

LOCAL NEWS

Mrs. Fred Farrior and Mrs. E. H. Hedrick drove to Portland Sunday for a few days' visit.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ayers returned from Portland Friday evening after spending a week or more in the metropolis.

D. O. Justus was in from the ranch Saturday and reports lots of moisture and plenty of grass in his neighborhood.

The county court held a session Thursday to hear objections to the budget, but no objections appearing the budget was declared in force.

C. W. Shurtle is recovering from a severe attack of flu from which he suffered the past couple of weeks and is now able to be around again.

Dr. A. H. Johnston, who is now located in the Odd Fellows building, has secured his telephone numbers as follows: Office, Main 933; house, Main 492.

COOKED FOOD SALE—Ladies of the W. R. C. will hold a cooked food sale at Humphreys Drug Co. store, Saturday, March 1. A good place to buy a good dinner to take home.

Dr. Johnston reports the advent of twins at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Layman Drake, of Eightmile, Sunday morning, February 10—a boy weighing six pounds and a girl weighing 5 1/2 pounds.

MRS. L. G. HERREN. S. E. Notson left Thursday morning for Hamburg, Iowa, in response to a telegram announcing the death of his mother, Mrs. Nancy Louise Notson. Mrs. Notson was 87 years old. Her husband, Robert S. Notson, died about two months ago at the advanced age of 94 years.

Maurice A. Frye, the radio man, visited Echo last Friday and reported conditions pretty good in that section. Mr. Frye has installed several radio sets in the Butter Creek section recently with more good prospects coming up. He has just placed orders for five of the latest model sets within the past few days.

J. G. Doherty was in town Friday attending the school meeting at the court house and took a petition home with him to secure signatures to have the measure placed on the ballot. Mr. Doherty has been on the school board in his district for these many years and he is ready for any change that will insure better rural schools. He is studying the county unit plan.

Elbert Gibson and son, Elbert Jr., arrived a few days ago from Birmingham, Alabama, and are the guests of his sister, Mrs. L. G. Herren. Mr. Gibson visited Heppner for a short time several years ago and has been anxious to return and locate here ever since. He expects to join Mr. and Mrs. Herren in the Blue Mountain Fur Farm enterprise and will locate here permanently.

James Kyle, of Stanfield, who has been at Washington, D. C., for a couple of months in the interest of Oregon irrigation projects, has returned from the east and was in Heppner Thursday. Mr. Kyle, who is one of the foremost reclamation workers in Oregon, is well pleased with the accomplishments at Washington and the Baker project is now assured, he says. Another Oregon project will also go through this winter, he believes.

Phil Hirt, well known rancher in the country beyond Lena, was an interested visitor at the county unit school meeting at the court house Friday. Mr. Hirt was the prime mover in organizing a school district in his locality some 14 years ago when his children began to arrive at school age and one of his daughters is now a successful teacher in her home district. Mr. Hirt is strong for good rural schools and is giving the county unit system careful study.

Victor Peterson, of Eightmile, was here Friday attending the county unit school plan meeting. Mr. Peterson is clerk of his district and he says there is no doubt but the present system of rural school management can be improved upon. Farmers are often too busy to give school matters proper attention, he says, and the result is that there are often many leaks in the district's finances. Mr. Peterson is studying the new plan and so far is favorably impressed with the proposed change.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

They were all crazy about Clarence. Mrs. Wheeler thought him wonderful; Della called him "little ainjil"; Cora followed him around from morning till night. For Clarence had been "in the army" and knew everything. Bobby put all his affairs in Clarence's hands, "Salt Lake City" misfortunes and all. Oh, Clarence was unsurpassable. Wasn't he in "Who's Who" as a great collector? Yes indeed, but he proved to know nearly as much about women as about his beloved coleoptera. The play "Clarence" will be given by the high school, Wednesday, February 20.

The Arion Literary Society presented a program before the Student Body last Friday. This is the first program they have given, but one will be given each month after this.

The numbers presented were: Piano Duett—Luola Bengé and Bernice Woodson. Speech—Harold Beckett. Vocal Duett—Kathleen Monahan and Marjorie Clark. Piano Solo—Harold Beckett.

"A Misdemeanor of Nancy" Short Comedy. Nancy, a hopeless flirt, Muriel Cason. Mrs. Winston, her friend, Luola Bengé. Mr. Winston, Chas. Notson. Nora, the cook, Reid Buseff.

Musical Recitation—Berne Woodson.

Vocal Solo—Dorothy Pattison.

Character Song—Kathleen Monahan and Marjorie Clark.

The Juniors are working on a play, "Mr. Bob," which will be presented soon.

E. Albee and family left in their car for Portland Sunday morning, expecting to spend some time visiting friends in that part of the state.

P. P. Hassler, editor of the Ione Independent, was a visitor here Monday looking up the political situation.

WASHINGTON'S CHECK

A check issued by George Washington to Robert Morris for the payment of the sum of one thousand dollars, recently found in Pennsylvania, shows the paper and ink remarkably well preserved. It reads: Mount Vernon, May 18, 1798: 1792. The Cashier of Discount and Deposit—Baltimore. Will please pay Robert Morris, Esq., or bearer the sum of one thousand dollars and chg. same to my acct. (Signed) GEORGE WASHINGTON. 1,000 dollars.

uation. Mr. Hassler says that reports in Ione are to the effect that Ike Howard is being groomed for the county commissionership race in the May primaries and that it is said he will receive the support of the Ku Klux Klan.

Archdeacon M. McLean Goldie held services at the Episcopal church last Sunday when the sacrament of the Holy Communion was observed. The archdeacon announced that Bishop Remington, who is now in the east, has advised him that a rector for this parish has been secured and will be here within the next few weeks to take charge of the work.

Tom Crowdsen, aged 18 and his brother Richard, aged 20, are in the county jail charged with larceny. The boys, so it is alleged, took a saddle and chaps and a sixshooter belonging to Wm. McRoberts from the livery barn and started to leave the country. When the property was missed Mr. McRoberts and Deputy Sheriff Matteson took the trail and captured the boys near Pilot Rock. They are being held for trial when District Attorney Notson returns from the east.

No Unfair Advantage. Georgette—Oh, look, Ludwig, we are right under the mistletoe. Ludwig—I know it, darling, but I couldn't kiss you now because it would be taking an unfair advantage of you. There will be plenty of time for that after we are engaged.

Love and Politics. "So you never saw a man whom you would be willing to marry." "I'll go further than that," replied Miss Cayenne. "I've never seen one I felt I could conscientiously vote for." —Washington Star.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE AT IONE

The second local Teachers' Institute of Morrow county was held at the Ione high school, Saturday, Feb. 16. It was well attended by teachers from all parts of Morrow county. Mr. Smith, the assistant state superintendent, was present to explain the county unit plan of taxation to the teachers, and to a number of Ione people who attended in the afternoon. The afternoon was spent in discussion of this plan by teachers and the Ione people present, in which Mr. Smith and Mrs. Shurtle answered the questions that arose in regard to the county unit plan.

plan. After the discussion the teachers showed themselves to be in favor of this plan by a vote of 32 to 0. A vote of thanks was given the people and teachers of Ione to the Ione Hotel for the fine dinner served and to Mrs. Shurtle for her untiring efforts in behalf of the teachers and children of Morrow county. Mr. Head of Ione closed the meeting with a few remarks showing his approval of the county unit plan. Watch the papers each week for information on the county unit plan.
