"MAIL ORDER" Cream Separators

When you buy a cream separator you want the best machine you can get for the money, don't you?

Well, then, just listen to this proposition:

Before you order a "mail order" separator write to the concern and tell them that you want to try their machine out against a De Laval, with the privilege of sending their machine back if you decide that the De Laval is better worth what we ask you for it than their machine is worth what they ask.

That's absolutely fair, isn't it?

We'll be glad to furnish you a De Laval for such a trial any time you like and let you be the judge.

We are glad to make this offer because we know that the De Laval will give you better service and cost you less in the long run than any other machine you can buy, no matter what the price.

If you already have a mail order separator, or any other for that matter, which isn't giving satisfaction, we have an exchange offer that we believe will interest you.

Before you buy a Cream Separator see and try a

THURSDAY, June 19, - - 1913

While the contest for election of school director was pretty lively Monday, there was not the interest manifested on the part of every taxpayer of the district that there should have been; in fact it is surprising to note how many had forgotten all about the annual meeting. It should not be necessary to call attention to this fact but it seems to be necessary to do so. Out of a possible three hundred voters in the district, but 53 voted. Our school is too important to be treated in this manner, besides there is no small number of these same three hundred taxpayers that are quite willing to express their opinion as to how the school is being conducted and the money of the district spent. There should be greater interest manifested at the annual meeting and also at the special meeting in the fall when the tax levy is made. Get out and hear the reports and offer your suggestions, not with the idea of merely finding fault with what your neighbors are trying to do, but to be of real help in making conditions with the school better.

There has been some unjust criticism offered against the present school board; in fact some people have said, unguardedly we think, that the men comprising our present board of education are the poorest for the position of any that ever have tried to conduct the affairs of the school. We are not making comparisons, but will say that we believe this a very unjust criticism, and one that is entirely uncalled for. Our present board have been very efficient in the work they have had to do; they really need no defence whatever for they have had a lot of very important work to carry out, and this will bear the closest investigation. They may have made mistakes, all human beings are liable to do this; but these have been mistakes of judgment only, and for our part we feel that much credit is due them.

Line up with the board for the coming year and help to put the Heppner School to the front where it belongs. Do not withhold in the least any just criticisms and complaints, but let them be based on the high plane of making things better, and not mere fault finding.

The business men of Baker are moving to open up a road into the Long Creek and Monument sections of Grant county, and from present indications they will succeed in their purposes. This trade has for years come to Heppner to a very large extent, regardless of the fact that they had very poor roads to get over. Our people are interested at the present time in getting a road into the Ritter country, something that should have been accomplished twenty years ago, and before Pendleton opened up the way to the best part of that trade for their town. There is doubtless much trade that can be turned this way from that section by a good road; many of these people wish to come here and ship their stock and trade at this point, but we already have the trade of Monument and Long Creek, as well as other portions of Northern Grant, and we need to put some of the road between here and there in good shape. People coming over from Monument inform us that the road on the other side of the county line is excellent, but when they reach the head of Wall creek on this side there is about three miles of almost impassible road. This can easily be put in shape by a few days of work and the building of a bridge across Wall creek. While talking a new road from Ritter, why not see to it that this road from Monument is put in first class shape to hold a trade we already have. There will have to be some stirring on the part of Heppner business interests, else the trade now coming here will be taken away by other sections that manifest a keener business spirit.

Milton A. Miller, democratic statesman of Lebanon, has received the appointment of collector of internal revenue at Portland.

Senator Chamberlain says he will not turn down efficient postmasters in Oregon because of their republicanism, and has recommended several for reappointment.

The John Jacob Astor estate is appraised at $88,000,000. Of this sum Vincent Astor gets about $69,000,000, and this should keep him supplied with good cigars and gasoline for his automobile for a few short years.

What Hapened To Mary.

This is the title of a beautiful story that has been running in The Woman's World. Sometime since the first of a series of illustrations from this story was thrown on the canvas at the Star Theater, and the public of Heppner have been anxiously awaiting the succeeding pictures in order to get the entire story. "Alone In New York" is the next of the series, and this will be a part of the program for next Wednesday and Thursday nights, and installments are to follow regularly about every two weeks until the completion of the fascinating story.

Rube Marquard has branched out into the moving picture arena and appeared last evening, giving a clever combination of the base ball world and the moving picture fraternity. This feature added much to the interest of the program offered last evening, and will be presented again tonight.

In the meantime be on the lookout for "What Hapened to Mary."
