Mr. B. F. Morgan is making some improvements on his home place.

The Medlock children have made a garden and have onions planted in it.

(Too late for last week)

Sunday is a busy day at Morgan. The singing class, under the leadership of Mr. Edwards, meets at 1 p. m.

The neighborhood club meets nearly every Saturday evening to practice singing, play games and partake of some excellent refreshments.

Owing to the cold weather and sickness, the attendance has not been very large. Saturday evening the club met with Mr. S. Edwards.

Episcopal Ladies Elect

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Episcopal church met with Mrs. Hanson Hughes last Thursday afternoon and enjoyed a splendid meeting.

an interesting report of the meeting which was attended by delegates from all parts of the diocese. Officers were elected for the coming year as follows: Mrs. Gilman, president; Mrs. Percy Hughes, vice-president; Mrs. C. L. Sweek, secretary, and Mrs. Paul Gammell, treasurer.

H. H. COREY WILL SEEK RE-NOMINATION

H. H. Corey, public service commissioner for the eastern Oregon district, has let it be known that he will be a candidate for the nomination to succeed himself at the coming primaries.

"I wish to submit my candidacy for nomination for another term as Public Service Commissioner for Eastern Oregon district, believing that I am now better qualified than ever to fulfill the exacting requirements of public utility regulation.

"I was formerly secretary of the commission, and since my first year as commissioner, no order signed by me has been reversed by the courts or annulled by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

"Appreciating the fact that I am a servant of the people, I have ever been mindful of my oath of office. However, the tendency to do the popular thing sometimes is very strong, and it often requires more courage to do ones duty according to the facts of the case than to do the popular thing; for it is human to desire public approval of ones decisions.

"Without idle promise or empty pledge, I stand squarely upon my record in public office, and will be very grateful if the people of my district should elect to retain me for another term."

H. H. COREY.

DISTRICT ATTORNEYS AN OLD-FASHIONED LOT

S. E. Netson returned from Portland Sunday morning where he attended the annual convention of district attorneys last week, at which Governor Pierce told the prosecutors that the old doctrine of a man's home being his castle is all out of date and thrown into the discard.

FORMER HEPPNER MAN MARRIED IN IDAHO

The following taken from the Salmon (Idaho) Recorder, is of interest to many Heppner people, the groom, "Dee" Matlock, being a former resident here:

Charles D. Matlock and Jessie M. Daniels, both of Salmon, were married at the home of the bride on Lena street, at four o'clock Sunday afternoon, January 6, 1924.

The dinner was scarcely over when relays of serenaders appeared and it is reported that every boy and girl under eighteen years of age in Salmon had a box of sweets and attended the Rex at the expense of the groom.

Mrs. Matlock had been a long-time resident of the county, and Mr. Matlock is also known here, having been interested in the mining development of the county and is now a stockholder in the Silverton mine, near Salmon.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Boyer, of Hamilton, were here during the week on their way from Portland, where they have been visiting for a week or so.

ducted in an orderly and dignified manner, both on the part of the klansmen and the spectators, most of whom were evidently there through motives of curiosity.

Judging from expressions heard among the spectators when the meeting was over, the lecture and other ceremonies were generally well received, the main objection being to the masks; and those who had the courage—or perhaps "independence" is a better word—to show their faces were generally commended.

W. K. "Billy" Corson went to The Dalles Saturday for a visit with friends and relatives.

Miss Mary McDevitt was here from Condon during the week, attending the funeral of her cousin, Mrs. Grace Fitzpatrick. She remained for a few days as the guest of Father Cantwell and Miss Mary McVenna.
