PRIDE ON BOTH SIDES.

A Story of the Duke of Somerset and the Artist Seymour.

We have all heard of the "proud" Duke of Somerset, but we do not all know of the occasion on which his pride had a fall. The story is told in "The Glenbervie Journals."

It seems that the duchess had sent for Seymour, a celebrated painter of horses, to make the portrait of a racehorse at Petworth. Seymour during his stay used to dine in the steward's room, but one day the duke was so pleased with the picture as it advanced that he desired that he would dine at his table.

At dinner Seymour, who probably had not been expected to mix in the conversation, took occasion to say that he believed he had the honor to be related to his grace. This gave such offense that he was either sent away or put so much out of humor as to go away from Petworth without finish-

Afterward the duke's pride gave way to the desire he had of possessing a good portrait of his favorite horse, and he ordered his steward to write to Seymour and engage him to return to finish his work at Petworth.

Seymour directed his reply to the duke himself in these words: "Your pride would not allow that I am of your family. To convince you that I am, your picture shall remain as it is; for, by —, I won't come!"

THE GULF STREAM.

No Material Change in Its Course in Modern Times.

Much has been said in recent years in regard to the changing route of the gulf stream. Indeed, the character of this steady, consistent and unswerving body was getting so maligned that the government looked into the matter, with the result that this mysterious current of the ocean was entirely vindicated. Experts declare that there is no change in the course nor has there been for many years.

No other physical feature of the ocean is subject to more persistent misinterpretation than is the gulf stream. All vagaries of climate are laid to its charge. It is a pet theory of many that the temperature of Europe is greatly affected by it, but this idea is held by high authorities to be erroneous. It is not as extensive as is commonly thought. Practically starting at the Florida strait, where its volume is made up by the union of currents, it ceases to be a true current by the time it reaches the southern limit of the Grand banks, where it becomes surface drift, governed by the winds.

The government experts aver that there has been absolutely no material change in the gulf stream's course in modern times.—New York Press.

Young America's English.

"What is the most incorrect sentence any of your children ever get off?" asked a Glenwood schoolteacher recently at the Schoolmen's club.

"One of mine got this off not long ago," responded a young man who teaches at the Robert Morris school:
"It ain't him like, but yours."

"My best," said another teacher, "ran something like this: 'Rare roast beef is meat what there ain't none what's any underunner.'"

The best one of the afternoon was furnished by a Germantown teacher.
"Here is one," he said, "which has the old classic. 'He seen his duty and done it noble,' beaten forty ways: 'Lewten-nent Grant hearn the enemy in his bed, but he snuck up on him and killed him without know'n' who, where or what he was.'"—St. Paul Dispatch.

Young Eagles.

An eagle lives from 80 to 100 years. The young birds are driven forth by their savage parents to provide for themselves as soon as they are able to fly. No training is given them by the old bird. That is left to their wild instincts, which hunger and necessity develop. There is no "going back to the old home" for the young eagles. The mother bird tears up every vestige of the nest, and if they emit plaintive shrieks the old birds dart at them and push them off the crags or rocks and thereby make them take to their wings. It takes three years for a young eagle to gain its complete plumage and strength.

The Variable Star Algol.

The most noted variable star in the universe is Algol, which changes its brilliance so remarkably that it was noted by shepherds of Mesopotamia many years ago. It is now known that Algol is not one star, but a double one.
There are two stars revolving around a common center, one of which is blazing like our sun and the other is dead like the earth. Thus when the dark sun partially intervenes between us and the burning Algol much light is cut off.

Reason For Her Opinion.

"Do you think genius and insanity always go together?"

"Oh, no. I am convinced that my husband is half crazy most of the time, but I've never seen him give the faintest gleam of genius."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Hit Hard.

"I flatter myself I've made a hit with this song. Er—by the way, who was the gentleman that was moved to tears and went out?"

"That was the composer."—London Tatler.

What Kind of a Ranch
Do You Want?

Are you interested in getting hold of land for a home?
Do you want a place suited to diversified farming?
We have bargains to offer in the three tracts listed below.

No. 1.

Consists of 1100 acres, divided into 250 acres of wheat land, 30 acres now set to alfalfa, with 20 acres more that can be put in, and all under good ditch; 800 acres grass land. This is an ideal dairy and hog ranch, lying on the creek, with plenty of water the year around. One of Eastern Oregon's Best Propositions.

$14 per acre; $8000 cash; good terms on balance.

No. 2.

Is a creek farm of 950 acres; 500 acres of good wheat land; 25 acres now growing alfalfa, and as much more can easily be put in as it comes under ditch.
Small orchard, small house with water piped in from good spring on place; barns and other buildings.

$11 per acre; half cash; terms on balance.

A GENERAL PURPOSE FARM.

No. 3.

A BIG BARGAIN. 3800 acres, on which is now growing 65 or 70 acres of alfalfa, and 25 acres more can be put in, making nearly 100 acres that come under ditch. On this ranch three good crops of alfalfa are grown each year and but one irrigation is required; it is sub-irrigated by from 15 to 20 springs on the place. There is a good orchard of 150 choice bearing fruit trees; 9-room residence with water piped in from spring; large sheep shed and other outbuildings.

About 1000 acres of this farm is good wheat land with 600 acres now in cultivation. 11 miles from Heppner.

Price $11 per acre; half cash; easy terms on balance.

This is one of the best rural homes in all Eastern Oregon and is certainly a snap at the figure offered.

To the homeseeker or the investor there are no better propositions offered than these; nowhere in the Northwest can such land be had at anything like such figures.

These farms join and can be had all in one deal or separately as desired.
