

REMINGTON-UMC

Solid-breech Hammerless .22 REPEATER

This Remington Gun has a curve of beauty too!

Sure Safe Shooting for Man or Boy—And a Simple Rifle to Care For

The Remington-UMC .22 Repeater is rifled, sighted and tested for accuracy by expert gunsmiths. It shoots as you hold. The simple, improved safety device on every Remington-UMC .22 repeater never fails to work. Accidental discharge is impossible.

The Remington-UMC .22 Repeater is easily cared for. In taking down, your fingers are your only tools. The breech block, firing pin and extractor, come out in one piece—permitting the barrel to be cleaned from the breech.

The action handles .22 short, .22 long or .22 long rifle cartridges—any or all at the same time without adjustment.

IONE.

Mrs. Walter Eubanks of Pendleton, is here visiting with her mother Mrs. Mat Halvorsen.

Miss Doney McMillan of Lexington is here at Ione visiting with her grandmother, Mrs. Robert Wimot.

Jessie Miller was out at A. B. Grover's for a few days last week helping Mrs. Chas. Ritchie sling hash.

Mrs. A. K. Higgs and daughter, from Portland were here for a few days last week visiting with Ernest Higgs.

Mrs. Frank Engleman's children were out at Pettysville last week for a few days visit with their grand parents.

Walt Puyear and Billie Berger returned from Portland last Saturday night after spending a few days having a good time.

Mr. S. E. Moore has put a dust proof wall on the inside of his furniture store and now you can see your face in the tables.

B. F. Morgan has taken the contract to haul the Walker wheat this year and is rigging up several teams to do the job with.

Mrs. Rufus Cochran returned to Ione last week after a visit at Browns-ville. She was accompanied by three of O. B. Sperry's children.

John Keihn is as busy as a bee these days getting his wheat into the warehouse. He has several teams pulling the staff of life into town.

Mrs. W. H. Dohyans and Mrs. M. Joren went out to French Burroughs last Sunday and had a splendid visit with the folks on the creek.

Mrs. A. Keller gave a dinner last Sunday in honor of Mrs. Young's birthday. There were only a few present but they had a fine time.

Mrs. Frank Engleman and Ruby were Heppner visitors last week and Biz enjoyed the few batchelor meals that he had to prepare for himself.

Rusty Cochran has been holding one of Ike Howard's mowers down for a few days. Rusty is a little light for such heavy work but he gets there just the same.

Mrs. M. Jordan returned from Valley points last week and reports a very fine vacation, but says she is awful glad to get home again as Ione is good enough for her.

A. W. Lundell unloaded his new threshing machine a few days ago. He has a Pride of Washington machine and expects to be tearing the bone out in a very few days.

We understand that Miss Audrey Woolery will be on deck about Sept. 1st with a full new line of sky pieces and head wear of all kinds. Watch for the new hats and bonnets.

Mr. William Thomson, of Heppner spent Tuesday of this week in Ione. Bill is figuring on going to Western Canada right away where his brother Bob is engaged in the wheat business.

J. H. Bryson is suffering with a very sore hand these days. It has been sore for some time but it seems to have got poisoned in some way, making a pretty bad hand. We hope it will be all right in a few days, as Hap is about all in.

Ralph Hymer and Vester Carr have bought the Rufus Cochran barber shop and are now located there. I tell you the boys are there with the big knife and the tin snips. Come in and see them. Painless extraction of whiskers and hair grown on bald pates.

A vast amount of ill health is due to impaired digestion. When the stomach fails to perform its functions properly the whole system becomes deranged. A few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets is all you need. They will strengthen your digestion, invigorate your liver, and regulate your bowels, entirely doing away with that miserable feeling due to faulty digestion. Try it. Many others have been permanently cured—why not you? For sale by Patterson & Son.

A Wandering Brother.

Mrs. Ellen Ferguson, of Eastport, Maine, would like to hear from her brother, John McCullough, who is about fifty years of age, and who is said to be working as a common laborer, in a construction crew on a new railway line in the Northwest. He is sometimes known by the nickname "Sooty." Since leaving home his father, mother, and brother have died, and an only sister desires to hear from her wandering brother. It is about ten years since he has been heard from directly, but friends have seen him occasionally since that time. A message from anybody who has met him would be greatly appreciated by his anxious sister.

"Were all medicines as meritorious as Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the world would be much better off and the percentage of suffering greatly reduced," writes Lindsay Scott, of Temple, Ind. For sale by Patterson & Son.
