THURSDAY, June 13, . . . . 1912

Monday, June 17th, is the date of the annual school meeting and there should be a large attendance. One director to serve for a period of three years and clerk to serve for one year are to be elected, besides other important business to be looked after. We have heard no one mentioned for the office of director, neither have we learned of anyone asking for the place, but the retiring director, Mr. M. D. Clark, has made good and we should like to see him re-elected. He is greatly interested in making the Heppner school second to none in the state and is a progressive along this line. Not knowing anything to the contrary, we presume that Mr. Clark will accept another term, and we hope that he will.

Interest is growing in favor of a new school house for this district. In fact there is little or no opposition to it. The argument is all in favor of a new and up-to-date structure that will meet the requirements of a growing community. In fact, when you come to think of it, what is there that stands ahead of the public school system of our country? It is surely the great American institution, and it calls for our liberal support. No step our people can take will do more for the community than the building of a modern structure in which to educate our children, and this is going to come. All our people need to understand is that it is needed and the requirement will be met.

THOUGHT HE WAS SURELY IN PARADISE

Impressions of a Recent Visitor to the Hardman Country.

Having business that required him to make a trip to the Hardman section on last Thursday, a good friend of ours, who, by the way, has been a resident of this county for the past twenty years and more, during which time he has resided in various parts of the county and now thinks he is located in the midst of the very garden spot of the earth on a splendid ranch bordering the banks of Willow creek, was for the first time permitted to set his foot upon that portion of the country surrounding our neighboring little city. And likewise the denizens of that burg were for the first time permitted to gaze upon one of those cheerful and optimistic fellows that have come to us from the north end of the little isle where now sits and rules the good King George.

Our friend was greatly impressed with what he saw and could only give expression to his feeling by saying that the people on that way were certainly living in a section fittingly described in Milton's "Paradise Lost," and perhaps the only reason they did not recognize this blissful existence was because they did not get an early enough in the morning. Our friend is a very early riser.

But such luxuriant growth of grain and grass; such fine deep soil and delicious water. It is just a little ahead of anything our friend had ever come in contact with. He was enthusiastic, and does not hesitate to say that the people of Hardman do not fully realize what a splendid country they live in. They will some day. That country this year is one vast wheat field. Most of the town is engaged in farming and they are now very busy. Our friend noted that blue grass is growing very abundantly in all the yards about town and he takes the liberty to suggest that the use of lawn mowers would assist much in adding to the beauty of the surroundings. Bunch grass on the ranges and in many of the pastures is thick and tall and could well be cut and put up for hay. Samples of grass and grain exhibited by our friend give one the impression that the Hardman section is greatly favored this season and very abundant harvests will be garnered by the good people up that way.

Lost.

Between Heppner and my place, an open-faced Elgin watch; crystal slightly cracked. Finder leave at this office.

IONE.

Mr. Jere McDaid returned last Friday from a short visit with friends down the line.

Bobby Sperry and Gus Reid came up from the Valley last Friday evening. You know Bob.

Willard Blake went down to Portland last Saturday with three cars of sheep and one car of cattle.

Mr. L. P. Davidson and his daughters, Della and Elvina, were passengers to Portland last Friday.

Walter Dotyns and Frank Hopkins have been slinging mud for the past few days. Fine recreation boys.

Mrs. Joe Cronan went down to Portland last Friday to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Mallory.

W. H. Cronk, our Tum-a-Lum man and his family went down to Portland last Saturday to have a good time among the roses.

Dr. Chick and family went down to Portland last week where they will attend the Rose show as well as visit with friends and relatives.

E. T. Perkins, our genial postmaster was a Portland passenger last Saturday morning. Mrs. Page is stamping the letters while he is gone.

Ione and Lexington crossed bats on the lone diamond last Sunday. The game was somewhat one-sided, the score being 18 to 4 in Ione's favor.

Mr. Howard, Sr. who has been visiting with friends and relatives for some time past returned to his home at Portland last Saturday morning.

Don't forget the Farmers' Union meeting, held at the Gooseberry school house, Saturday, June 15th, to elect officers for the warehouse company.

R. F. Wilmot and wife were passengers for Portland last Saturday where they will visit friends and relatives as well as enjoy the Rose show.

Hank Filkins left last Saturday morning for Valley points where he will visit with friends and rest up to be ready for the big harvest already in sight.

Lester Baker went down to Portland last Monday. Lester, like other boys, wants to see his father now and again so he will have a nice visit as well as enjoy the flowers.

Bill Palmateer lost a valuable mare the other day. It was the best animal on the ranch. It is awful bad that so many of our farmers are having so much bad luck losing the cream of their stock.

It begins to look like the good old harvest time again. We had three combines come into town last week, John Williams getting one, Erik Bergstrom getting one and L. L. McMurray getting the other one.

C. E. Shaver gave the people of Ione and vicinity a dance last Friday in Walker's hall. It was well attended and the music was first class. The young as well as the old enjoyed themselves till they were all tired of dancing and then went home, saying "good for you, Shorty."

Louis Padberg returned from Portland last Friday with his new car. Louis bought a Michigan and came up by boat as far as The Dalles, driving the machine from there up to his home on Rhea creek. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bryson, who have been sight seeing in Portland for some time past and visiting with friends accompanied Louis back home.

Quite a number of our Gooseberry friends were passengers to Portland last Monday morning where they were all bound for a good time. Here is a list of them as near as we could get it: Miss McElligott, two of the Bergstrom boys, F. A. Lundell, Andrew Carlson and Ernest Lundell and family.

J. L. Kincaid was in town last week with a nice lot of rhubarb and bundle of fine fresh eggs. J. L. says that he had to come to town with some of the neighbors as he had lost all his horses. Mr. Kincaid has had a hard siege of bad luck for some time past, nearly all of his fine big horses have died and it has left him almost afoot. We sincerely hope that he will lose no more.

Move On Now!

says a policeman to a street crowd, and whacks heads if it don't. "Move on now," says the big, harsh mineral pills to bowel congestion and suffering fellows. Dr. King's New Life Pills don't bulldoze the bowels. They gently persuade them to right action, and health follows. 25c at Slocum Drug Co.

LEXINGTON.

Mrs. Chas Johnson was a Heppner visitor Thursday night.

Mrs. Anna Picket visited over Sunday with her daughter at The Dalles.

Mrs. W. G. Scott has been on the sick list for a couple of days and is better at this writing.

Miss Gladys Lane returned to Heppner Friday evening after a week's visit with relatives and friends.

We notice Charile Lee is able to be in town even if it is on crutches. Glad to see you getting along so nicely Chas.

Mrs. Minnie Pointer was a Portland visitor to the Rose Carnival. Mrs. Pointer will also visit Seattle before her return.

Mrs. Harry Cummings, of Heppner, visited Lexington the middle of the week. Mrs. Cummings is agent for toilet articles.

Automobiles are getting quite common in our city. Will Campbell and Louis Padberg are our latest buyers of the "horseless carriage" not drawn by mules.

Work on the part of Burgoyne's store that will be used for dry goods etc., is progressing very rapidly. Mr. Burgoyne will soon be able to supply you with all kinds of dry goods, groceries, etc.

Miss Cora Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Johnson was taken violently ill on Friday. The doctor was called and it was at first thought that an operation for appendicitis would be necessary, but the little girl is better at this time.

There will be a Sunday School picnic at the grove here on next Thursday, June 13. By the amount of practicing that has been done for some time past we infer that a good time will be assured to all who attend. Everybody come.

Mr. Gene Gray and Miss Mabel Davis, two of Lexington's highly respected people were married at Heppner on Saturday, June 8th. Both of these young people have a host of friends who unite in wishing them success and happiness all through life's journey.

The funeral of John McMillan or "Uncle Johnny" as he was better known, was held at the Methodist church on Sunday afternoon, interment being held in Odd Fellows cemetery. Rev. Cross had charge of the services. John T. McMillan was born near Greenville, Tenn., in 1851. He was married when only 17 years of age to Miss Margaret Dare. To this union nine children were born, eight of whom, with a bereaved wife and hosts of friends survived him. The city of Lexington where Mr. McMillan made his home for years, has lost a valued citizen while the people mourn a sincere friend. We extend the bereaved family our heartfelt sympathy in this, their hour of great sorrow.

Man Coughs and Breaks Ribs.

After a frightful coughing spell a man in Neenah, Wis., felt terrible pains in his side and his doctor found two ribs broken. What agony Dr. King's New Discovery would have saved him. A few teaspoonful ends a late cough, while persistent use routs obstinate coughs, expels stubborn colds or heals weak, sore lungs. "I feel it was a God-send to humanity," writes Mrs. Effie Morton, Columbia, Mo. "for I believe I would have consumption today, if I had not used this great remedy." Its guaranteed to satisfy, and you can get a free trial bottle or 50 cent or $1.00 size at Slocum Drug Co.

GOOSEBERRY.

Hot, dry and dusty.

C. E. and L. V. Carlson were busy in the hay fields the first of the week.

Quite a bunch of the Gooseberryites attended the warehouse meeting at Ione last Saturday afternoon. Most of them got back the same day.

M. J. E. Peterson is getting down a supply of lumber for a new barn which he intends to erect soon. We understand Floyd Fraser is to do the job.

E. Bergstrom and Martin Lovgren hauled out a brand new combine the latter part of the week with which to harvest the bumper crop (7), in which they will surely share.

Mr. A. Crison, F. Lundell, E. R. Lundell and family and Carl, Will and Miss Ellen Bergstrom, all of this vicinity were westbound passengers on Monday morning's train, off to the Rose City.

Crops in the vicinity of Gooseberry are doing excellently well and looking fine, with the exception of a few spots where the wheat was too rank. However, a general rain is what we need to insure a good yield.

A surprise birthday party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. Lundell last Sunday, in honor of the latter's 70th birthday, about 40 of their friends being present. A very good time indeed. Thanks, come again.

Often the hunt for a rich wife end when the man meets a woman that uses Electric Bitters. Her strong nerves tell in a bright brain and even temper. Her peach-bloom complexion and ruby lips result from pure blood; her bright eyes from restful sleep; her elastic step from free muscles, all telling of the health and strength Electric Bitters give a woman, and the freedom from indigestion, backache, headache, faintness and dizzy spells they promote.
