

LOCAL NEWS

Mrs. Ben Cox, of Hinton creek, reports through Jim Kirk that she has a hollyhock that measures 11 feet 2 inches which makes it almost a winner. Mrs. Devins still tops the list with a record of 11 feet 4. This, of course, makes an exception of the Cleveland prodigies which are undoubtedly of a mammoth variety not in the same class with ordinary specimens. Mr. Cleveland, by the way, is still hunting a portable saw-mill with which to reduce some of his hollyhock logs into lumber.

Jerry Bowman, one of the county's oldest and most respected physicians, who has been very ill for several weeks his life being despaired of at times, took a turn for the better last week and Friday was able to make the trip to Pendleton by auto where he will remain for some time at the hospital. It is believed the change will soon restore him to his usual health.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Latourell left Sunday for San Diego, California, where they will visit his parents and other friends for a week or so. Charlie took his rifle and shotgun along and expects to get him a deer or two as well as smaller game as they pass through southern Oregon.

Harry Huey, for the past year connected with the Heppner Light & Water Co., has purchased the tailoring and cleaning establishment of G. Franzen and will take over the business in a few days. Mr. Huey has had previous experience in the business having been engaged in that line before coming to Heppner. He is one of the town's most popular young men and will no doubt make a success of the business. Mr. Franzen, it is understood, will remove his family to Portland where he has a position.

B. G. Sigbee and two daughters, Minnie Bernice and Elaine, have returned from a pleasant vacation spent at Victoria, B. C., where Mr. Sigbee attended a meeting of the Photographer's association of the Northwest. Mr. Sigbee says they had a delightful time and the convention was a most interesting meeting. Victoria is a fine city and not so much thoroughly English as Mr. Sigbee had been led to expect.

Mrs. S. E. Notson expects to leave in a day or two for Dundas, Iowa, where she goes to visit their son, Lee Notson, who is engaged in business there. Mrs. Notson's mother is also a resident of that place and she anticipates a mighty pleasant visit with the home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Beeson, of Condon, were Heppner visitors Friday night.
