ERRORS OF SPEECH.

Common Abuse of the Verbs to Get, to Lay and to Lie.

The verb to get is one of our much misused words. It means to acquire, win, obtain, and primarily it signifies the putting forth of effort to attain something. Consequently it is not only superfluous, but incorrect, to speak of a man as "getting drowned" or "getting sick," and you may unfortunately "have a cold," but it is impossible that you "have got a cold."

At this moment no exceptions occur to the writer to the rule that got should never be used in connection with have, which alone sufficiently expresses possession. Say "I have the picture," not "I have got the picture." "The dog has a broken leg," not "The dog has got a broken leg."

The irregular verbs lay and lie are frequently confounded. Lay is an active or transitive verb, and lie is passive or intransitive. We lay things down or have laid them down, but we and things lie at rest. You lie down, have lain down, will lie down or are lying down. She lay down yesterday and is going to lie down this afternoon.

A frequent error is to confound the past tenses of these verbs. One should say, "Mary laid the book on the table and lay down herself," but the book lies on the table.—Exchange.

BAD FOR THE STOMACH.

When Non-fatty Foods Are Intimately Mixed With Grease.

The stomach never has the least power of digesting true fat. This is disposed of in the intestines. When eaten in the ordinary forms, as fat meat, butter, etc., the fat separates out in the stomach and does not in the least interfere with the work of the gastric juice on the other food, but when a non-fatty food has been intimately mixed with grease the latter prevents the gastric juice getting at the food it could digest.

Fish fried in oil or butter is by no means the most marked example, as the fat does not penetrate very deeply. Potatoes mashed with butter are rather worse, and minced vegetables fried with butter are bad offenders. The reason advanced explains why pork is difficult of digestion. The muscular fibers are mixed up with fat cells, and by the liberation of the oil in each tiny cell the eaten pork is made into an oily paste.

A very strong stomach will do the work required, but it is not a fair task to impose frequently, and a weak stomach will refuse to do anything beyond reminding its owner by a few stabs that it will not stand such treatment.—Exchange.

Horse Hatred.

Of all the domestic animals the horse is probably the most gentle, but there are exceptions. A California man had in his stable a fine thoroughbred horse, of which he made quite a pet. One day he went into the stable, and, stopping to pat his favorite steed, he was surprised when the horse, with a violent plunge, broke the halter and came at him with open mouth. At first he thought it was in fun, but he soon realized his mistake and hastily climbed up a ladder and yelled for help. On the arrival of his son the horse went back to the stall and immediately resumed its former gentleness to all but its owner. To him it remained a deadly foe until he was compelled to sell it. He never knew the reason for its sudden animosity.

Among the world's left handed geniuses was Leonardo da Vinci, who wrote a treatise on aviation, the handwriting of which travels from the right side of the page to left. Nelson, too, was left handed, but that was from necessity.

J. R. Green records a story of Admiral Nelson's visit to Yarmouth to receive the freedom of the borough. "A storm met him on his landing, but the danger failed to prevent his appearance on the quay. When the freeman's oath was tendered to him the town clerk noticed that the hero placed his left hand on the book. Shocked at the legal impropriety he said, 'Your right hand, my lord.' 'That,' observed Nelson, 'is at Tenerife.'"

Requiescat In Pace.

The man with the old clock under his arm laid it on the jeweler's show case. "I wish you'd see what is the matter with this," he said.

The jeweler removed the dial, screwed his eyeglass into place and inspected the works of the ancient timepiece. "Nothing is the matter with it now; its sufferings are over."

"Well, how much do I owe you?" asked the man.

"Nothing," answered the jeweler. "This isn't a professional treatment. This is a coroner's inquest." — Exchange.

Making It Plain.

Sapleigh—Oh, I say, Miss Hamerton, why is it that you are always out when I call? Miss Hamerton—Because I'm foolish, I suppose. Sapleigh—I—er—beg pardon! Miss Hamerton—Well, you know the old saying, "A fool for luck."

The Family Skeleton.

Hatcher—Isn't Jones' wife thin and skinny? Scratcher—Yes; she's the one family skeleton he can't keep in the closet.—National Monthly.

A Human Sieve.

Binks—Why do you call him the human sieve? Jinks—Because everything he takes up falls through.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

No man was ever discontented with the world who did his duty in it.

What Kind of a Ranch Do You Want?

Are you interested in getting hold of land for a home? Do you want a place suited to diversified farming? We have bargains to offer in the three tracts listed below.

No. 1.

Consists of 1100 acres, divided into 250 acres of wheat land, 30 acres now set to alfalfa, with 20 acres more that can be put in, and all under good ditch; 800 acres grass land. This is an ideal dairy and hog ranch, lying on the creek, with plenty of water the year around. One of Eastern Oregon's Best Propositions.
$14 per acre; $8000 cash; good terms on balance.

No. 2.

Is a creek farm of 950 acres; 500 acres of good wheat land; 25 acres now growing alfalfa, and as much more can easily be put in as it comes under ditch. Small orchard, small house with water piped in from good spring on place; barns and other buildings.
$11 per acre; half cash; terms on balance.
A GENERAL PURPOSE FARM.

No. 3.

A BIG BARGAIN. 3800 acres, on which is now growing 65 or 70 acres of alfalfa, and 25 acres more can be put in, making nearly 100 acres that come under ditch. On this ranch three good crops of alfalfa are grown each year and but one irrigation is required; it is sub-irrigated by from 15 to 20 springs on the place. There is a good orchard of 150 choice bearing fruit trees; 9-room residence with water piped in from spring; large sheep shed and other outbuildings.

About 1000 acres of this farm is good wheat land with 600 acres now in cultivation. 11 miles from Heppner.
Price $11 per acre; half cash; easy terms on balance.

This is one of the best rural homes in all Eastern Oregon and is certainly a snap at the figure offered.

To the homeseeker or the investor there are no better propositions offered than these; nowhere in the Northwest can such land be had at anything like such figures.

These farms join and can be had all in one deal or separately as desired.
