Last year we were the only store handling it in Heppner, and you all know the sensation a two-bit poison caused.

It is sold under a money back guarantee, if not satisfactory.

We have yet the first complaint to hear from.

Now is the time to do effective work in ridding the farm of these little pests, the squirrels.

COUNCIL MEETS

Report of City Health Officer Presented—Street Improvements Discussed.

A regular meeting of the city council was held in chambers on Monday evening with Mayor Van Vactor presiding and all members present with the exception of C. A. Minor.

It is a pleasure to make note of the improved appearance of the council room since it has received attention at the hands of the paper hanger and painter. Some new furniture has also been added and more will follow to take the place of the benches that have been used for so long. These improvements to the council room were long past due.

At the previous meeting of the council it was ordered that some temporary work be done on the streets to rid them of the mud holes and loose rock but the committee on streets and public property have not as yet undertaken this work as they felt it would be the means of stirring up too much dust and the matter of securing water for sprinkling purposes had not yet been settled. However, the street improvement question will not drop, and the demand for permanent improvement of our streets is being urged more and more by the progressive business men and property owners of the city. At Monday night's meeting of the council it was the consensus of opinion that the time was near at hand to take the proper steps to initiate this work, and it may be that the temporary work proposed will take the shape of preparing the streets for the proper foundation for the permanent hard surfacing so much needed.

Dr. Boyden, city health officer, made a verbal report as to the sanitary conditions, especially with reference to water closets and cess pools. Based upon the report of the physician, the city attorney is instructed to draft an ordinance to cover the construction of cess pools and septic tanks. This ordinance will place the matter in such shape that the council can order septic tanks put in where in their judgment the sanitary conditions demand it, and along Main street, at least, all water closets will be done away with.

The report and recommendations of the city physician will be presented to the council in writing. While upon this subject the marshal was instructed to report to the city physician all unsanitary conditions and surroundings coming under his observation and to work in conjunction with him in carrying out any orders that the physician might give.

For clean-up day, Monday, April 22, the marshal was instructed to hire four teams and wagons in addition to the drays, these to be ready for work on Tuesday morning, and to continue until all debris and rubbish is hauled away.

Hon. Ralph D. Cole.

The claims of President Taft to a re-nomination were ably presented to a fair sized audience at the Star theater on last Friday night by Hon. Ralph D. Cole, ex-congressman, of Finley, Ohio, who came to Oregon at the special request of the president. Mr. Cole was received at the depot by a committee of the local Taft club, and later was tendered a reception and banquet at the Palace where covers were spread for 50, and where good fellowship reigned supreme for the space of one hour and a quarter. Short addresses followed the banquet, Hon. T. J. Mahoney acting as toast master and calling out a number of the gentlemen present. Mr. Cole spoke words of appreciation for the courtesies extended to him, stating that it was the very best reception that he had received since coming to the state, but reserved all remarks of a political nature until the time of the set address. W. W. Smead introduced the speaker to the audience, and for nearly two hours Mr. Cole presented in an eloquent manner his reasons for the return of Mr. Taft to the presidential office for another four years. The speaker was free from any personal reflections, did not mention the name of Mr. Roosevelt, except to praise him for his good judgment in placing Mr. Taft in very important positions of trust. He mentioned many of the great achievements of the present administration; especially his great work with reference to the construction of the Panama canal and what its completion will mean to this Pacific northwest; his labors in behalf of the great wool industry, and incidentally showing the great difficulties lying in the path of tariff legislation; the president's interest in irrigation and many other issues that greatly interest our people, all of which was well received. Mr. Cole is a campaigner of exceptional ability, is well posted, and an orator. His address made friends for the president, and did the other fellows no harm.

Children are much more likely to contract the contagious diseases when the child has a cold. That is why all medical authorities say beware of colds. For the quick cure of colds you will find nothing better than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It can be depended upon and is pleasant to take. For sale by Patterson & Son.

THOUSANDS ENDORSE COCHRAN CANDIDACY

Letters received by George T. Cochran, progressive Republican candidate for congress, and present water superintendent for Eastern Oregon, supporting his candidacy are numbered in four figures. Born in Union county and raised in Eastern Oregon where he practiced law, Mr. Cochran knows every foot of the district he would be asked to represent. His platform hits a happy medium between standpatism and radicalism. A vote for him means Eastern Oregon's first congressman will have ability, dignity and strength.

Death of Miss Tillard.

Miss Grace Lee Tillard, for a number of years a resident of Heppner and a teacher in our public schools here, died at her home in Oregon City on Sunday, April 14th, of consumption. Interment took place at Mt. Scott cemetery on Monday. Miss Tillard was born at Weston, Oregon, where she resided the most of her life. From there she removed with her parents to this city, and after a residence here of a number of years she went to The Dalles, where she taught in the schools, later going to Portland and Oregon City. Miss Tillard is survived by her mother, Mrs. Flora Tillard, of The Dalles; four sisters, Mrs. Alice Barr, of Portland, Mrs. Victor Marden, of The Dalles, Mrs. Rosenberg, of Forest Grove, and another sister in Baker; two brothers, William Tillard, of Portland; Andrew Tillard, of Wyoming. Miss Tillard had many friends at this place who will learn with sorrow of her demise.

SECOND GAME

A GOOD ONE

At End of First Half of 7th Inning Score is One and.

Ione and Heppner High schools crossed bats in the second game of the season on Ione grounds last Saturday afternoon, and the result was one of the very best games ever played in the county. Unfortunately there was a late start, and as many of the Heppner people had to return on the afternoon train, it was stipulated that the game should be called off as soon as the local arrived at Ione. This brought the game to an end following the close of the first half of the seventh inning, with one tally only to the credit of each team. The game was fast from the beginning and the teams proved to be very evenly matched, though the Heppner boys are of the opinion that they were making gains at the end of the game and would have pulled out ahead, providing the full nine innings had been played. However, they are well satisfied with the result, and give the Ione boys credit for putting up a mighty good game all the way through. We have not learned whether another game has been definitely arranged between these two teams, but understand that there is talk of the third game being pulled off at Heppner on Monday afternoon, the 22nd.

Following is the summary of the game as furnished us by Manager Maddock:

Bases on Balls—Off Reitman 3; Off Thornton 4—Stolen Bases—W. Reitman 3; A. Cochran 2; Crawford 2; Hale; Yeager. Hit by Pitcher, Yeager. Struck out by Reitman 5; by Thornton 6. Double play, Yeager (unassisted) Umpire Cronan.

Mrs. W. P. Dutton is quite seriously ill at her home in this city, suffering a severe attack of stomach trouble.

BORAH FOR VICE PRESIDENT

Portland, Oregon, April 10, 1912. (To the Editor)

At the coming primary election, Oregon Republicans will have an opportunity to express their choice as to the several Republican candidates for President of the United States, but no steps have been taken to endorse any candidate for the office of Vice President. The individual voter may, however, write in the name of his favorite for Vice President, and in this connection permit me to suggest to you Republican readers that the name of Senator William E. Borah, of Idaho, be written in and voted for in the customary manner.

Senator Borah is recognized as one of the foremost men in the United States Senate and his record shows that he is a staunch friend of the State of Oregon and has supported every measure tending to benefit the great Pacific Northwest. Besides this, Senator Borah's wife is a daughter of an honored pioneer of this State and he is known personally to many of our citizens. Senator Borah is a progressive Republican, is admired and respected by all classes of people, and is a fearless and brilliant public official. Although he is not an active candidate for Vice President, Senator Borah's name has frequently been mentioned as a possible nominee, and an unsought endorsement at the hands of Oregon Republicans at the coming primaries would not only be a fitting tribute to his worth and standing and the esteem in which he is held by the people of this State, but also a splendid compliment to our sister state of Idaho.

Those who favor Senator Borah's nomination for Vice President may vote for him by writing "X—Borah, William E., of Idaho," at the proper place on the primary ballot.

C. N. McARTHUR.

Senator Bourne.

Shall we beat Bourne? Bourne's speech in advocacy of the Oregon system has had a greater circulation than any other speech ever delivered in the U. S. Senate. More than 2,700,000 copies were mailed on request alone.

To my mind all the things which Bourne has done and is trying to do shrink into insignificance compared to the work he has done and will continue to do for Direct Legislation. The fight he made in 1906, two years before B'n Selling reluctantly stood for Statement No. 1, made it possible for us today to vote for U. S. Senators, and has forced legislative candidates to agree to carry out our wishes in that matter.

Selling claims to have led the fight for Statement No. 1 in Multnomah two years after the election of Bourne on that issue. In an open letter to Selling, Kelleher says: "You refer to the fact that you led the fight for Statement No. 1 in Multnomah county four years ago. This is in spite of the fact that I was the first candidate to file for State Senator and in spite of the fact the friends of Bourne, by means of petitions had to urge you to get into the race."

Under date of April 9, 1906, in an open letter to the Republicans of Oregon, U'Ren says: "Then some friends of the law asked Mr. Bourne to become a candidate for the sole purpose of enforcing the Statement No. 1 agreement of the law. They told him at the time it would cost from $10,000 to $15,000 and they did not believe he was well known to be elected. That through his efforts they thought the law would be enforced even though he should not be elected Senator and they believed he was big enough man to sacrifice himself for a principle."

The campaign has cost more than $15,000 for postage, printing and clerk hire alone.

No other candidate for the U. S. Senate has so much as raised his voice or written a line in favor of requiring would-be members of the legislature to sign Statement No. 1.

I say these things concerning Mr. Bourne because I know they are true and because he has been and is being more persistently and industriously lied about and vilified by the enemies of Statement No. 1 than any other man in Oregon politics today. I have never heard any man who knows Mr. Bourne question his honesty, his truthfulness or his ability."

The same is true today. All governments, in all ages, are and have been administered for the benefit of the governors. We need the National Initiative, Referendum and Recall, and the reelection of Bourne will be of greater help in this matter than that of any other candidate.

Yours respectfully,

O. D. TEELE.
