IONE.

W. H. Cronk made a business trip to Cecil Saturday of last week.

Mrs. Med Akers, of Pendleton came over last Wednesday and is the guest of Mrs. J. H. Bryson.

J. E. Swanson one of our old time ware house men made a business trip to Heppner last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller, of California, are up here visiting with their daughter, Mrs. W. H. Blake.

Harry Akers blew into Ione last Saturday evening and spent Sunday with Mrs. A. W. Lundell.

Mr. Cronan returned from Portland Thursday of last week after a pleasant visit with his family.

Mrs. Oscar Cochran and Angus Pennington are out in the cook house feeding A. W. Lundell's hungry crew.

Grandma Hale left Tuesday morning for Yakima, where she will visit with friends and relatives for some time.

A. W. Lundell started threshing Wednesday of last week and is just fairly making the fuzz fly these days.

O. S. Whitcombe was an Ione visitor for a couple of days last week. Mr. Whitcombe finished harvest a few days ago.

Miss Mamie Ely and Mrs. H. O. Ely came in from the ranch last Tuesday and spent a short time visiting with friends.

Mr. Bob Miller and Mrs. J. H. Blake came in from the Davidson ranch last Saturday evening and spent Sunday with their parents at the W. J. Blske residence.

Born at the home of E. L. Padberg to Mr. and Mrs. Padberg a fine big girl, Thursday, August 8. We understand E. L. was so tickled that he purchased a new automobile.

We understand that Bob Wilmot and S. E. Moore have, or are, about to join the would-be wood butchers association. I tell you the way these two young buxas have been helping P. G. Balsiger make shavings the last few days isn't slow.

W. F. Palmateer, J. A. Troedson and Ernest Lundell all have their threshing machines running full blast these days. We get all sorts of reports on the average yield and from what we can find out it is making from 15 to 18 bushels per acre.

W. J. Blake left on Monday morning for Billings, Montana, where he will try to purchase some beef cattle for home consumption. It seems too bad that as much idle land as we have in this county of ours, that we must send clean out of existence to get a few cattle.

Albert Shaver, after spending several days renewing old acquaintances, returned to the vicinity of the Deshutes where he is engaged in the well drilling business. He was accompanied by his brother, Ross who has been layed up for some time with a broken limb. We wish both of the boys every success.

We were aroused from our regular routine of business about noon on Monday by the loud peals of the fire bell and of course we all tried to break our neck to see who could pull the hardest on the hose cart. But after a little inspection we located the fire in a pile of railroad ties along the right of way. Too bad some people get so excited about nothing.
