa county, is in town for a few days on business. He says the sheep are doing fine this summer and the feed is holding up well. Mr. Doherty winters his sheep on Butter creek.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ayers returned from Portland Friday making the entire distance in their car in one day. Mr. Ayers says the Columbia highway this side of The Dalles is in horrible condition and almost shakes a car and passengers to pieces.

Everett Logan and family are preparing to move to Portland where they expect to make their future home. Mr. Logan has been working at his trade as a carpenter in the city for some time and says the building trades are good there.

Special interest, good attendance and special music. Come. Federated Church.

Misses Ruby and Violette Corrigan have returned from a pleasant vacation during which they visited Vancouver, B. C., and Ranier National park. The park is a fine vacation place, the young ladies say, and they also enjoyed their visit at Vancouver, Seattle and Portland.

Section Foreman Turner, of the Heppner Branch, was the first Heppner man reported to have brought in a deer since the season opened. Mr. Turner went up to the mountains on Saturday evening after work hours and returned Sunday evening with a fine big buck.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud D. Baker, of New York City, were in town several days during the week. Mr. Baker represents the Acme Extension Oil Co., of New York, a concern that has large lease holdings in the north part of the county, and which he says they expect to sink a few wells on in the near future.

A letter from one of her former students in Heppner high school says that Miss Martina Thiele, for several years connected with high school work here, has just returned from an extended tour through the east during which she visited Quebec, Boston, New York, Washington and many other points of interest throughout the east and south.

Mrs. Ed Clark, one of the efficient teachers in the Heppner schools, has returned from a pleasant vacation spent at Portland and other Willamette valley points. Mrs. Clark's brother-in-law, Ted Frieberg, of Portland, and Earl Hamilton, of The Dalles, accompanied her home and spent a few days visiting at the Clark ranch home on the highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Reitman were in town Monday from their fine wheat ranch north of Ione, and had lunch at Hotel Heppner with Mrs. Emilie Kelly, of this city as their guest. Mr. Reitman has finished harvesting his wheat crop which averaged about 25 bushels per acre, aggregating about 19000 bushels of No 1 berries.

B. G. Sigsbee and his two daughters, Misses Bernice and Elaine, left Friday evening for Victoria, B. C., where they will spend a ten days' vacation while Mr. Sigsbee attends a meeting of the Northwest Photographers' association. Mr. Sigsbee has ordered a fine new photographer's outfit and on his return from the vacation trip will open a new studio in the Cohn building on Main street.

Mrs. W. H. Cleveland and children left Saturday morning for the Willamette valley where they will visit relatives and friends for a few weeks. Mr. Cleveland remained at home to brace some of his tallest hollyhocks to keep them from falling across the house or barn. Mr. Cleveland is of the opinion that the flowers are something of a menace, not to say nuisance, after they get to be 75 to 100 feet tall.

Fred Rader, well known Grant county cattleman, was in town yesterday arranging to make some cattle shipments to Portland. He expects to send 6 or 8 cars out next Sunday and will follow with later shipments. Cattle are doing a little better lately, some steers having brought 8 cents, and Mr. Rader says if the market will stand around that figure the cowmen can get by in a way and even make a dollar once in a while.

Cattle shipments to Portland are becoming a regular Sunday morning occurrence the last few weeks and prices show a slight improvement.

Eight cars went out last Sunday all billed to Portland. The owners were J. D. French, 4 cars; B. E. Sorenson, 3 cars; Percy Hughes 1 car.
