
CECIL

W. B. Barratt, prominent citizen of Heppner, made a short call in Cecil on Friday on his return from Salem.

Oral Henriksen of Ewing was a business visitor in Heppner on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Minor accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. George Krebs and sons of "The Last Camp," were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Minor at The End of the Trail ranch near Ione on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cool and family of the Ione vicinity were calling in Cecil on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Noble of Rhea siding were visiting with Mr. and Mrs. N. I. Morrison of Cecil on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Chandler of Willow Creag ranch were calling on the "Mayor" on Sunday and debating about the progress of Cecil even if we have no Sunday train in the future.

R. E. Duncan of Busy Bee ranch gave his bees and Belgian hares a short vacation while he was visiting in Cecil on Sunday.

Gordon Hall and Hazel Dean from the Eight Mile district were callers on Cecil friends Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Swanson of Ione were Cecil visitors on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Jones of Lexington were taking in the sights of Cecil on Monday.

Master Jackie Hynd spent the week-end at Butterfly Flats interviewing all his father's stock and having the time of his life on the farm before returning to his studies at Heppner high school.

Mac Gorkle and his assistant of the Army and Navy store, Pendleton, were the busiest men on Willowcreek on Thursday.

Cecil Liendau, highway traffic cop, and Emery Genry, resident agent for West Coast Life Insurance, were in the Cecil district on Thursday.

Wayne Crawford and son, ranchers near Ione, were doing business in Cecil on Saturday. Wayne says the fine rains have all the farmers shaking hands with themselves in his part of the county and seeding is going ahead.

All Weather Prophets Make Good
 For once in their young lives all of the Herald weather forecasters have made good.

Saturday a flock of migratory fowl passed over Heppner at high noon going straight south. Willis Stewart said they were wild geese and that it would rain. It rained. Sam Notson said they were crane and that their flight foretold a storm. It stormed. Lum Gordon ignored the fowl sign and declared that we will have two months of good weather yet. Monday was a fine day.

The Herald's weather service is alone worth many times the price of subscription with such a large force of reliable forecasters constantly on the job. Now is the time to subscribe or to renew your subscription and it costs only two bones.

Fine Hunting Dog Shot
 The joy of living was turned to ashes in the Gay Anderson family Sunday when Mr. Anderson accidentally shot his fine hunting dog "Lady" while shooting pheasants. Mrs. Anderson and the children were with him when the accident occurred and the kiddies, who consider Lady almost as one of the family were disconsolate. The injury was serious and it is not yet known just how it will result.

EDITOR GOES TO CHURCH; HOUSEBREAKERS ENTER HOME

The Herald man accompanied his wife to church last Sunday morning which may or may not be a matter of more or less important news to the reading public. When they returned home, however, and found that some person had entered the house and apparently made himself at home that is news. No money or diamonds were missed, the marauder having evidently been frightened away and in his hurry to escape had dropped a big China pheasant on the kitchen sink.

In the afternoon, thinking no such misfortune could strike twice in the same place the editor again allowed his wife to prevail on him to leave the house this time to help eat a very fine chicken dinner at the home of a friend. Upon returning home in the evening the consternation of the couple can be imagined when they discovered that their home had again been invaded and again the vandal had failed to find the jewel box or the combination to the wall safe but in his hurried departure he too had dropped another China rooster on the kitchen stove.

A little quiet detective work Monday morning revealed the fact that two well known members of the court house squad were the breakers in but because of their high standing in the community and that the pheasants were very much appreciated we have decided not to give their names in full but only the initials which
