Mr. and Mrs. John McMillan, of Lexington, were visitors in Heppner several days last week, Mr. McMillan being a member of the jury in circuit court.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Minor and children were in town from their ranch near Ione last Saturday doing some Christmas shopping and calling on friends.

Sam Turner, who has been at Hot Lake for some time having treatment for rheumatism, returned home last Wednesday evening much improved in health.

Jack Jarvis, A. W. Wheelhouse and W. S. McDonald were among the big delegation of Arlington Elks who attended lodge here last Thursday evening.

Miss Oslil Gray, who spent several months in Heppner a couple of years ago as head trimmer in the late Mrs. Luper's millinery store, is here for a few days visiting with friends. Miss Gray is now in business for herself at Springfield, Oregon.

Mrs. Fred Lucas, of Lexington, Mrs. Bert Mason, of Ione, and Miss Lulu Hager, of Heppner, were the three ladies to serve as trial jurors at the recent term of circuit court. Mrs. Mason was also drawn as a member of the new grand jury to serve for the coming year.

C. E. Woodson is attending circuit court at Pendleton this week, where he was called as a witness in a civil case in which the Bank of Ione is plaintiff and H. E. Peterson et al are defendants. The case was transferred from this county to Pendleton for trial.

Garnett Barratt underwent an operation for appendicitis yesterday morning at Heppner Surgical hospital, where Dr. McMurdo reports the patient to be getting along fine. The operation was performed with the use of a local anaesthetic and the patient, fully conscious, felt no ill effects.

Tom Chidsey, former deputy sheriff here, now employed by a big lumber company at Bridal Veil, was here last week as a witness for the state in the case of State against Alvin B. Strait. Mr. Chidsey says they like their new location very well and that Mrs. Chidsey's health has improved to a marked degree since leaving Heppner.

G. R. Pollock, of New York City, a speaker of note in his field, will give a free lecture next Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Augusta Johnson in South Heppner, to which the public is invited. The lecture is given under the auspices of the International Bible Students association and the subject will be "The Hope for Distressed Humanity; Millions Now Living Will Never Die."

A dance will be given at the pavilion Monday evening, December 24th, under the auspices of the Rodeo committee for the benefit of the boys who were injured while furnishing entertainment and thrills for the public at the Rodeo last fall. The object is a most worthy one and the committee will appreciate the attendance of everyone in the community. If you can't attend, buy a ticket.

PATRON-TEACHER HOLD EVENING MEETING

Heppner Patron-Teacher association held an evening session last Tuesday evening in place of the regular afternoon meeting at which a large number of patrons and friends of the school were present.

Mrs. Woodson, president of the association, presided at the meeting Tuesday evening when an excellent program was given. The entertainment opened with selections given by the high school orchestra, a new organization established only a couple of weeks ago by Miss Isabelle Steele, present head of the music department. The orchestra made a hit with the audience and reflected credit on themselves and their instructor. Miss Steele is an accomplished violinist and delighted the audience with a violin solo, with Mrs. Walter E. Moore as accompanist.

The sixth grade Miss Wright teacher, were the principal entertainers of the evening, nine little girls from that grade putting on a Dutch dance that brought rounds of merited applause. Members of the same class also put on a playlet, the scene being taken from King Arthur's court, which also delighted the audience.

A vocal duet by Mrs. Frank Turner and Mrs. Earl Gillilan was also well received.

Rev. W. O. Livingstone gave an interesting address on "The Boy Problem" in which he brought out a number of splendid thoughts and suggestions, finally showing his audience that what is popularly designated as the boy problem is, in reality, a Dad problem; that much of the apparent trouble with the present day boys is due to wrong training or example on the part of their fathers.

S. E. Notson also made a very interesting address on the cigarette evil giving a resume of the anti-cigarette law of this state.

The program ended with another selection by the orchestra.

Sixth grade was winner in the attendance contest, a vote by the audience showing that a larger number of patrons attended the meeting on invitation of members of the sixth grade than of any other class.

Following the exercises refreshments were served and a pleasant social session was held.

COURT NOTES

Nels Justus plead guilty to a charge of assault and battery in circuit court Wednesday and was fined $100 and costs. Barney Donahue was the complaining witness.

Cecil Ledgett, who was found guilty of burglary and stealing an auto tire from Hynd Bros., Rose Lawn ranch, drew a term of one year in the penitentiary.

In the naturalization court last week petitions for citizenship were heard from Edward Breslin, Heppner; Anna Skoubo, Irrigon; Chas. Henry Schmidt, Lexington, and Donald Joseph Gillanders, of Lexington. Anna Skoubo was granted full citizenship. The petitions of Breslin and Schmidt were continued and the case of Gillanders was denied because his witnesses were not properly qualified.

The trial of Matt T. Hughes, charged with the crime of rape in an indictment returned by the grand jury last week was continued for the term and the defendant was released on $2,500 bail. Judge Phelps announced that it may become necessary to hold a mid-term session of the court in March and the case may be disposed of at that time.

Sheriff McDuffee left for Salem Sunday morning having in custody Alvin B. Strait, Dick Robnett and Cecil Ledgett who each received prison terms at the recent session of circuit court.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE MORROW FARM BUREAU

The annual meeting of the Morrow County Farm Bureau will be held in the Odd Fellow's Hall at Heppner on Saturday, January 5, 1924. The date was set at the meeting of the executive committee of the county organization last Saturday, and it was decided at that time to make the meeting an all-day affair, starting at 10:00 in the morning and having dinner in the hall at noon.

The program has not been completed and definite arrangements with the speakers made. However, an effort is being made to have Mr. D. E. Stevens, superintendent of the Moro Experiment Station, and Professor E. L. Potter, head of the Animal Husbandry Department of the Oregon Agricultural College to have them here as special speakers. A good live program is being arranged, and will be published as soon as the details are completed.
