HOW STRANGE!

At Des Moines, Theodore Roosevelt said: "You will find long before election day—already there are symptoms of it—that the old Republican party has been swept aside."

What a strange statement from the man who for eleven and one half years has guided the Republican party, seven and one half years as president and four years by selection of his successor!

What a strange statement from the man on whom the Republican party has bestowed all the honors it had to give!

What a strange statement from a man who, but a few weeks ago was asking a nomination from the Republican party!—Journal.

Fred Warnock has disposed of the Silverton Journal to Mr. Arthur Barks, recently from Nebraska, and a newspaper man of much experience. The form of the paper has been changed, its patent "insides" dropped, and marked improvement is made in its appearance.

Fitzmaurice, of the Condon Times, announces flat-footedly that his paper stands for the election of Taft as president, Ben Selling as Senator, and N. J. Sinnott as Congressman, because they have received the nomination of the Republican party to these offices. There is no middle course to pursue, and when the multitudinous fads are all tried out and we have free trade, single tax, cheap living, low wages and a repetition of the hard times of 1893, he can have the satisfaction of calling attention to his stand in the present crisis.

In all his public utterances as a candidate, Prof. Wilson is making it clear that he is a free-trader. The late house of representatives, strongly Democratic, shows their unfitness for handling the tariff question. Not a very bright prospect for the business of the country should Wilson win and the Democrats again gain full control at Washington.

The safe thing to do is to re-elect President Taft. He can be depended upon to hold the Democrats in check by the use of his veto power and prevent a lot of bad legislation on the tariff question.

All those who are interested in getting exhibits of oats, rye, barley, potatoes, pumpkins, squashes, cabbages, etc., should bring them in to D. C. Gurdane and he will prepare them for shipment to Pendleton. You have but little time and all such produce should be ready for shipment by Friday of next week in order to get the benefit of the reduced freight rate. Mr. Gurdane is getting all stuff ready for the Fair fast as it comes in, and all these heavy exhibits should be ready for shipment by freight and save expense.

The Van Vactor home was the scene of a very pleasant party on Monday evening, the affair being somewhat in the nature of a reception to the students who are leaving this week to take up college work. The party being of an informal nature, the evening was spent in social chat, interspersed by music and recitations by those who could be induced to perform. This was followed by a course of watermelon. Those present were: Misses Lilah Clark, Conifred and Virginia Hurd, Elsie Young, Florence Lusted, Minnalena Cameron, Virginia and Janet Crawford, Lula and Marie Hager, Ruth Brown, Silvia Severence, Grace and Ruth Van Vactor; Messrs. Harold and Henry Cohn, Arthur, Spencer, and O. G. Crawford Leroy Jones, Miles Potter, Ray Rogers, Wm. Livingston, and Robert Young.

Rev. McCaughey, of Spokane, will occupy the pulpit of the Federated church both morning and evening on Sunday.

Banker T. J. Mahoney is in Spokane this week on business.

M. D. Clark of Minor & Co. is doing business in Portland this week.

Dist. Attorney Van Vactor and Judge Gilbert W. Phelps came over from Pendleton in Mr. Van-Vactor's machine yesterday afternoon.

IRRIGON.

School opened Sept. 3 with a full attendance.

Miss Nora Corey departed for Portland last Sunday morning.

Mrs. Fred Cronk, of Pendleton, is here visiting her sister, Mrs. W. A. Walpole.

Miss Sue Park went to Hermiston last Saturday, returning Sunday morning on the local.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Kieker took in the boat excursion to Pasco and Kennewick last Monday a week ago.

Mr. Scarborough, the clothier of Hermiston, was in Irrigon last Sunday. He fitted several of the boys here with nice suits for the winter.

The first coyote of the season met his Waterloo last Monday morning at the hands of N. Seaman, our station agent. He was out duck hunting but bagged the coyote instead.

Miss Golda Muma, the music teacher of Hermiston, makes her visits to Irrigon on Saturdays now, because many of her pupils find it inconvenient to take lessons while school is in session. She has six pupils who are taking instructions, namely: Frances and Ralph Walpole, Cora and Gertie Kieker, Eva Doble and Miss Park.

The regular business meeting of the local W. C. T. U. will be held at the Baptist Church Wednesday evening Sept. 18th. All members are urged to be present as it is the meeting for the coming year. It will be necessary at this time to elect our delegate to the National Convention which meets in Portland Oct. 19. Mrs. Silbaugh will also be present and address the Union. Mrs. J. McAllister, Pres.
