

WEEK'S NEWS.

Local and Personal Happenings.

Go to the Bakery for your bread. 25 loaves for $1.00.

Chas. D. Huston and wife were in Heppner over Sunday.

Born—To Supt. S. E. Notson and wife, to-day, a daughter.

The latest in large rugs, 9 x 12 at only $15.25 each. Case Furniture Co.

John Padberg, Social Ridge farmer, was a visitor to Heppner on Tuesday.

Lost—A bunch of about seven keys. Finder please leave same with W. P. Scrivner.

Highest cash prices paid for hides, pelts and furs. Morrow Warehouse Milling Co.

Born—In Heppner, March 5th, 1912, to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Blahm, an eleven pound son.

Mrs. W. B. Potter came over from Spray on Saturday and is visiting with her relatives here.

Chinese and Japan. A nice assortment of matting 25 cents to 40 cents at the Case Furniture Co.

Mrs. Frankie Luper is home from Portland where she spent some time making selections of Spring millinery.

Rev. J. V. Crawford came over from Centerville, Wash. on Monday to spend a few days with the home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Dutton arrived home on Tuesday evening from a sojourn of about six weeks in Portland.

Adam Knoblock was a pleasant caller at this office on Monday. He says the winter is not all gone yet, especially on the hills between Heppner and Rhea creek.

John Nash and family, of Cecil, came up to Heppner on Saturday, Mrs. Nash remaining in town to receive medical attention.

George Yokum, a real estate dealer of Spokane, was a visitor to Heppner this week. He is interesting a number of people from up that way in Morrow county real estate.

A box social will be given at the parlors of the Methodist church on tomorrow evening. The ladies are expected to furnish a basket with sufficient "eats" for the gentlemen. Come. A good time is promised.

Mrs. J. C. Hayes underwent an operation at the Heppner hospital on Friday last. Mrs. Hayes has been sick for a long time, and it is hoped this operation will restore her health. She is doing well at this writing.

F. S. Eberhart, a contractor of Portland, and the gentlemen who built the steel bridge on Rhea creek at the mouth of McKinney creek, came up from Portland to-day to consult with the county court on bridge matters.

W. J. Lloyd, representing R. L. Polk & Co., has been in Heppner the past week doing the preliminary work of getting out a new directory for Heppner. This is to be included in a volume with Umatilla county and will be a valuable reference book.

Leet Paine and wife were over from their Grant county ranch the last of the week. Mr. Paine states that they have had much more winter in his section than has been experienced over this way but stock are in fine condition and the prospects for a good season ahead are fine.

Rev. S. W. Robison, of Helix, Oregon, preached both morning and evening at the Christian church on last Sunday. He was here with a view to locating but the church did not decide to extend him a call. It is the plan now to hire a man in conjunction with love for the coming year, and this arrangement will doubtless be entered into.

The moving of presses, an extra rush on job work and being short-handed as well, has made life pretty burdensome around this print shop the past week. However, we are getting everything pretty well adjusted and promise to be a little more prompt from now on in getting out work. We are not discouraged if you are not, so bring on the work.

Our old friend, E. L. Barry, who has been absent from Heppner for some months, doing the stunts of his trade at Acme, Oregon, will return to Heppner in a few days, prepared to resume his labors at this place. He is bringing with him a good workman, so hold up anything you may have in Ed's line of painting, paperhanging and sign writing.

Many sufferers from rheumatism have been surprised and delighted with the prompt relief afforded by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. Not one case of rheumatism in ten requires any internal treatment whatever. This liniment is for sale by Patterson & Son.

Reminding us of some of the good times enjoyed by the earlier residents of Heppner, is an old poster dug out of a pigeon hole in the postoffice this week by Maurice Smead. It announces a performance by the Heppner Dramatic Association of the drama, "Michael Erie, or, The Magic Lover," with the following names in the cast of characters: D. D. Squier, I. N. Donaldson, H. H. Hallock, Will Mallory, G. Moody, Fred D. Hallock, A. M. Gunn, Nellie Hallock, Ida Hallock and Lena Wyland. The performance was given in Leezer's new hall on Thursday evening Jan. 20, 1881, and was one of a series of like entertainments given that winter by the association.

About twenty of the ladies of Heppner met at the Episcopal church on Wednesday and took preliminary steps to organize a library association for Heppner. They have started the proposition off on a small scale, making any one eligible for membership who will donate a book and pay ten cents per month as a membership fee. At another meeting to be held in the future a name will be decided upon and other matters for perfecting of the association will be taken up with a view to extending the work and making it more useful.

Jess Hicks departed on Saturday morning for Portland where he will visit for a few days with his mother and then go on to Coburg where his father resides. Jess has been a faithful machine man on the Times force for several years past, is a fine boy and we beseech for him success wherever he goes. He will likely return to Heppner after a few weeks visit with the home folks, and take up work with the Maccabees in conjunction with Mr. Smith who has been here for some time.

Andy Rood, Jr., promising young farmer of the Heppner Flat country, was in town on Monday. Andy has in 600 acres of wheat; he hopes that it will go 40 bushels to the acre and that it will bring him $1.00 a bushel. Hope so, too, Andy, as your prosperity will mean the same to many another farmer in Morrow county. The bank stands ready to take care of the money.

Orris Robertson was up from Portland a few days this week, remaining over Sunday. He was here in the interest of Mr. Selling's campaign for United States senator, representing the Portland business men's association. While here he organized a Selling club and from now on active work will be done in this county to get the vote for the Portland man.

Children are much more likely to contract the contagious diseases when the child has a cold. That is why all medical authorities say beware of colds. For the quick cure of colds you will find nothing better than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It can be depended upon and is pleasant to take. For sale by Patterson & Son.

Aaron Peterson, of Eight Mile, made the Gazette-Times a pleasant call on Monday and lined up with us for another year. It has been some cold out his way the past week, but no apparent damage has been done to the crops. Mr. Peterson predicts an abundant yield for his section the coming harvest.

The Rev. H. O. Perry, of Sny-side, Wash., District Superintendent, will preach at the M. E. Church next Sunday both morning and night. There will be a reception of new members, baptism, quarterly meeting, etc. A cordial invitation to all.

License to wed was issued on Wednesday to Mr. Roy Neill and Miss Norma Morehead, of Butter creek, and the young people are to be married to-day at Pendleton. The G-T wishes them success in this new relation.

Mrs. L. E. Cohn has retired from Portland with the latest styles in spring millinery and invites the ladies of Heppner and vicinity to inspect same. The first pattern hats display Saturday, March 9, and following Monday and Tuesday.

Single Comb Rhode Island Reds: All utility stock sold. Eggs from special matings only. Price per setting $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00. A few more choice cockerels for sale. Brilliant Poultry Yards, Heppner, Oregon.

Roy and Ed Neil of Butter creek, have dissolved their partnership in the ranch business, Roy retiring and Ed continuing with the ranch and sheep business. The deal was made at Heppner on Wednesday.

Richard Crewdson, of Parker's Mill, made final five-year proof on his homestead before Judge Patterson on Tuesday.

Cream Puffs at the Bakery every Saturday. All kinds of cookies and pastry at the Bakery.

Mrs. F. Luper will have on display, Saturday, March 10, her first spring millinery.

You need not pay so much for insurance. Talk to M. E. Smead.

GOOD
GOODS

MINOR & CO.

GOOD
GOODS

Sincerity Clothes

The suit you are going to buy from us will be just what it seems to be.

You'll buy it because its smarter looking--fits better--is better quality and richer fabric and more uniformly tailored than any you've seen.

$15 to $25

The Sincerity Store

GOOD
GOODS

Minor & Company

GOOD
GOODS

FREDERICK STEIWER,
Of Pendleton.

Candidate before the Republican Party of Morrow and Umatilla Counties for the office of
DISTRICT ATTORNEY.

My Platform:
"A strict and impartial enforcement of the laws of Oregon."
(Paid Adv.)

The weather the past week has been a little hard on the buttercups and daisies. The north wind is chilling.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of coughs, colds and croup. It can be depended upon. Try it. Sold by Patterson & Son.

J. S. Baldwin was in town Saturday and called around to make the editor feel good. Shelly has had charge of the Ed Duran farm in Black Horse for several seasons past but his time is up there now and he is undecided just what he will do.

Arthur Daly is on the streets again after being confined for a number of weeks at the Heppner hospital with a serious illness. The old gentleman is greatly pleased to be able to get about town and joke with his numerous friends again and they are glad to see him so far on the road to recovery again.

M. D. L. French, Mrs. T. J. Humphreys, Mrs. Clyde Brock and Mrs. W. O. Hill made a visit to lone on Friday to consult with the members of the Christian church there on the matter of hiring a pastor for the coming year in conjunction with the Heppner church.

Wanted.

By a man and wife, a position on ranch. Both know ranch work and guarantee satisfaction. Inquire at this office. 3t.

J. H. BODE
Merchant Tailor
HEPPNER - - - OREGON

THE MODERN PAINTER
PAPER HANGING
SUMMERFIELD

For Clerk.

To the Voters of Morrow County:
I will be a candidate for Nomination to the office of County Clerk on the Republican Primary Nominating Election Ballot at the Primaries to be held on April 19, 1912. I promise if nominated and elected to the office of County Clerk the same service you have had the past six years.
Very respectfully,
WALTER O. HILL.

For Sheriff.

I am a candidate for the nomination for the office of Sheriff on the Republican ticket, subject to the will of the voters at the primaries on April 19, 1912.
My record as a citizen of Morrow county for the past 25 years should be a sufficient guarantee that I will make good if nominated and elected to this important office.
MARION EVANS.

For Sheriff.

I desire to announce to the voters of Morrow county that I am a candidate for the nomination of Sheriff on the Democratic ticket at the forthcoming primaries. If I am nominated and elected I will, during the term of my office conduct the affairs of the office in the future as I have tried to do in the past viz: to the interests of the taxpayers.
J. C. HAYES.

For Superintendent.

I am a candidate for the nomination for County School Superintendent at the Republican Primary Election to be held April 19, 1912. If nominated and elected, I shall continue to work for the advancement of the educational interests of the county.
S. E. NOTSON.

For Treasurer.

To the Voters of Morrow County:
I have served as your county treasurer during the past term, and will be a candidate for re-election. To this end I ask your suffrage at the Primary Nominating Election to be held on the 19th day of April, 1912. Thanking you for past support, and promising a faithful performance of

FRANK GILLIAM.

Are You Boosting Morrow County?

Are You Patronizing Home Industry?

WE ARE MANUFACTURING Flour and Feed superior to any imported article. If you are not using our products call at our office on Main Street and get a testing sample.

Our flour is made exclusively from selected Morrow County Bluestem Wheat.

Seed Grain, Rolled Feed, Alfalfa Seed.

We Solicit the Storage of your Wool

MORROW WAREHOUSE MILLING CO.

Star Theater

Complete Change of Program Sundays, Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays

The Star Theater