IONE.

Joe Knappenberg and wife went up to Heppner Monday night, returning the next day.

Mrs. Beach Haines returned last Thursday night from Wamic where she attended the funeral of her brother-in-law.

Frank Christosen, who has been attending school at Portland for the past five months, is visiting with Dr.
Chick and family.

Mrs. Lute Jordan, who has been visiting with friends and relatives for a time, returned to her home at Portland last Thursday.

Rev. Jones, of the Christian church, spoke to a very attentive audience at Walker's hall Monday night of last week.

Rev. Reade and Charlie Cochran returned from Portland last Saturday night where they have been receiving surgical attention for the past week.

Ione shipped out 53 cases of eggs Tuesday morning of last week. That means 1590 dozen at 17 1/2 cents a dozen or $278.25. Nice bunch of eggs for one shipment, eh?

Don't forget the play, entitled "A College Town," to be given by the Ione High School at the Skating Rink Tuesday evening, May 14. A good time is in store for all.

J. P. Louy and wife, formerly of Ione, but now living at Shaniko, made long a flying visit last week.
Crop prospects are so good it is very hard for the old timers to stay away.

Miss Dalles Perkins of Portland, came up to Ione last Monday night to help her father in the postoffice a few days. Mr. Perkins has been under the weather for some time, but we are glad to learn that he is feeling a good deal better again.

"Angels With Wings."
"What is an angel, mother?" asked a six-year-old girl. "Why, dear, its a beautiful lady with wings, who flies. But why do you ask?" "Because I heard father call my governess an angel." "Oh!" said the mother. "Well, you watch her and you will see her fly tomorrow."

Rube Sperry and wife and their boy blew into Ione last Thursday. They have been at Corvallis for the past eight months, but they could not stay away any longer. Rube is having his house overhauled and things fixed up proper. He says he has found no place that looks better to him than Ione and vicinity.

Wasn't It True?
A fashionably dressed lady met a little barelegged urchin carrying a bird's nest with eggs in it. "You are a wicked boy," said the lady.
"How could you rob the nest? No doubt the poor mother is now grieving for the loss of her eggs." "Oh, she don't care," said the boy, edging away "she's on your hat."

Ross Shaver met with a painful accident last Sunday afternoon while playing ball. It seems he was running from first to second base and in some manner got his feet tangled, breaking his leg above the knee. Dr.
Winnard came down from Heppner with an auto and took Ross up there where he can be properly cared for.
We hope he will get along alright and soon be able to come down and see us again.

The Ione public school will hold the 8th grade exercises Wednesday evening May 15, in the Skating Rink.
The 12th grade will be held in the same place, Thursday, May 16, and we want you all to bear in mind that the commencement banquet will be held in the Rink Friday evening, May 17. We want to make this point very plain that we want you all to come to the banquet. This will be no chosen few affair. We don't care where you live, or what your occupation is, you are invited to attend.
There will be plenty for all and room for all. Now remember the date.
Everybody is invited and all welcome.

LEXINGTON.

Miss Merle Carmichael visited in Heppner on Wednesday.

T. M. Scott came in the last of the week to visit with relatives for some time.

Mrs. George Allyn gave an ice cream social to her Sunday school class on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Winkle have moved into the Gus McMillan house on Knob Hill.

Thomas Lyness, who has been preaching out in the Devine district returned to Arlington on Monday's train.

Every rig in Lexington was engaged to carry people to the circus, so we suppose that quite a number of our people attended.

Mr. Ranssen left on Wednesday for his new home at the Dalles. We are sorry to lose him and wish him every success.

Mrs. Alfred Cribbens came down to Lexington on Saturday, returning to Heppner. Mrs. Cribbens expects to move to Heppner the latter part of the week.

Chas. Brashears had the misfortune to lose a $200 mare on Sunday afternoon. Ed Burchell also lost a fine horse, one of his driving team the same day.

Mrs. Reade and children were Ione passengers on Saturday. Mrs. Reade expected to meet her husband at Ione.
He is returning from Portland after having had an operation on his jaw.
They will return to Lexington on Sunday.

Ed Butchell and May Johnson were married Sunday evening, May 5th, at Portland. Mr. Burchell and his bride intend going to Seaside for their honeymoon. Lexington wishes the newlyweds long life and success and hope Ed will bring some good cigars for their many friends.

EIGHT MILE.

Rev. Cross called at Gays one day last week.

Bob Allsett finished summerfallow-ing the first of the week.

Luther Huston finished his spring seeding a few days ago.

Rev. Warren and wife are visiting in Eight Mile at present.

John Olden and wife attended church at Liberty last Sunday.

Miss Grace Bellenbrock visited with C. B. Wife and wife last Sunday.

People in Eight Mile are growling it is too wet to plow. Its fierce isn't it?

The growing wheat is doing fine.
The only drawback is some of it is too thick.

Sylvia and Claud Huston took their horses to the summer pasture the first of the week.

Rev. McAllister addressed a large audience at Liberty. He is an able speaker. Come again.

Leonard Carlson took dinner with Noah Clark last Sunday. He believes in starting early.

Mr. Stikes spoke at Eight Mile Center and Liberty school houses last week to the members of the Farmers' Union.

Mrs. Forbes is out from the East visiting with her daughters Mrs. Becket of Eight Mile and Mrs. Clark of Heppner.

Harrison Elliott was thrown from a bucking mule last Sunday. He thought for awhile he was seriously injured, but proved to be more scared than hurt.

LOWER EIGHTMILE

Mrs. Hilda Esteb and children departed for Arleta, Oregon last week where she expects to remain.

Oh you beautiful rain! Come again. A couple of weeks of sunshine will make the grain that is headed out, ready for harvest.

The well drillers on Mr. Carlson's place are down nearly 700 feet and have struck flint rock. They don't kick up any more dust, but the way they make the sparks fly would put the northern lights in the shade.
Mr. Carlson thinks that is good indication of water.

The long talked-of railroad between Biggs and Hardman will be a reality this year if we have a good crop.
The old boosters are at work taking the matter up again and intend to stay with it until they have a railroad. Their idea is to bring the road up Columbia river to the mouth of John Dav, up that river to the mouth of Eight Mile, then up Eight Mile to Charley Anderson's place, one branch continuing up Eight Mile to Hardman, the other branch running south to Mr. Carlson's where they expect to get their water supply, besides tapping a rich farming country.
I don't believe they could have laid out a better road if they had tried, and believe it will be a paying proposition and a big boost for Morrow county.

CASTLE ROCK.

L. M. Davis and son Jesse went to the ranch with horses Tuesday.

A. L. Huff was called to the River Side Farm again to look after the engine.

Mrs. Davis received a box of house plants, roses and berry plants one day last week.

Word was sent to Mr. Cramer to return to the River Side Farm as Mrs.
Cramer was worse.

J. B. Davis has become a section hand and is holding down the sand pile at the siding.

The new forman has received his household goods and is now nicely settled with his family.

Mr. Tom Robbins has taken up section work again and says he never intends to leave Castle Rock.

Dr. Lowe, of Arlington, was called up to the River Side Farm to see Mrs. Cramer, who is reported quite sick.

Castle Rock has about 10 or 12 railroad surveyors now camped on the switch and it is reported we are to have an extra gang shortly to begin the actual work on straightening the curves.

Sunday saw quite a crowd in Castle Rock from over the river. The Poston family were over to see Miss Poston and her sister take the local to Pendleton. Mr. Bennit and Mr. Bass were also here.

Last Friday Mesdames Wasley and Davis, with a rig full of youngsters, went driving and called on Mr. and Mrs. Wall and Mr. and Mrs. Crooks.
They found improvements going on in a marked degree at the latter place.

Mr. A. L. Huff of, Arlington, was in Castle Rock the first of the week, helping Gibbons get the engine to working and also helping Mr. Davis get his windmill out up. Irrigation is the leading occupation down here now.

HARDMAN.

(Intended for last week) Too wet to plow at this writing.

Mrs. T. H. Deen is on the sick list this week.

M. A. Bates is assessing our taxpayers this week.

Jimmie Harms has returned from Buttermilk canyon.

C. A. Repass is painting A. E.
Wright's farm residence.

Give us a creamery that will furnish Hardman a market for its cream.

Jan Walker escorted a band of the N. L. & C. Co. sheep to Wall creek
this week.

The families of A. E. Wright and G. L. Hadley have returned to their ranches.

Mrs. Lawrence Stevens goes to meet her husband at Spokane Wash., where he has a position.

Miss Florence Olmstead has accepted the spring and summer term of school at Camas Prairie.

J. F. and C. H. Ward were called to Corvallis last Thursday on the account of the illness of their father.

Mrs. J. W. Wyland departed last Friday for Hermiston to visit with her daughter, Mrs. Eppler Giese.

T. H. Deen and Will Furlong have joined the "Little Wonder" shearing crew, which is now operating at H.
Scherzinger's.

School closed last Friday for this year. Miss Robinson, who has had charge of the school for the past year leaves for Chehalis to accept a position as musical instructor of that place. She is a specialist in this line.

BLACKHORSE

Jimmie Wilson was a visitor at Doherty's last week.

Blackhorses turned out in full force on Monday to see the circus.

J. S. Baldwin and family expect to leave in the near future on a visit to Washington.

Kent Rakes has taken up a homestead of eight acres, just outside of the Leach place.

Mr. Lyness and his sister Miss Annie, have been visiting friends in Blackhorse during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Bell returned last week from a trip to Moscow, Idaho where Mr. Bell went to see about buying a combine.

Five people of Blackhorse by pleasure were led;
To go for a trip down to Jess's homestead.

'Twas on Sunday so fair And Jess wasn't there, Sh! Keep, it dark not a word must be said.

PINE CITY.

J. T. Ayers was in Echo Thursday.
Miss Maude Irvine visited at J. T.
Ayers' Friday.

Bro. Reese preached to a good sized audience Sunday.

There will be preaching next Sunday by Rev. J. T. Hoskins.

Miss Adeline Long is visiting Misses Ruby and Edna Ayers.

W. E. Wiglesworth and family were Heppner visitors Thursday.

H. G. Coxen purchased a new buggy team from R. F. Wiglesworth this week.

R. F. Wiglesworth bought a fine span of brood mares from T. D.
Matthews Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Boston, of Portland are visiting friends and relatives on Butter creek. Mrs. Boston was formerly Miss Lizzie Howard.

Waldo Vincent and A. L. Marton hailed C. H. Bartholomew's wool to town this week. Waldo took eight horses Friday and hauled in his own.

The Turner and McChesney Shearing Co. have finished Bartholomew's and Rourke's sheep and the plant has been moved to W. W. Howard's to shear Howard's and Neil's bands.

W. W. Howard and wife made a trip to Heppner Tuesday. They purchased an incubator. Poultry raising is getting to be a great industry on Butter creek. We will soon rival
"Caekberry Town."
