

WEEK'S NEWS.

Local and Personal Happenings.

Haylor, the jeweler for R. R. time. Geo. McKay of Ione was in this city Friday.

Silas Harris of Hardman was in the city the last of the week.

Ralph Beckett was in from his Eight Mile farm Saturday.

Haylor, who is he? The jeweler at O. R. Johnson's old stand.

Emmet Carpenter of Lone Rock came over to this city the last of the week.

Herbert W. Copeland, the eye specialist came up from Lexington the last of the week.

Grover Young of The Dalles, an employe of the O.-W. R. & N. Co., was in Heppner last Friday.

Ellis Hendricson has joined the forest service and is now one of the rangers in the Heppner forest.

J. B. Huddleston, agent of the O.-W. R. & N. Co. at Heppner, is on the sick list suffering a severe attack of quinsy.

T. W. Morgan of Gooseberry, arrived at Heppner Monday evening. He has been at Roseburg for the past six weeks and returns home greatly improved in health.

O. P. Hendricson will leave Saturday for Yaquina Bay to spend the balance of the summer in the hope that his health may be benefited by a stay at the coast.

Louis King, stenographer in the local forest office, is quite sick at his home in Heppner. At last reports he was improving and expects soon to be able to go to work.

W. H. Herren was down from his mountain ranch for several days the first of the week. He reports the finest feed in his section that they have had for years.

Geo. those R. C. H. cars must be some sellers. Clyde Walls delivered two more direct from Walla Walla to Heppner parties this week. If you want "the Car" see Clyde, quick.

H. V. Gates, president of Heppner Light & Water Co., is in Heppner this week lending his assistance to the work of rebuilding the plant that is now being undertaken by the company.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Keithly were down from Copper station over Sunday and Monday. They are enjoying the mountains very much this season and every thing is lovely there. They returned Tuesday.

E. G. Anderson, of Portland, is here to finish up some work required to be done on the new school building before the same will be accepted by the school board. He is doing the work for the bonding company.

Mrs. Mary Baldwin, and daughter, Miss Carrie, of Parsons, Kansas, mother and sister of J. S. Baldwin, and Victor Baldwin and wife, of Grandeville, Idaho, brother of Mr. Baldwin are here on an extended visit.

Mrs. Wm. Letrache, who has been very ill for the past two weeks at her home in Heppner, is reported to be slowly improving and strong hopes are now entertained for her recovery. She is suffering from blood poisoning.

G. W. Thompson and Jess Hall left for McDuffey springs on Tuesday where they will remain for some time. Both of these men have been suffering with rheumatic trouble for some time and they hope to find relief by taking the hot mineral baths.

Dr. N. E. Winnard and family returned Wednesday from an extended visit up and down the coast. While they left here a few weeks ago for Klamath Falls, they have been to the Mexican border and back making the entire trip in the little Ford.

We should apologize to Mr. and Mrs. Frank McNally for our failure to mention the arrival of their new son last week. The young man is truly a patriotic citizen, having chosen July 4th as the date of his birth, and Frank may decide to have him christened "Uncle Sam."

Supt. Notson returned home from a visit to Iowa and Nebraska by way of Salt Lake city Tuesday. At Salt Lake he took in a part of the N. E. A. in session there and states that the attendance was not nearly so large as at former meetings. He enjoyed his visit in the Mormon city very much.

Chas. Stanton, of Eight Mile, returned Monday from a visit to Walla Walla where his father lives. He was called there by the serious illness of Mr. Stanton, and reports that his father is some better at present, tho his ultimate recovery is very doubtful. He suffered a stroke of paralysis some time since.

J. G. Crawford arrived on Sunday's train from Fort Worth, Texas, on a short visit to his people in Heppner. He came by the way of Southern California and visited many of the places of interest in that section as well as other prominent points enroute. He will be here for a few days only, as his vacation season is short and he is a long way from home.

Mrs. Geo. Kiser and daughter Miss Ida McAtee, arrived from Portland Monday to remain for a week or ten days. Mrs. Kiser has come up to dispose of her property here and to prepare her household goods for shipment to her new home in Portland. The announcement of the marriage of Mrs. Amanda McAtee to Mr. Geo. Kiser, of Portland, which occurred on the 4th of June, was kept somewhat of a secret and was not made known to her Heppner friends for some time after the event. Mrs. Kiser is receiving the congratulations of her many Heppner friends who will be glad to learn that she is so nicely situated. Her husband is a steamboat man of Portland, a well-to-do citizen, and has a fine home in the city.

A. L. Hudson, the Gooseberry merchant, was in Heppner over Monday night, coming up to look after business matters. Mr. Hudson states that there will be a lot of good wheat turned out in his locality regardless of the adverse conditions. It is hard to tell just what will come of the wheat that was struck by hail in that locality but Mr. Hudson states that much of this appears to be coming out all right, and should the present favorable weather conditions prevail it will yet make a fair crop.

A pleasant little birthday party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Cohn on Monday afternoon in honor of the third anniversary of Miss Eleanor, the only daughter of the household. A few of the neighboring children were present and enjoyed a good time, being served with refreshments of ice cream, wafers and candy. Those present were Ellis Thomson, Alma, Etta, Leora and Harlan Devin, Cora Mae and Mary Crawford, Margaret and Bernice Woodson and Catherine Brock.

Mrs. James Pointer, of Lexington, was brought to the hospital at Heppner for treatment Sunday. She has been ill for a long time with chronic throat trouble and on account of her age it is feared that her recovery will be very slow. Mrs. Pointer died yesterday morning. The body was prepared for burial at the Case undertaking parlors and removed to Lexington.

T. J. Humphreys, C. C. Patterson and H. H. Hoffman departed Saturday for McDuffey springs where they will spend a few weeks in an effort to drive away dull care and some of the symptoms of rheumatism. They should all be like new men when they return, as the waters of McDuffey have a wonderful effect in restoring the vigors of youth.

Widows' Pensions.

Under the widow's pension bill which was enacted at the last Legislature, county judge Patterson has passed upon and allowed the following widow's pensions: Mary McDaid, of Heppner, 4 children, $32.50 per month; Ina Burns of Lena, 4 children, $32.50; Sela Stephens of Heppner, 2 children, $17.50 per month. Harriet Baird of Hardman, 3 children, $23.84 per month. Luisa Sperry of Ione, 1 child, $10.00 per month. Minnie A. Cochran, 3 children, $15.00 per month. Mrs. Cochran's and Mrs. Baird's allowances were cut down on account of their having certain incomes. Mrs. Burns was paid for the month of June, while the others will be paid on August 1st; for the month of July and monthly thereafter.

Always plant seed potatoes with the left eye looking to the east. This will insure an early rise, as the sun's rays keep the potatoes awake.

SAND HOLLOW.

Miss Ruby Ayers spent Sunday at Butter creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Taber were with us last Sunday.

Miss Helen Delaney is helping Mrs. Ed Burchell.

Mr. Sam Devine sold his homestead to Mr. French.

Mr. Springer is visiting at the home of Mr. Miller.

Mrs. Delaney is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Flint.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude White were in Heppner last Sunday.

Miss Victoria Teague is helping Mrs. Lee White during harvest.

Mrs. Bartholomew and Mrs. Rice went to Butter creek last week.

Miss Cora Miller of Salem is up helping her sister through harvest.

Mr. and Mrs. Matt Hughes of Willow creek were at Mr. Copenhaver's Sunday.

The basket dinner at the Hoidson school house was well attended. Those present enjoyed the two good sermons delivered by Mr. Taber as well as the dinner which was a feast in itself, besides the excellent ice cream furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Scott of Lexington. Such good kind acts make life worth living and this old world a good place in which to live. It was certainly kind of Mr. and Mrs. Scott and we assure them it was appreciated by all present. In behalf of the community we say, thank you very much Mr. and Mrs. Scott.

At the Star on Thursday and Friday evenings, owing to a failure to get the films for Wednesday evening, there will be five reels of pictures on the canvas. This will include another installment of "What Happened to Mary." For Saturday and Sunday nights there will be a special attraction by Willis, the cowboy artist and cartoonist.

Charles Vaughn and wife and mother, and Leonard Gilliam returned Sunday from their automobile trip which included a visit to various cities in Washington as far as Spokane and covered a period of two weeks. They enjoyed the outing very much.
