IONE.

J. E. Cronan who has been down at Portland for some time, came in on Saturday's train.

F. H. Wilson went down to Portland Wednesday morning. Frank is full of business these days.

A. Carlson went down to Portland Tuesday of last week on a business and pleasure trip combined.

Bert Mason returned from Portland Monday of last week, where he spent a week of pleasure and business.

Cap. Richardson and wife have gone out to the John Williams ranch to assist John with the Spring work.

T. J. Mahoney was down from Heppner last Saturday looking after the bank in Mr. Cronan's absence.

Herb Olden was in from his ranch last week with a load of hen berries and remained over night to attend lodge.

Prof. Kaufman went up to Lexington Tuesday night of last week. He and Rev. Reside came back to Ione Wednesday morning.

Rev. Lawrence Wright, who has been holding revival meetings in Ione for some time departed for Eugene on Tuesday of last week.

J. L. Howard and his wife, who have been visiting about Ione for the past week, left for their home at Portland on last Monday.

Mrs. S. I. Stratton came up to Ione Monday of last week, and after spending the week here, returned to her home at Lyle, Wash., last Monday.

C. E. Carlson and wife went up to Heppner Monday night of last week, returning Tuesday morning. They were accompanied by Mrs. Sam Esteb.

Mr. Jim Baker, who has been visiting with friends and relatives in and about Ione for the past week, returned to his home at Portland Wednesday morning.

We understand that Mrs. John Wilt of Ione will have a fine stock of Easter bonnets on hand in plenty of time for the ladies to make a selection some time in the near future.

Joe Cronan went up to Heppner last Friday evening and was operated on for appendicitis. He was getting along nicely when we last heard of him, and hope he will be with us again soon.

These balmy Spring days are making the farmers fly around and get their work all done. We hope the frosts will not get the better of the fruit as some of the trees are about budded out.

We understand Wiley Wattenburger has sold his fine alfalfa ranch to E. M. Shutt, of Heppner. We hate to lose Wiley and hope he will better himself. We wonder if E. M. will move his paper mill down to the ranch.

Mr. Will Palmateer and all of his children met in Ione last Monday and proceeded to the photographer's where they had a family group taken. It does these old-timers good to have their children all meet together now and again.

Fred Nicholson had the misfortune to lose his driving team one day last week. Fred thought they died from eating poisoned wheat but further investigation showed that they died from eating too much wheat that was not poisoned. It seems they ate nearly a full sack of wheat between them. Hope Fred will have better luck next time.

H. R. Taylor, Grand Warden of the grand lodge I. O. O. F. of Oregon, spent Tuesday night in Ione, attending to lodge matters. A fine banquet was held at the Ione hotel—just such a supper was served as only Beech can put up. Mr. Taylor went to Heppner Wednesday night, to Morgan Thursday night and to Lexington Friday night.

The Junior and Senior classes mixed in a game of basket ball last Saturday at the skating rink. The Juniors handed it to the Seniors proper, the score being 15 to 5 in the youngsters favor. The play of the evening was made by Blake, Junior center. The ball was thrown about two-thirds the length of the skating rink and landed fairly in the basket. A good crowd were in attendance and were highly pleased with the game.

Some Puzzlers. Where can a man buy a cap for his knee, or a key for a lock of his hair? Can his eyes be called an academy, because there are pupils there? In the crown of his head what gems are set? Who travels the bridge of his nose? Can he use when shingling the roof of his mouth, the nails on the end of his toes? What does he raise from a slip of his tongue? Who plays on the drum of his ears? And who can tell of the cut and style of the coat his stomach wears? Can the crock of his elbows be sent to jail, and if so what did it do? How does he sharpen his shoulder blades? I'll be happy if I know, do you?

LEXINGTON.

Two ministers of the Nazarine faith (from Condon) are holding services at the Gooseberry schoolhouse this week.

Pete Brenner was seen on our streets last week. Pete is very much pleased with the prospects for crops in his section.

Eight Mile was treated to another little coat of white Sunday morning which looked rather winterish after the ideal spring weather we have been enjoying for some weeks, but the warm sun shine Sunday soon fixed the snow and the green pastures and wheat fields are again in full view.

BLACK BUTTE.

Alonzo Reid and Walter Davis are cutting some wood near Thorn creek now.

Some people said that Edd Brown thought he was a millionaire, but he looks different now.

Newt Matteson caught a coyote a few days ago. That makes several coyotes he has caught this winter.

Matteson's have 140 cords of wood and expect to have 200 cords for sale. Everybody wanting wood come this way.

Talk about dances. There was one at the Brown boys place on Jug creek last Saturday night. Everyone said there was a big crowd at that dance. They could only run one set and everybody got cold waiting for their turn to dance. They had one big time.

There will be a big dance at Joseph Hogeland's place near Board creek Thursday night. Everybody invited to attend this wonderful dance. I hope there will not be such a big crowd at this dance as there was at Brown's place. The floor manager is Lue Hogeland. He has had some experience in that line.

SAND HOLLOW.

O. S. Hodson made a business trip to Heppner last week.

Miss Winnie Smith is visiting Lexington friends this week.

The Telephone Company had another meeting Saturday, Feb. 17.

Almost Lost His Life.

S. A. Stid, of Mason, Mich., will never forget his terrible exposure to a merciless storm. "It gave me a dreadful cold," he writes, "that caused severe pains in my chest, so it was hard for me to breathe. A neighbor gave me several doses of Dr. King's New Discovery which brought great relief. The doctor said I was on the verge of pneumonia, but to continue with the Discovery. I did so and two bottles completely cured me." Use only this quick, safe, reliable medicine for coughs, colds, or any throat or lung trouble. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Slocum Drug Co.

Election Expensive.

In counting up the cost of the primary and general election by the officials of the secretary of state's office it is figured out that the expense will be one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars. With the 1082 precincts the clerks and judges will mean a total expense of $77,902.

For the corrupt practices act pamphlets at the last election, it cost the state $1523 and $44350 for the general election.
