A Delightful Meeting

It was the pleasure of the editor of the Gazette-Times, in company with Hon. T. J. Mahoney, of the First National Bank, to attend the regular monthly meeting of the Congregational Men's Club of Lexington, on Tuesday evening. This Club has been in existence for several months past, being organized through the efforts of Rev. Otho G. Reade, pastor of the Congregational church at Lexington. At every meeting it is planned before hand to have some outside speaker present to present to the Club an address on some subject of live interest, and Tuesday evening, following an elegant banquet that had been prepared by the wives of the Club members, Mr. Mahoney gave an able address on the Relation of Banking to the Business Man. In classifying business men, the speaker included the farmer and stock-raiser; he dwelt at some length on the history of banking and what it really is as an institution, showing clearly what kind of policy should be followed to place the bank on a safe basis for handling the funds of its depositors. Mr. Mahoney also stressed diversified farming, dairying, poultry raising and hog raising, and plainly showed how important this is for the future of our county. His address was not lengthy but it was full of good meat from beginning to end and was received in a very appreciative manner by those present. Following Mr. Mahoney, a reading was given by Mrs. Ella Craven Wheeler, and a short address on the loyalty of the towns of the county to each other, by the editor of the Gazette-Times. After this address, Mrs. Wheeler favored the gathering with a number of readings which were greatly enjoyed. W. E. Leach, president of the Club, presided, and the wives of the members were present to partake of the good things of the evening along with their husbands; this being out of the usual order as the meetings heretofore have been attended only by the members. In this organization, Lexington has taken a forward step; in fact she can be said to be ahead of any of the other towns of the county along this line. The members are enthusiastic, are getting hold of live subjects, and the organization is proving to be a booster for the little city. The editor of this paper was indeed glad to be a guest at the gathering on Tuesday evening, and expresses the hope that he may be able to attend many more similar meetings. To say nothing of the good things that the ladies had prepared for the inner man, the intellectual feast was itself a feature that was well worth going many miles to hear and enjoy.

For his opening night at the new location, Mr. Parks has ordered the Passion Play, three reels; also a good comedy, making four reels for the one show, and a good vaudeville act will be put in for full measure.

John F. Richardson, of the reclamation service, was in Heppner over last night, getting a list of the lands owned within the limits of the West extension, that they may be lined up with reference to their water rights.

Mr. Branstatter, the new owner of the Yocom place near Lexington, is making some good improvements to the property. He has recently located here with his family and appears to be the kind of a citizen we are looking for. He is putting the house in nice shape and is also laying the foundation for a good barn that will be pushed to completion at once. More people are needed in Morrow county who will give attention to the improving of their surroundings with good residences and barns. It is a specie of advertising that counts and speaks volumes for the thrift of our people.

Repels Attack Of Death.

"Five years ago two doctors told me I had only two years to live." This startling statement was made by Stillman Green, Malachite, Col. "They told me I would die with consumption. It was up to me then to try the best lung medicine and I began to use Dr. King's New Discover. It was well I did, for today I am working and believe I owe my life to this great throat and lung cure that has cheated the grave of another victim." Its folly to suffer with coughs, colds or other throat and lung troubles now. Take the cure that's safest. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottle free at Slocum Drug Co.

You may say goodbye to constipation with a clear conscience if you use Chamberlain's Tablets. Many have been permanently cured by their use. For sale by Patterson & Son.
