Blind Arabs of the Desert.
The Arabs have a saying to the effect that "when you travel through the country of the blind be blind yourself," and, though, like all proverbs, it is doubtless not intended to be taken literally, still the malady of blindness is so common in Algeria, especially among the tribes that inhabit the oases of the Sahara, that the traveler may almost stop and ask himself if he has indeed come to that country of the blind. The prevalence of eye disease is due perhaps to the intense dazzling brilliance of the desert sun and to that complete absence of shade which must be endured by the wandering Saharan.
The Arabs are normally very kind and respectful to the aged or infirm, and a blind man or woman will seldom lack an escort of one or more children to pilot them safely along the roads, and who, if they are still young and active enough to work, will assist them in hoisting their load of sticks or barley upon their backs and see them safely home to the humble dwelling that shelters them.—Wide World Magazine.

Jumping Jack Tars.
The rhythmic jumping of 350 bluejackets saved H. M. S. Commonwealth from the fate of the Montagu when she ran aground in a dangerous place.
The battleship Montagu was abandoned as a hopeless wreck off the Cornish coast, but her sister ship, the Commonwealth, was safely got off by the muscular exertion of her crew. The Commonwealth ran on to an uncharted rock when returning from target practice and was badly damaged. She was so nicely balanced in her lodgment, however, that it was decided after reversing the engines had failed to extricate her to try the experiment of mustering all the available hands on the extreme aft and setting them to jump in unison. The regular jumping of twenty-five tons of solidly built seamen had had the effect of making the huge vessel rock seasaw fashion until she gradually floated off with the rising tide.
In fifteen minutes she was afloat and saved.—Pearson's Weekly.

The Liar's Mound.
Dyaks, natives of Borneo, are extremely truthful. So disgraceful, indeed, do the Dyaks consider the deceiving of others by an untruth that such conduct is handed down to posterity by a curious custom. They heap up a pile of the branches of trees in memory of the man who has uttered a great lie so that the future generations may know of his wickedness and take warning from it. The persons deceived start the "tugong bula"—the liar's mound—by heaping up a large number of branches in some conspicuous spot by the side of the path from one village to another. Every passerby contributes to it and at the same time curses the man in memory of whom it is. The Dyaks consider the adding to any tugong bula they may pass a sacred duty, the omission of which will meet with supernatural punishment.

She Was Buried Alive.
Lady Catherine Wyndham, daughter of the Duke of Somerset, wife of Mr.
William Wyndham and mother of the first Earl of Egremont, died (as was supposed) at Orchard Wyndhams, the family seat in Somersetshire, and was buried in a vault beneath the Church of St. Decuman's, near Watchet. The sexton went down into the vault at night, opened the coffin and endeavored to force a ring off her finger. Lady Catherine awoke from her trance, got up and lighted herself home with a lantern which the sexton had left behind in the vault when he fled in terror. A few months after she presented her husband with twins, one of whom became Sir Charles Wyndham and Earl of Egremont.—London Truth.

Homeopathy.
Homeopathy is a theory of medicine promulgated by Dr. Samuel Hahne-mann (1755-1843) of Leipsic in 1810.
It asserts that any disease should be treated by medicines in minute doses that would produce in a healthy patient symptoms similar to those manifested by the disease requiring treatment. This is the principle of "like diseases are cured by like remedies" (Latin, similia similibus curantur) and is based on the theory that two similarly diseased conditions cannot subsist in the same organ at the same time.

Anything to Make Talk.
"Some of these arguments about politics" said Senator Sorghum, "remind me of debates we used to have in the society I joined when I was a boy."
"I suppose you talked a great deal on impractical lines?"
"We did. We spent almost one entire winter discussing the question, 'Which makes the best ear muff, a corn fritter or a buckwheat cake?'" —Washington Star.

Not the Same.
"You seem to think it's pretty well settled," said Miss Passay, "that I'd marry him if he proposed."
"Yes," promptly replied Miss Knox.
"The idea! So you think a girl should be ready to say 'yes' to any man who asked her?"
"No, I don't say that a 'girl' should."
—Catholic Standard and Times.

A Practical View.
"He's nothing but a hypocrite. Isn't it disgusting for a man to use his religion as a cloak?"
"Yes, and, what's more, it's foolish, for religion such as his is necessarily so flimsy that he's liable to catch cold in it."—Exchange.

Good Advice.

What Kind of a Ranch
Do You Want?

Are you interested in getting hold of land for a home?
Do you want a place suited to diversified farming?
We have bargains to offer in the three tracts listed below.

No. 1.
Consists of 1100 acres, divided into 250 acres of wheat land, 30 acres now set to alfalfa, with 20 acres more that can be put in, and all under good ditch; 800 acres grass land. This is an ideal dairy and hog ranch, lying on the creek, with plenty of water the year around. One of Eastern Oregon's Best Propositions.
$14 per acre; $8000 cash; good terms on balance.

No. 2.
Is a creek farm of 950 acres; 500 acres of good wheat land; 25 acres now growing alfalfa, and as much more can easily be put in as it comes under ditch.
Small orchard, small house with water piped in from good spring on place; barns and other buildings.
$11 per acre; half cash; terms on balance.
A GENERAL PURPOSE FARM.

No. 3.
A BIG BARGAIN. 3800 acres, on which is now growing 65 or 70 acres of alfalfa, and 25 acres more can be put in, making nearly 100 acres that come under ditch. On this ranch three good crops of alfalfa are grown each year and but one irrigation is required; it is sub-irrigated by from 15 to 20 springs on the place. There is a good orchard of 150 choice bearing fruit trees; 9-room residence with water piped in from spring; large sheep shed and other outbuildings.
About 1000 acres of this farm is good wheat land with 600 acres now in cultivation. 11 miles from Heppner.
Price $11 per acre; half cash; easy terms on balance.
This is one of the best rural homes in all Eastern Oregon and is certainly a snap at the figure offered.

To the homeseeker or the investor there are no better propositions offered than these; nowhere in the Northwest can such land be had at anything like such figures.

These farms join and can be had all in one deal or separately as desired.
