IONE.

Mrs. Fred Kaiser, of Dufur, is here visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Griffin.

Mrs. Lute Jordan, formerly of Ione but now living at Portland, is up here visiting with friends and relatives.

Dr. Chick and Willard Blake were Heppner visitors last week, going up Thursday evening and returning Friday morning.

Mrs. Turner, who has been visiting with A. Rice and family for some time returned to her home at Eugene last Tuesday a week.

Bishop Paddock spoke in the Baptist church Monday evening April 22, to a very attentive audience. During the evening service four were confirmed.

Fred Esteb and his wife were out in Gooseberry one day last week.
Fred reports things fine and dandy out in his part of the country. Says he never saw a better outlook.

"Every time the automobile breaks down I notice you look at your state license." "I do that for encouragement. The license says I'm competent to operate the machine."

Dr. A. Reid and wife returned to their home at Stanfield Monday morning of last week. We understand that the doctor sold one of his houses and lots while up here. Mrs. Liddie Rhea being the purchaser.

Born—to Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Morgan on Sunday, April 28 a daughter.
Moher and child getting along nicely.
Bennie is wearing that everlasting smile since he is the proud daddy of the fine young lady.

Mr. and Mrs. McAllister of Heppner, and Dot Ganger and Mabel Davidson of Ione went to Pendleton Wednesday, as delegates of the Baptist church S. S. to attend the state Sunday school association.

Sam was a tight-fisted, hard-hearted old rancher. His brother William dying, the neighbors said, from lack of proper treatment. Sam drove to town to have a death notice inserted in the weekly paper. "There aint no charges, be there?" he asked. "O, yes indeed," answered the editor "our price is $2 an inch." "Crackkv!" muttered the old man, "an' Bill six feet two."

The best baseball game of the season was played at Ione, Sunday, April 28, between the Morgan Snails and the Ione Turtles. The game waxed so fast and furious that it required a new pitcher every inning. Score keeper Sodan Water Ed used up all the available score cards to be had in the community and it was impossible to keep track of the runs. We saw an auto load of Heppner people, "stop to witness" the game. Whether the game was so swift for them to follow or whether they were afraid their machine would shy at it, we did not learn, but they made a very short stay. We hope the boys will give us the other barrel next Sunday.

Bill Wasn't Bored.

Bill has a billboard. Bill also has a board bill. The board bill bored Bill, so Bill sold the billboard to pay the board bill. So after Bill sold his billboard to pay his board bill the board bill no longer bored Bill.

The ball game played at Ione Saturday between the Heppner and Ione grammar schools was an excellent game. Both teams played good ball, the Heppner boys being a little slow on bases was the main reason of the Ione team getting several runs. Morrel Blake was the main guy with the big stick, hitting one two bagger and two three baggers. The score was 7 to 1 in Ione's favor. Heppner's line up was as follows: 1b, Smith; 2b, Hale; 3b, Young; cf, Crawford; p, Wilson; ss, Wright; rf, Cowins; c, Hayes; 3b, Piske. Ione's lineup as follows: 1b, Lundell; 2b, Howell; 3b, Cochran cf, Reitman; p, Blake; ss, V. Reit-man rf, K. Blake; c, Pennington; 3b, Debvna. We hope the boys will get together again and have a nice game.
Let us all boost for both the Heppner and Ione grammar school teams as they are part of the rising generation and they all have their little part to do in the world. A little encouragement won't hurt any of them.

on his property on Knob Hill in Lexington.

gan and family a few days last week.

eral cleaning up of the entire cemetery.

Miss Johnson and Miss Morgan two of our school teachers have been required for the ensuing year. The children of the school will be pleased to hear this for they all think very much of these two teachers.

Wouldn't it be a good plan for our Lexington people to follow the example of the other towns and clean up our streets and alleys? Strangers coming into our burg notice these things, so citizens get busy and hereby boost Lexington.

The Tum-a-Lum Lumber Co. is stocking up with their summer supply of wood. They have about 400 cords be good and dry for the people when they commence to haul it away.

recently. Hope they don't find them all.

School started at the Blue Mountain school house the 22nd of April.
There are a few pupils going. The teacher is Miss Alice Arnold.

A bunch of Indians camped on Rhea creek recently. They have one hundred head of horses. They will be digging cause soon near Horse gulch.

Bert Burrows, while working at Reids mill Monday morning, stepped on a piece of lumber. The lumber broke, Bert suffering a broken leg.
Dr. Winnard answered the hurry call to attend him.

William Ridgeway went to the mountains Saturday to purchase a load of wood. On his way back he found the roads very soft so he left his wagon. Try it again Bill, don't get disgusted with the first attempt.

Harley Matteson recently injured his big toe by riding a wild horse near Balm creek. The horse bucked to a ditch and fell on the rider's foot.
Harley said he thought the toe would be alright soon if he could keep it from taking a relapse.

With the ground soaked to the brim with moisture, and a prospect of more, mixed with abundant sunshine we predict a record breaker for Morrow county this year. Oh you sack trust!

The ball game between the Heppner boys and the Eightmile lads on the latter diamond was reported to be a warm one. Heppner won the game to the tune of 18 to 3. Oh well, we will try and do better next time.

W. W. Brannon's family expect to move down on the ranch in a few days. We has been stopping at the ranch for some time, plowing summerfallow. He no doubt will be glad to see the cook as batching and plowing don't go well together. We are all pleased to know that Mrs. Brannon will be numbered among the Eightmilers again.

LOWER EIGHTMILE

Addie Carlson is visiting friends in Portland this week.

Lundell Bros., prosperous farmers of this vicinity are nearly through with their spring work.

Mr. Aaron Peterson made a flying trip to Heppner last week to engage warehouse space for his 1912 crop.

Have you seen that brand new smile on Leonard Anderson's face?
No. What caused it, rain? No, Hilda.

We had another fine rain last week, which had a tendency to increase the grin on the farmers faces in this vicinity.

Emma Bergstrom is back home.
She has been in Heppner working for Mr. Bisbee. She says Heppner is all right but there is no place like home.

Mr. Carlson's well drillers are down nearly 600 feet and are kicking up clouds of dust, but they feel sure that they will strike abundance of water when they strike hard pan.
