IONE.

Mr. Cronan went down to Portland Monday of last week to have a visit with his family.

The telephone has been moved from the drug store up to the post office. Uncle Sam is the hello girl these days.

Mrs. Rufus Cochran went down to Brownsville last week to visit with friends and relatives for a short time.

Opal Cochran and Muriel Cason were Heppner visitors last week, going up Tuesday and returning the same week.

Miss Kittie Wilnot, of Portland came up to Ione Wednesday of last week to visit friends and relatives for some time.

Walt Puyser and Billie Berger went down to Portland last Wednesday morning on a business as well as a pleasure trip.

Cassie Wade, of Walla Walla, who has been visiting with friends at Ione for some time returned to her home last week.

Jack Knieriem went up to Heppner one day last week where he had a few wants attended to. Jack is helping E. M. Shutt put up his second crop of hay.

Harvest, harvest, harvest is our only excuse for shortage of news this week, somebody got busy and do something out of common so that we will have something to talk about.

Mae and Dot Garger returned to Ione Monday from the harvest field where they have been cooking for Art Pierce. The girls had a good time and a jolly good crew to cook for.

The Walker Estate installed a new gasoline pumping outfit, and are now prepared to fill up automobiles on short notice and as cheap as elsewhere. Come in and see the machine operate.

Indian Killed on Track
Near Rochelle Ill., an Indian went to sleep on a railroad track and was killed by the fast express. He paid for his carelessness with his life. Often is that the way when people neglect coughs and colds. Don't risk your life when prompt use of Dr. King's New Discovery will cure them and so prevent a dangerous throat and lung trouble. "It completely cured me, in a short time, of a terrible cough that followed a severe attack of Grip," writes J. R. Watts, Floydada, Texas. "and I regained 15 pounds in weight that I had lost." Quick, safe, reliable and guaranteed. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at Slocum Drug Co.

IRRIGON.

Mr. Bagen, liveryman from Stanfield, made a flying trip to Irrigon Friday last week.

Mrs. Carl Doering has the honor of raising the first ripe watermelon this season, namely, July 23.

The third crop of alfalfa is being cut now and every body concerned is rolling up his shirt sleeves to make quick business of it.

Peter Susbaner says he would just as soon sleep out in the melon patch at night as in the house if it were not for the mosquitoes.

Grandma Doble was very ill one day last week, but feels greatly improved at present. The heat no doubt aggravated the situation greatly.

Mr. Doble has started his hay baler and is now busy in getting his alfalfa ready for the market. He estimates that he will have somewhere around 200 tons of hay this summer.

Ditch riding after dark now is not a very pleasant job to say the least, but it is also extremely dangerous; especially where one has to pass near a turkey roost or watermelon patch. Ask Charley Johnson, he might venture an explanation.

A vast amount of ill health is due to impaired digestion. When the stomach fails to perform its functions properly the whole system becomes deranged. A few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets is all you need. They will strengthen your digestion, invigorate your liver, and regulate your bowels, entirely doing away with that miserable feeling due to faulty digestion. Try it. Many others have been permanently cured—why not you? For sale by Patterson & Son.

At M. E. Parsonage in Shedd, Oregon, July 24, 1912, by Rev. Hocking, the pastor, Mr. Charles Edwin Leezer and Mrs. Phoebe N. Wills, both of Linn county. Mrs. Leezer is well known here where she resided for a number of years before going to the Willamette Valley. The G.-T. extends congratulations and best wishes to the newly weds.

"Were all medicines as meritorious as Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the world would be much better off and the percentage of suffering greatly reduced," writes Lindsay Scott, of Temple, Ind. For sale by Patterson & Son.

Oregon Is The Place.

Health, hustle and prosperity are to be found in Oregon, according to Thomas W. Lawson, the Boston financier. In answer to the question of the New York World, "What Should the Young College Graduate Do?" Mr. Lawson says:

"After careful study of the problem set forth in your telegram, were I graduating to-day from college East, West or South, I would head straight for the great, undeveloped Northwest. I would buy my ticket for Portland, Ore. I would spend my first week in that splendid prototype of our old, conservative and intellectual but withal courageous and hustling New England capital of a half century ago. While in Portland I would haunt the reportorial departments of the daily newspapers, the ever-welcoming rooms of the numerous business clubs and the booming departments of the great railroads and navigation lines centering in that superb Pacific metropolis. Then I would light out and into the modern paradise of happiness and dollars, the virgin interior of that wonderful State, a world in itself, containing to spare and then lots more everything that makes for health, hustle, prosperity and contentment for man, woman and child. If I were possessed of $20,000 to $50,000 capital, in a twelvemonth I would telegraph back to Bradstreet and Dun to mark my rating $150,000, and then three twelvemonths later I would write them to make it from half to three-quarters of a million. If I only had my carfare, Bible, dictionary and fountain pen I would send word to the old folks to watch out for the Christmas coming of the old home mortgage lifter, and I would bet my pal dog, for of course I'd have him along, against a pouch of tobacco that when Christmas came I wouldn't be making excuses for not coming East. Details? Bush!

When you wake up in Galeonda you should not waste time looking for a business guide. All you need is a rake and a bag.
