

WEEK'S NEWS.

Local and Personal Happenings.

All kinds of good ice cold sodas at The Palm.

E. F. Day came up from Portland last Monday.

J. S. Busick was in Heppner the first of the week.

Go to the Bakery for your bread. 26 loaves for $1.00.

Mrs. E. G. Noble is quite sick at her home in Heppner.

W. W. Howard was registered at the Palace Monday.

John Hughes came up from Portland Monday evening.

Thos. Quaid, of Portland, attended the wool sales this week.

Harry Duncan returned to this city on the Monday evening train.

Jack Hynd of Cecil came up to attend the wool sales, Tuesday.

Geo. W. Chapin was in from his Rock creek ranch on Tuesday.

You need not pay so much for insurance. Talk to M. E. Smead.

Farmer Lou Davidson, of Gooseberry, visited Heppner on Tuesday.

Haying is now in progress on the creek bottom lands of Morrow county.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Simas, of Monument, were at the Palace, Tuesday.

Why not select that carpet from the new lines at Case's Furniture Store.

R. F. Wiglesworth and E. D. Neill attended the wool sales last Tuesday.

Ralph Thompson, of Portland, is in the city looking after business interests.

Nat Webb, Jr., of Walla Walla, arrived on the local train Monday evening.

J. H. Cox has just completed a large lumber shed for the Reed Lumber Co.

H. I. Price, the concrete mixer, returned from Portland last Saturday evening.

Highest cash prices paid for hides, pelts and furs. Morrow Warehouse Milling Co.

Dr. Winnard has taken a special course on eye diseases and is prepared to fit glasses properly.

C. H. Bartholomew was in town from Butter creek on Tuesday looking after the sale of his wool.

The neatest thing in the refrigerator line is the "White Frost." Sold by the Case Furniture Company.

Mrs. D. V. S. Ried returned home from Lebanon Monday, where she had gone to attend the funeral of her father.

It may be to your interest to get my prices before buying watches, clocks or jewelry. C. R. Johnson, Jeweler.

Mr. Covey and wife, of Portland, are visiting in Heppner. Mr. Covey is the Portland agent for the Cadillac automobile.

Too hot to cook on Sunday

Roast chicken

Ice cream

Yes at the PALACE HOTEL

A good piano to sell, or trade for horses. This is a good instrument. In first class condition. Inquire at this office.

Alex Greene was in from Eight Mile yesterday. He is fast becoming one of the leading wheat raisers of that section.

The shearing crew at the Whetstone plant finished their work there Saturday evening. Many of the shearers left for Montana.

Mrs. Dumas, of Jefferson Ore., arrived from Stanfield last Thursday evening and is visiting with her cousin, Mrs. Frank Hall.

The Masonic hall is this week receiving a new dress of paint at the hands of Mr. Dan Engelmann which adds much to its appearance.

Raymond Wright and Eva E. Capon were married at Hardman on Sunday, June 2, Rev. J. L. Swift officiating. The groom is a son of A. E. Wright.

Mrs. Frank Roberts and children departed Monday for their home in Portland, after visiting for several days with relatives and friends in this city.

Miss Winnifred Winnard departed for Portland last Monday. She will visit in the east before returning to Klamath Falls, where she will teach next year.

AT THE BAKERY—Get away from the heat of baking by buying your bread. Cream loaf, plain loaf, whole wheat and rye. Nothing better than our cream loaf.

Prof. W. F. Allison and family arrived from Golden, Colorado, as Friday evening and are visiting at the home of Dr. F. E. Boyden. Mrs. Allison is a sister of Mrs. Boyden, and Prof. Allison has been at the head of the department of civil engineering in the Colorado School of Mines at Golden for the past eight years. Having formed a very favorable opinion of the Pacific Coast he resigned his position and has come over on this side of the Rockies with a view to locating at some point here permanently.

R. H. Webber, of The Dalles, was in Heppner during the past week. He is a member of the State Board of Horticulture and Fruit Commissioner for Eastern Oregon and was on an official visit to this part of his district. Mr. Webber is firmly of the opinion that this Willow Creek Valley is an ideal pear country and that a lot of money could be made by our ranchers up and down the creek engaging in this line of horticulture. Apple land is plentiful but good pear land is not easy to find.

The Morrow County Sunday School Association has arranged for a picnic at the Lexington grove on Thursday the 13th, and all the schools of the county are urgently requested to join in and make this a big day. Rev. O. A. Phipps, of Portland, will attend and take part on the program, and an interesting and enjoyable time is promised.

Dean Carter is here this week from Pomeroy Wash., coming down to assist his mother in getting ready to move to the Washington town where they will reside in the future. Mrs. Carter has disposed of her property here to George Stevenson and bought a five-acre tract just outside of Pomeroy. They will leave Heppner on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Keithly are now located for the summer at Tupper Station in the Blue Mountain forest reserve where they will be glad to see their friends from Heppner who happen to come out that way. New buildings with nice surroundings make this an ideal place for spending a few months of the heated term.

M. F. French reached home on Friday from an eight months' sojourn in Alaska. He was at the head of Copper river and reports that the winter there was very light for the Alaska country. He may decide to return there a little later and continue mining operations.

Mr. Sparks, the Star Theatre man, announces that he will show the "Diamond S Ranch" on the 12th and 13th of this month. This picture is much better than any other buckaroo film ever before exhibited in this city. It will be a good one. Don't miss it.

C. J. Johns of Baker, is in town this week. Mr. Johns was at one time in the mercantile business at Sumpter and furnished many of the camp tenders from over this way with their supplies during the summer sojourn of the flocks in the Blue mountains.

This office acknowledges a pleasant call yesterday from Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Alistott, of Eight Mile. These good people are looking forward to an abundant harvest of the golden grain. The Eight Mile country never looked better nor promised a more abundant yield.

Frank T. Fuchs, the baker, will leave on Monday for Oregon City, where he is called to attend court. A competent baker will have charge of his place during his absence, a man coming up from Portland for that purpose.

Robert Dexter was in town on Monday. He is rapidly recovering from his severe spell of blood-poisoning that came near ending his earthly career. At the present time he is suffering from an attack of rheumatism.

Fred Knighten was down from Hardman on Tuesday. He accompanied his daughter, Miss Viola, to town where the latter took the train for Pendleton to visit for a week or ten days with an aunt residing there.

C. F. Waters and family, of Spray, came over to Heppner on Sunday, remaining until after the wool sales. Mr. Waters had no wool to offer but he remained to see how his fellow-flockmasters fared at the sales.

Misses Virginia and Janet Crawford departed this morning for Portland. They expect to be absent for a month or six weeks visiting different points in the Valley.

Mrs. Taylor Dodson, who visited for a fortnight with her mother, Mrs. E. Minor, returned to her home at Ballinghame Wash. on Friday.

H. A. Duncan spent Sunday at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Shutt.

I. L. Howard was up from Ione, Tuesday, and "took in" the wool sales.

Delicious sodas and ice cream sodas at The Palm.

IONE.

Mrs. Tatum, of Pendleton, is visiting with her mother, Mrs. Smith.

Mr. Arthur Rice is enjoying a visit from his mother, who came to Ione Friday of last week.

John Harbke, of Portland, spent a few days in Ione last week looking after business interests.

J. A. Waters and wife were down to the E. M. Shutt ranch last Sunday where they had a nice visit.

Mr. Cronan returned to Ione one day last week after an extended visit with his family at Portland.

Mrs. Joe Williams and her mother, Mrs. Chapman, left for Portland Thursday morning of last week.

We saw the Gooseberry brigade very busy the other evening. I guess they were stemming the berries.

Mrs. William Padberg, of Lexington was down to Ione one day last week, visiting with her brother and sisters.

He—My father weighed only four pounds at his birth.

She—Good gracious! Did he live?

Mr. Irvine Blake departed for Portland last Thursday where he will visit for some time with his daughter, Mrs. Wills.

Ione and Lexington crossed bats on the Lexington diamond last Sunday, resulting in a victory for Ione, the score being 14 to 9.

Augustus—"I'm not fond of the stage, Violet, but I hear your father on the stairs and I think I had better go before the foot lights.

Misses Agnes and Linnie Pennington were passengers Tuesday morning for Pendleton, where they will visit with their aunt who lives up there.

Mr. Louis Padberg was a passenger for Portland last Saturday morning. We understand that Louis is contemplating buying an automobile. Nothing like it, Louis.

Born—at the Jordan hospital, Tuesday, June 4th, to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Robinson an eight pound daughter. Mother and child getting along nicely. Wait with good care will be around in a few days.

Mrs. Watson and her brother, Roy Akers, returned to their home at Winona, Idaho, Tuesday of last week. Mrs. Watson took her two sisters back with her, so that they would not be without a mother's care.

Alex Lindsay has purchased him a new hay stacker and buck rake. Alex says there are so darn many pieces to one of these machines that he thinks he will have some pieces left as he can hardly see where there is a place on the machine for them.

All the creek ranchers are busy making hay these days. They report a fine crop but owing to hard winds and heavy rains it will all have to be cut one way. What's the difference so they get that dandy green stuff in the stack before it spoils.

The dance held at Walker's rink last Friday was a swell affair. There was a nice crowd in attendance and the music was fine. Supper was served at the Ione hotel where everyone ate to their hearts content. When you want a good square meal go down and see Beech, he will treat you right.

The farmers of the surrounding community, met at the Gooseberry school house last Saturday where they had a dandy good time. There was a large crowd in attendance, several parties from Ione being out to enjoy the meeting. They all said that they had never sat down to a finer dinner than was furnished to them out there. Some one said that E. L. Padberg and J. A. Waters ate so much that they made themselves feel miserable for a good part of the afternoon. I tell you there is no goodly goodies that go to waste when Lee and Joe are around.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Charles H. Fletcher

SAND HOLLOW.

Olaud White sold a fat cow and calf.

Mr. Coppock is making rye hay this week.

Mrs. B. P. Doherty has returned to Pendleton.

B. S. Clark intends cutting hay next week.

R. B. Rice took in chickens for the Palace.

John Kilkenny sold some sheep to W. J. Blake.

Farmers are getting their machines in running order.

Mrs. O. S. Hodson is suffering with the rheumatism.

B. P. Doherty started some sheep to the mountains this week.

Muslin Underwear 1-4 off

Minor & Co.
Summer Dresses

Muslin Underwear 1-4 off

Embroidered Lawn dresses in blue and white
Black and white stripes - - $3.75

Striped Lawn dresses made in surplice style with embroidered collars, and trimmed with Ball trimming - - 6.50 & 6.75

Allover embroidery dresses trimmed with linen lace and insertion, crochet buttons - 7.00

White Voile, trimmed with silk fringe and crochet buttons - - - - 8.50

Cotton Corduroy with lace collar and black velvet tie - - - - 8.50

White Voile dress trimmed with Cluny lace,
Irish crochet yoke, Ball trimming - 18.00

Light percale dresses made in surplice style, and Gingham dresses in tan, pink and lavender, trimmed with embroidery and lace - - - - 2.50 to 5.00

Shirtwaists at half price

Muslin Underwear 1-4 off

MINOR & CO.

Muslin Underwear 1-4 off

Chas. Hynds was home a few days last week—also went to Cecil.

Arthur Ashinurst was helping B. S. Clark several days this week.

Sunday school will continue during harvest but will be in the afternoon.

W. J. Blake, deputy assessor, of Ione, was around finishing up his work.

Preaching Sunday by Mr. Powell. Everybody come out and hear the good sermon.

Mr. Scott, who sold his property here and moved to Salem this spring, was married last week.

Mrs. Copenhaver, with her sisters and brother, were in Heppner Decoration Day fixing up their mother's grave.

Claud White went to Hermiston the first of the week after the well digging crew and he hopes to have plenty of water for harvest without having to haul it.

Man Coughs and Breaks Ribs.

After a frightful coughing spell a man in Neenah, Wis., felt terrible pains in his side and his doctor found two ribs broken. What agony Dr. King's New Discovery would have saved him. A few teaspoonsful ends a late cough, while persistent use routs obstinate coughs, expels stubborn colds or heals weak, sore lungs. "I feel it was a God-send to humanity," writes Mrs. Effie Morton, Columbia, Mo. "for I believe I would have consumption today, if I had not used this great remedy." Its guarantee to satisfy, and you can get a free trial bottle or 50 cent or $1.00 size at Slocum Drug Co.

BLACK BUTTE.

The grass in the foothills is very fine now.

William Ridgeway is doing some plowing for Albert Matteson.

Charlie Ridgeway went to Heppner, Monday, hauling a load of wood for Jack Devore.

Frank Gabbles bought a mare recently from Chas. Ridgeway. Frank is very proud of this animal.

Anyone wanting a big lot of wood hauled should enquire at the offices of either Alonzo Reid or Edd Brown.

H. P. Long and O. K. Hoskins are very busy these days making posts. They have a contract calling for five thousand.

5000 Head of Thoroughbred, Fine Wool Sheep

FOR SALE

The entire stud band of thoroughbred sheep of the NUNAMAKER LAND & SHEEP COMPANY are now offered for sale at a bargain. This band consists of 2000 ewes with their lambs, and 1000 yearling ewes, together with thoroughbred bucks enough to breed the band. This is the finest bunch of fine wool sheep in Eastern Oregon. 2900 head of these ewes sheared 14 pounds, and they weigh on an average 140 pounds.

For further information, address

GAZETTE-TIMES

Heppner

Oregon

Elmer and Loren Matteson broke the record recently cutting wood—sawing, splitting and cording five cords in one day. They didn't work all of the next day.

There was a big bucking contest at Ridgeway's corral last Sunday. Elmer and Loren Matteson were the riders. The two vicious animals did not buck much but they made an awful bluff. A big attendance and Jessie Ridgeway got up the big feed. The boys also hived a mammoth swarm of bees.

House for Sale.

Owing to the fact that we expect to move into our new home soon we will sell the house and lot and three acres including chicken house and cow barn. Near site of the proposed Catholic Hospital.

tf. ARTIE MORGAN CONDER.

Lost.

A brown mare weighing about 1800; branded EE on right stifle; white star in forehead. This animal disappeared from the cattle and horse reserve near Hardman in October last. A reward of $10 will be paid for information leading to the recovery of this animal.

E. E. LOVGREN,
Eight Mile Oregon.

J. L. Howard, of Portland, spent a few days with his Morrow county relatives this week. For the past two months Mr. Howard has been farming on a ranch that he now owns in the vicinity of Anacostia, Wash., and says that the work has done him a lot of good. He thinks the country about Antone is one of the coming wheat sections of the Northwest and has a very bright future.

It is now well known that not more than one case of rheumatism in ten requires any internal treatment whatever. All that is needed is a free application of Chamberlain's Liniment and massaging the parts at each application. Try it and see how quickly it will relieve the pain and soreness. Sold by Patterson & Son.

Paul Hiesler this week disposed of 3000 acres of his Butter creek ranch to W. E. Wiglesworth who will move onto the ranch at once. This leaves Paul sufficient land and range for one good band of sheep to which he can give his whole attention.

WOODLARK SQUIRREL POISON

Destroys Sags, Rats, Squirrels, Gophers and Prairie Dogs. Requires no mixing or preparation—Always ready for use. Deadliest of all. Your money back if not as claimed. CLARK, WOODWARD DRUG CO., PORTLAND, ORE.