Local and Personal Happenings.

All kinds of good ice cold sodas at The Palm.

Delicious sodas and ice cream sodas at The Palm.

Go to the Bakery for your bread. 26 loaves for $1.00.

Four head of work horses for sale. Inquire at City Meat Market.

Work wanted during harvest by man and wife. Call or address this office.

Everybody eats at the Palace Hotel? Why? Because Demand Determines Quality.

Highest cash prices paid for hides, pelts and furs. Morrow Warehouse Milling Co.

Wanted—Wheat haulers, at once. Call up Spencer Akers on phone for particulars.

W. L. Smith returned home on Monday evening from his two weeks' vacation in Portland.

Roast domestic geese with oyster dressing and vanilla ice cream, Palace, Sunday, July 28.

Oscar Davis is up from the Willamette Valley on a short visit with relatives in this vicinity.

S. W. Spencer and wife returned on Sunday evening from an outing of a week at Parkers Mill.

Mr. Max Rogers is visiting his relatives at Spray this week. Jeff is pretty lonesome during the absence of Mutt.

It may be to your interest to get my prices before buying watches, clocks or jewelry. C. R. Johnson, Jeweler.

Mrs. R. N. Crawford departed for Corvallis on Tuesday and will visit for a short time at the home of her parents in that city.

Miss Venice Jones came up from Portland on Friday and will visit with relatives at Heppner and on Rhea creek for a short time.

An article that adds comfort and beauty to your home brings real satisfaction. Our new rugs are that kind. Case Furniture Company.

Rev. John McAllister and wife departed on Monday morning for Glenwood, Wash., where they will spend a vacation of some three weeks.

R. F. Hyni returned to his Portland home on Saturday morning after having spent the week at Heppner in looking after his business interests.

A liberal reward to anyone showing us a better investment than a comfortable home. Let us help you make yours that kind. Case Furniture Co.

AT THE BAKERY—Get away from the heat of baking by buying your bread. Cream loaf, plain loaf, whole wheat and rye. Nothing better than our cream loaf.

The Heppner flat farmers are getting into their harvest quite lively this week and in a few days more the newly harvested grain should be rolling into town.

Geinn Y. Wells has opened up his office in the Borg building and will become one of the regular practicing attorneys of Heppner. We bespeak for him success.

"I have been somewhat ostive, but Doan's Regulets give just the results desired. They act mildly and regulate the bowels perfectly."—Geo. B. Krause, Atleona, Pa.

W. W. Stabler will handle a bunch of about 800 head of the Nunamaker thoroughbred bucks. They go to Wyoming and shipment from Heppner will be in charge of Frank Roberts.

Jerseys to Sell—I have some choice young Jersey milk cows for sale at ranch one mile below Rhea Siding. Address O. L. Lundell, Arlington, Ore., for further particulars.

Dr. E. R. Hunlock, of Portland, formerly engaged in business at Heppner, is in the city this week. He is engaged in writing life and accident insurance these days and meeting with success.

J. F. Lucas began cutting his big crop of wheat on Monday. He has about 500 acres to harvest, 200 acres of which is volunteer forty-fold and should bring a yield of from 16 to 18 bushels to the acre.

For soreness of the muscles, whether induced by violent exercise or injury there is nothin better than Chamberlains' Liniment. This liniment also relieves rheumatic pains. For sale by Patterson & Son.

W. W. Stabler and wife arrived at Heppner on Saturday evening from their home in Wyoming. Mr. Stabler is after some sheep providing he can get what he wants. He desires to purchase some 3000 head of yearling ewes.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blackman departed on Saturday morning for Portland after having spent the week in Heppner. Mr. Blackman will continue his journey on to San Francisco where he is at the present engaged in business, tho still claiming to be a resident of the State of Oregon. Henry does not talk politics much these days, yet he is somewhat rejoiced over the prospects of democratic success in the presidential election this Fall and expects Woodrow Wilson to be our next president. He feels quite sure that this would be so could the election be held within the next few weeks.

A rather slim crowd attended the performance at Heppner last Wednesday evening of the Girl of Eagle Ranch Co. These same people gave a tent show in Heppner a little over a year ago and this performance was largely a repetition of the first show. It depicted some of the life of a cowboy ranch on the border of Arizona and Mexico and was a fairly good mixture of comedy and tragedy. It would be refreshing to Heppner, however, to have a change from this "Wild West" performance; it has kind of gone to seed in these parts and we should be pleased to see something different.

A small riot was started down about the brick saloon on Saturday evening in which several parties were engaged, but no serious damage resulted as the officers were on hand to quiet the belligerents in short order. Some fellows are mighty bad when they get filled up on booze and imagine they have to start something to create a little excitement. Judge Williams taxed four of them $20.00 each for their fun.

John H. Hayes came up from Portland on Monday to look after some business interests here. He has been somewhat under the weather since leaving Heppner and hopes that a stay up here will restore him to health. This country is a great health resort, and the wonder is that more people do not come here for the purpose of renewing their youth.

During the summer months mothers of young children should watch for any unnatural looseness of the bowels. When given prompt attention at this time serious trouble may be avoided. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy can always be depended upon. For sale by Patterson & Son.

Spencer Akers started up his combine on Tuesday and expects to gather in a good yield of grain. The hail storm at his place on Saturday shattered the wheat to some extent causing a loss of perhaps one bushel to the acre. Rain preceded the hail and wet the grain so that it did not shatter.

Through the efforts of J. L. Wilkins the water wagon was put on the job again this week and will make regular rounds keeping down the dust, when Jupiter Pluvius is off duty. When it comes to raising money, Joe is a daisy, for he cannot be talked out of what he wants.

Rev. E. P. Warren will hold services at Liberty school house, Eight Mile next Sunday morning and evening. This will be the last service for the Conference year at this place. A good day is planned. Everybody requested to be present.

Theo. Anderson was in town on Monday getting ready to start his combine. He begins work with his machine this week. The hail storm of Saturday did not strike at Mr. Anderson's place with sufficient force to do any damage.

Buy it now. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is almost certain to be needed before the summer is over. Buy it now and be prepared for such an emergency. For sale by Patterson & Son.

Dr. N. E. Winnard is now able to get about the streets by the aid of crutches. His injuries were much more severe than at first thought and it will be a long time before he is able to walk without the aid of crutch or cane.

Dysentery is always serious and often a dangerous disease, but it can be cured. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has cured it even when malignant and epidemic. For sale by Patterson & Son.

Messrs. Smith and Caldwell have opened up a cleaning and pressing establishment in the rooms just north of the Liberty Market. They expect to put in a line of cents' furnishings connection.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Maddock and son Creston, returned from a visit of two weeks to Portland and other Valley points on Monday evening. "Dad" reports a mighty good time while gone.

I have for sale at my place on Eight Mile, Brown Leghorn eggs for hatching at $1.00 per setting of 15. A good strain of splendid egg producers. Call. Alfred E. Anderson.

Misses Odal Cochran and Muriel Cason, of Ione, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Turner in Heppner.

BLACK BUTTE.

Alonso Reid is building a new barn on his homestead.

Lola Matteson says evreybody does not dislike red hair. We noticed that Lola.

Will McFerrin and wife went down on McKenney creek Tuesday to visit Chas. Fuller and family.

John and Willis Ridgeway have gone over on the John Day to look at a place. John is talking of renting over there.

The Matteson shearing crew has returned from the John Day river. They had a two months run over there this summer.

Kenneth McFerrin is working for Chas. Fuller through heading. He was up home Sunday and brought Bud Medlock with him.

the harvest field. Everybody thought he was at work, but when he comes and goes no one knows.

Charley Ridgeway is tending camp for Jim Wyland. He came down last Sunday and while pulling the shoes off of a horse the animal struck him in the head, cutting quite a gash and knocking him senseless for an hour or so. He went to town to a doctor and had his head patched up and is feeling fine now being able to go back to work.

House for Sale.

Owing to the fact that we expect to move into our new home soon we will sell the house and lot and three acres including chicken house and cow barn. Near site of the proposed Catholic Hospital.
