Roy V. White arrived on Saturday evening from Prineville and has accepted a position in the grocery department of Thomson Bros. store.

John Hughes and Dennis Spillane departed on Friday for Bend and the Deschutes river on a fishing trip, expecting to be gone about five days.

Jerseys to Sell—I have some choice young Jersey milk cows for sale at ranch one mile below Rhea Sliding. Address O. L. Lundell, Arlington, Ore., for further particulars.

J. B. Sparks returned home on Saturday from Portland where he took in the rose show and incidentally looked after a little business in the moving picture line. The trip to The Dalles and return was made by auto.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Beamer returned on Saturday evening from their honeymoon. They were royally received by their many friends, being treated to a sleigh ride from the depot up to town. Jeff coughed up all right and made himself a good fellow.

Andy Rood and Mack Gentry got home on Friday from a sojourn of a couple of weeks at McDuffy springs. It poured rain the most of their stay over there and they were glad to get out of the place. Both are quite relieved of their rheumatism.

It is now well known that not more than one case of rheumatism in ten requires any internal treatment whatever. All that is needed is a free application of Chamberlain's Liniment and massaging the parts at each application. Try it and see how quickly it will relieve the pain and soreness. Sold by Patterson & Son.

Miss Lulu Osmers is visiting at the home of Arthur Smith this week, having arrived from Portland on Monday evening. Miss Lulu was raised by Mrs. Smith with whom she lived for several years when a little girl. After ten days of a visit here she will go to her home at Deer Lodge, Montana.

As indicative of the big hay crop that is being put up by Morrow county ranchers, Vaughn & Sons have this week disposed of four McCormick self binders. And in the meantime they have sold some six or seven headers to the farmers about the country adjoining Heppner. Things are doing along these lines this season.

Postmaster Smead returned from Portland on Saturday last after having spent the week in the Rose City and attending a meeting of the 4th class postmasters of the state. Mr. Smead is a booster for Morrow county and never fails to get in a good word for our section, and his interview concerning crop conditions here as published in the Telegram, put the situation just about right. This county will harvest the biggest crop in its history this season.

Frank Engleman was up from lone on Monday evening and states that he has completed arrangements for the base ball tournament to take place at lone commencing on next Monday, the 24th. There will be three days of sport and ball teams will come from various parts of Morrow and Gilliam counties to participate in the contests for the liberal prizes offered. Purses aggregating two hundred dollars will be hung, and there should be some mighty good ball playing. A big bucking contest will also be pulled off on Wednesday the 26th and altogether there will be a big time within the borders of our neighboring city.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Fuchs arrived home from Portland on Thursday evening last and were given the usual reception due to the newly-married from the youngsters of the town. On Saturday evening they were waited on by the Rebekahs in a body and brought up town where they were made to participate in an ice cream treat at the store of Hendrickson & Gurdane. Mr. and Mrs. Fuchs are at home to their friends at the residence of the bride in Heppner.

Chas. Vaughn, Len Gilliam, Berl Gurdane and Ed Adkins, together with Albert Bowker, who furnished transportation, constituted a fishing party that left Heppner on Saturday for the Deschutes river in the vicinity of Bend, Oregon, where they enjoyed great sport for a day or two. They made the return trip on Tuesday. Ordinarily a trip of this kind would take six or eight days but the automobile shortens up distances very much.

The contest is now on for the election of a Goddess of Liberty for the celebration on the 4th. The contestants are Misses May Perry, Lela Campbell and Vivian Cox. Miss Campbell is slightly in the lead at present. The voting places are at the store of C. R. Johnson, the Pastime and at the Palm. Get in and boost for your favorite and make the contest a lively one. It will cost you one cent a vote.

C. L. Ashbaugh was in town on Friday and left at this office a sample of forty-fold wheat that indicates somewhat the immensity of crops in his locality. This bunch was produced from one grain of wheat and contained 105 big, healthy stems of wheat fully headed out. Mr. Ashbaugh stated that this bunch was only a fair sample of the wheat now maturing in the Eight Mile section.

Miss Irene Pratt, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Pratt was a passenger on Monday's train, having come from Chicago. During the school year she has been a student at Evanston, near that city, where her uncle, Prof. W. E. Hotchkiss is dean of one of the departments of Northwestern University. She has come to spend her vacation with her family, expecting to return to her studies in the fall.

The various fire companies of the city should be reminded that there is a prize offered in the sum of forty dollars to the winning team in horse races for the Fourth of July. It is time that they were getting busy and practicing up for the occasion. There should be some lively races if the young fellows get in trim. Why not begin to move and show the people what you are made of.

For the Fourth of July, Manager Sparks, of the Star Theater will present the great picture, Dante's "Inferno" a five reel production. One of the greatest pictures yet made. This is a reproduction of the author's idea of hell, and is said to be true to his conception of the place. One hour and a half in hell on the Fourth.

Rev. W. H. Bleakney, Ph. D., of Freewater, is to address the people of Heppner on Sunday afternoon at the Christian church. His theme will be "Church Federation," and the people of the city are cordially invited. Services at 3 o'clock.

The Rev. W. A. Pratt made a trip to Morgan Saturday, holding services there Sunday morning, and at Cecil in the evening, returning home Monday by way of Heppner Junction.

Mrs. Lillie Cohn returned from Portland on Tuesday evening last accompanied by her daughter, Miss Gladys, who has been attending school in the city the far past the year.

AT THE BAKERY—Get away from the heat of baking by buying your bread. Cream loaf, plain loaf, whole wheat and rye. Nothing better than our cream loaf.

Lev M. Turner returned home on Thursday from O. A. C. from which institution he graduated this spring.

Attention Farmers Union!

The semi-annual meeting of the Morrow County Farmers Union will be held at the court house in Heppner, on Saturday, June 29th. Each local of the county should be represented at this meeting and a general attendance of members of the Union is desired.

C. E. JONES, President.

C. J. Anderson's visited at Aaron Peterson's last Sunday.

Oscar Bergstrom was seen on the highway to lone Monday.

Floyd Fraser commenced work on J. E. Peterson's barn last Tuesday.

Algott Lundell mowed a patch of rye for Mrs. A. Anderson, last Monday.

Most of our Portland visitors returned last Monday. All report a good time.

John, Hilma and Hannah Bergstrom visited with Miss Maude Anderson on Dry Fork last Sunday.

Floyd Fraser our genial road boss, has done some excellent repair work on the road between here and lone.

A number of the Gooseberryites went over to Liberty last Sunday to see the great ball game between Lexington and Eightmile.

Richard Peterson had the misfortune to get slightly crippled one day last week. While riding horseback the horse stumbled and fell almost crushing one of Richard's legs.

Gooseberry was favored with a glorious rain last week which amounted to 1.25 inches. This brings the total amount up to over 12 inches since last September, and will surely put the finishing touches on the big crop we're going to have.

Shareholders in the proposed Farmers Union war-house at lone held a meeting at the school house last Saturday. A board of directors was elected which are: Leo Padberg, H. R. Smith, G. M. Akers, C. J. Anderson, Rufus Farrens, E. B. Lundell and C. E. Carlson. Nearly all of the necessary funds have been subscribed and with the present outlook, we believe a Union house will soon be a reality.

We are glad to report that M. E. Cotter, who has been drilling a well for A. Carlson the past 9 months, has at last succeeded in getting an abundance of water at a depth of 546 feet. We congratulate Mr. Cotter for his success which demonstrates what toil and perseverance will do, also that we can be reasonably sure of getting water anywhere in the county by going after it. Mr. Cotter has moved his outfit to C. E. Carlson's where he will proceed to unearth another supply of the precious fluid.

A. Carlson is now ordering his windmill and pump for his new well.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Swift were visiting at Peter Brenners last Sunday.

The well driller at the Rain Akers place is now down 330 feet, and still going down.

Several of the young people of this community attended church at Liberty last Sunday.

Carl, Willie and Ellen Bergstrom and A. Carlson returned from the Rose City last Monday, reporting the greatest time of their lives while down there.

English preaching at the Swede church next Sunday evening, the 23rd, at 7:30, by Rev. Nystrom, of Portland. All are invited to come and hear what he has to say.

Aaron Peterson and Floyd Fraser, road supervisors of our two districts have been quite busy the past month working the roads and putting them in shape to haul the big grain crop to market this fall.

M. E. Cotter, the well-driller, finished the A. Carlson well last week at a depth of 546 feet, getting a great abundance of water. The water stands about 75 feet in the well and cannot be lowered. Mr. Cotter is now drilling a well for C. E. Carlson.

Move On Now! says a policeman to a street crowd, and whacks heads if it don't. "Move on now," says the big, harsh mineral pills to bowel congestion and suffering follows. Dr. King's New Life Pills don't bulldoze the bowels. They gently persuade them to right action, and health follows. 25c at Slocum Drug Co.

Church Announcements.

BAPTIST CHURCH.
Bible school 10 a. m. Preaching morning and evening at lone. At Morgan 3 p. m.

M. E. CHURCH.
Sunday School at 9:45 a. m., morning worship at 11:00, a. m. Instead of the pastor, the Rev. W. H. Bleakney, Ph. D., pastor of the Federated church at Freewater will preach. It is understood that at night, which would be the night of Mr. McAllister's service, the meeting will be held at the Christian church, the sermon by the Rev. Dr. Vaughn the South Methodist visiting clergyman.

Mrs. C. D. Crippen, daughter of the late Mrs. Clara A. Goff, departed for her home at San Francisco on Tuesday. She was accompanied by her brother, Roland, who will enter a business college down there.
