W. O. Minor is well pleased with the results obtained at the sale of shorthorns in Portland during the recent stock show. He disposed of some of his calves and yearlings, receiving an average price of $230 per head. Mr. Minor had none of his stock prepared as "show stuff," but when the sales were called they brought the best prices because of their being the best there. The demand for shorthorns is on the increase and orders Mr. Minor receives cannot be filled even to a small per cent.

EASTERN OREGON IS STRONG FOR SELLING

Candidate Has Many Friends East of Mountains.

Newspapers of That Section Advise the People to Support Selling.

Positive in the belief that a change is needed for the best interests of Oregon in the United States senate, many newspapers in Eastern Oregon have openly declared themselves for Ben Selling to succeed Senator Jonathan Bourne.

In a recent issue the La Grande Evening Observer editorially remarked:

"The announcement that Ben Selling will make the race for the senate against Jonathan Bourne is received with considerable satisfaction, for all know that Selling is a thoroughly progressive citizen and stands for all the measures that are dear to the people, having been one of the legislators who not only helped inaugurate the new form of government in this state, but also has been one of those who has constantly stood on guard to prevent repeal of any of the measures.

"Mr. Bourne is practically a non-resident of this state and is scarcely a taxpayer. He spends his entire time in the east and seldom visits the state that has honored him. By the way, Mr. Voter, have you ever seen Jonathan Bourne? What do you know about him other than to receive a letter occasionally written by a paid stenographer and signed with a rubber stamp? Can you point to anything of importance that he has done for Oregon? You know of course that he voted with Aldrich and the rich men of the east on tariff issues. You know he owns a large cotton goods manufacturing plant on the Atlantic seaboard and that he is reputed to be worth $15,000,000. You know also that his interests in Oregon are so meager that his tax is exactly $2.44 according to the Portland Journal of Sunday, Mar. 3rd.

"All of these things being true, don't you think it is time to replace him with a citizen of the state—a man who has lived over half a century in Oregon—who has property nowhere else and who stands his share of taxes and works every day in the year to build up his state?

"Is it not time for Oregon to be for Oregon, as Bill Hanley says, and desist from sending a rich aristocrat whose interests lie in eastern states to assist in making laws for Oregon?"

"The people have a splendid opportunity to elect a man who will represent Oregon and the Oregon system, for Ben Selling aided materially in outlining and passing every law that gives the power of government directly to the people in this state."

"OUTLOOK" FOR SELLING

Editor H. L. St. Clair Comes Out Strong and Predicts Success.

The Gresham Outlook, edited by H. L. St. Clair, one of the strong country papers of the state, has endorsed the candidacy of Ben Selling for United States senator in no unmistakable language. Here is what the Outlook editorially has to say:

"The candidacy of Ben Selling for the nomination as United States senator, to take the place occupied by Jonathan Bourne, Jr., is formally announced. Mr. Selling has been getting ready for this announcement for some time and he has been encouraged by thousands of friends. Mr. Selling is a man of practical affairs, not theories. He is a good clean Republican, not a politician. He is a thorough Oregonian and stands for the best in the Oregon system. We look for him to make a sweeping campaign and not only secure the nomination on April 19, but the election in the fall.

"Mr. Selling tells in his declaration what he will stand for and try to accomplish if elected:

"If I am nominated and elected, I will, during my term of office, uphold the Oregon system; support tariff revision with justice to labor, producer and consumer; larger appropriations under continuing contracts for Oregon's rivers and harbors; local Federal land courts for speedily determining settlers' rights; administration of forest reserves in the interest of our people; return of Oregon's reclamation fund; immediate development of Alaska's resources under government control; pensions for deserving veterans; federal regulation of corporations; an elastic monetary system free from Wall street influence; graduated income tax; presidential primaries; direct election president, vice president and United States senators; free canal for American ships; parcels post; oppose special interests; ship subsidies."
