

WEEK'S NEWS.

Local and Personal Happenings.

An A. Nol. buggy and single harness for sale. See Clyde Wells.

Harvest Time in Eastern Oregon but Railroad Time at Haylor's.

Dr. N. E. Winnard returned Saturday from a short visit at Portland.

John Kilkenny and wife were up from Lower Sand Hollow Tuesday.

For Sale—Registered Poland China pigs. For information address A. R. Nall, Castle Rock, Oregon. 2t.

G. A. Bleakman, Hardman merchant, accompanied by Mrs. Bleakman, made Heppner a visit Monday.

The Butter Creek Land & Stock Co. shipped out two cars of cattle from the Heppner yards Monday consigned to the Benson Commission Co. of Portland.

J. W. Becket came up from Portland the past week and is looking after affairs on the Eight Mile farm. He came by auto and was in Heppner Saturday.

A glance at Haylor's window and you will see a few of the tools used to dissect and repair watches, clocks and jewelry.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gemmill, who reside at the mouth of Skinner creek, on July 26th, a 10-pound daughter.

The Misses Lulu, Svbil, Ruth and Marie Hager returned Friday from a visit of a month with relatives in Umatilla county.

Jas Burnside was down from Hardman Tuesday and returned home with a big load of wheat sacks which will be used in caring for his crop.

Kent Rakes, of Blackhorse, was operated on for a bad case of blood poisoning at St. Charles hospital. He had a close call and came near losing his arm.

Case Furniture Company have just had completed a commodious wareroom in the rear of their store which will prove a great convenience in sheltering surplus stock.

Earl Gilliam and wife returned from their vacation the first of the week. While gone they visited Spokane, Seattle, Portland and other points of interest.

I offer for sale my furniture and good will of business in Morrow rooming house. A good proposition and best of reasons for selling. Clyde Wells.

At a meeting of the School board Tuesday it was decided to postpone the opening of school until Sept. 15. This is made necessary on account of some delay in getting the new building ready.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hall was very successfully operated on the past week at St. Charles hospital for the removal of tonsils and adenoids, and at this writing is doing well.

Found—On the streets of Heppner, a gold watch, H. Hamlet & Co. make, back of case having engraving of locomotive on it. Owner can get same by calling at this office and paying for this notice.

Mrs. Calrissa Franklin and daughter Miss Nellie, of Hamilton, are visiting at the home of T. E. Ohidsey. Mrs. Franklin is returning from an extended visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Swick, at Hood River.

I am offering for sale my Heppner residence property. $1500 takes the place, including piano, and household furniture. For particulars address Mrs. Amanda McAtee Kiser, 660 Water Street, Portland, Oregon. tf.

A. H. Zehring returned Friday from his vacation of two weeks and has again assumed his duties as railway mail clerk on the branch. He spent his vacation with his family on a small farm they own in Benton county near Corvallis.

Mr. R. Rasmussen, formerly in the creamery business at Lexington, and now of The Dalles where he is engaged in the same line, was in Heppner on Friday last. He had been making a trip over Morrow county in the interest of his business.

N. C. Maris, of Portland, representative of the O. A. C. in their extension work, is in Heppner assisting the local committee in getting up the premium list for the coming Morrow county fair. Mr. Maris arrived Tuesday evening and will put three days at this work.

Prof. H. H. Hoffman, Judge C. C. Patterson and T. J. Humphreys returned Friday from their outing of fifteen days in Grant county. During their absence they visited McDuffey Springs and the Stalter mine in the Susanville section extracting ore from the bowels of the earth.

Oscar Borg returned from Portland Tuesday evening where he had been on a visit to his father who is very ill at his home in the city. Mr. Borg has suffered a stroke of paralysis, his throat and tongue being entirely paralyzed and he is in a very serious condition. The best of medical attention is being given him but little hope is held out to the family, that he will ever be any better. The many friends of Mr. Borg at Heppner are very sorry to learn of his affliction and extend to him their sincerest sympathy with the hope that he may be able to get permanent relief and be restored to health.

Mrs. Frankie Luper departed for Portland yesterday and will be absent from Heppner during the month of August. She expects to go on to Medford for a short visit, and will then return to Portland to attend to the buying of her fall millinery stock which will be one of the best selections ever brought to the city. Mail will reach her at 97 East 58th Street, North, Portland.

J. T. Kirk and family have returned to Heppner from the Alsea country where they went several months ago. They expect to spend the balance of the summer here and may return to the coast country in the fall where they have a small place well adapted to dairying.

The families of S. E. Van Vactor and T. J. Mahoney packed their baggage and departed Saturday for Herren's Mill where they have gone into camp for the balance of the heated term, and where Sam and Tom will not in their leisure moments picking huckleberries.

IONE.

George Giddens was a passenger to the Junction Thursday of last week. We wonder what he went for.

Roy Akers departed for Idaho last week where he will help his brother-in-law take care of the harvest.

Billie Swanson has bought him one of those big oil burning engines and will try and tear the bone out with it.

Mrs. Emma Dobyns has gone out to Herb Oldens to cook for the harvesters who are busy looking after Herb's crop.

Mr. Beckett of Portland formerly of this part of the country was an Ione visitor last week, going through in his car.

L. P. Davidson went to Portland Saturday of last week with a car load of mutton. We hope he markets it at the top price.

Mrs. Vicy Sperry who has been out near Olex cooking for some time came home last week and went out to Frank Everson's to help take care of the new boy.

Mrs. Mallory of Portland came in to Ione last week to visit with her daughter, Mrs. Joe Cronan, she went up to Heppner last Saturday night to visit with relatives there.

Ike Howard and family were Portland passengers Wednesday of last week where they will visit with relatives for a short time and possibly go to the coast for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Palmateer who have been in the valley all winter returned to their home near Morgan last week and will see that the golden grain is properly attended to.

Mrs. Frank Engleman and her two youngest children were passengers for Portland Thursday of last week they will visit there for a few days and then go to the coast for a short vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirk formerly of Heppner but who have been living in the valley for some time came into Ione last Sunday and are visiting with their daughter, Mrs. Fred Ritchie.

Miss Ruth Bewley who has been clerking in the Walker store for some time was a passenger for Tillamook last Thursday a week ago where she will visit with her people for some time.

Mr. Frank Everson is the proud daddy of a fine boy born last week. The mother and child are getting along nicely and it is thought that Frank will be out of danger in a few days.

Little Miss Alma Wills who has been visiting with S. E. Moore and family for some time left for her home at Portland last Sunday. She was accompanied to the Junction by S. E. Moore and daughter Eddine.

Mr. John Land, Mrs. Della Corson and Eldrid who have been at Campbell, California for the past two months returned to Ione last Sunday. Mr. Land had the misfortune of losing his wife. He brought her back and buried her at Arlington, Oregon.

Jewel Hale and wife who have been living in Ione for the past six months departed for Marshfield last Sunday where Jewel will take a half interest in a moving picture show that one of his brothers has got hold of. We wish them every success in their new home.

Miss Ella Brummitt and Miss Bertha Birmont who have been making a tour of western California and Mexico are in Ione these days visiting with Mrs. Cynthia Walker who is the aunt of one of these young ladies. The dirty, dusty days we have been having of late do not seem to bother these ladies as they say the weather in the vicinity of Hays, Kansas, where they reside is much the same.

LEXINGTON ITEMS.

Mrs. Art Parker spent Sunday in Heppner.

Dad Hynd of Sand Hollow was a business visitor in Lexington Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Duran entertained Mr. Duran's aunt and cousin last Wednesday.

Mr. Wright was an Ione visitor Sunday having some "interesting" molars extracted.

We see Harold Reaney, Bill Aubrey and Walter Johnson are three new hands on the section.

Miss Marv Graham daughter of Rev. Graham, a former Lexington Methodist pastor is here visiting friends.

Grandma Butler, Mrs. Marsh White and the Thomson baby were all sick at their homes last week but are better at this writing.

At preaching on Sunday, the Rev. Winey announced that preaching and Sunday school would be suspended until Sept. 1st on account of the hot weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Nordyke who have been making Lexington their home for some time past left for Seattle Wash. the last of the week, their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. Eph Eskelson were pleasantly surprised last Sunday evening by the arrival of Mr. Eskelson's sister, her husband and daughter from Salt Lake City, Utah.

Well! well! did you notice that smile on Glen Dans and Charlie Greys faces. It is because of the arrival of a daughter this last week at each of their respective homes in and near Lexington.

Mrs. Sylvia Beymer had quite an experience when a bee stung her over the eye on the forehead causing both eyes to swell shut. The wound is healing but Sylvia says she doesn't want to be stung again.

CECIL.

Miss Amy Waddell of Butter creek was a guest at the Hynd home the past week.

Mrs. Nannie Linsner of Pilot Rock is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. George Mellon.

A fine baby girl arrived at the home of Pat Farley Wednesday, July 23rd, 1913. That is why Pat wears that broad smile that wont come off these days.

The highest temperature registered here during the recent warm wave was 104. With two sultry warm nights which is extremely rare in Oregon.

Mrs. Wm. Hynd and daughter, Miss Anna of Sand Hollow, stopped off for a few days visit with Jack Hynd and family while enroute home from Portland Friday.

Mr. William Ewing and family left Monday for Mt. Adams on a three weeks camping trip. Miss Vada Farnsworth and G. E. Smith accompanied them.

S. M. Morgan and E. F. Fairhurst auctioned off their dairy herd last Saturday. There were fifteen cows and about the same number of young stock sold. All bringing a fair figure.

Heading and haying both have been delayed by the wind and heat the past week. Mr. Lee's men were compelled to work nights while mowing, as the horses could not withstand the heat of day.

Dr. Chick was called to the Osborn home one day last week owing to the illness of Mr. and Mrs. Streeter's little fellows. The malady proved to be measles and chicken pox combined. At last accounts they were doing nicely.

Peter Bauernfeld left Monday for McDuffey Hot Springs to be absent three months on his annual vacation. Peter says that McDuffey is probably the "Fountain of Youth" disguised, and that he owes his vigor and good health to his frequent trips there. "Pete" as he is familiarly called is a pioneer of Morrow county having come here from Los Angeles in about 1874 and resided here continuously during that time.

Stray Mares.

I have at my place on Balm Fork, two stray mares. One a dark iron gray, 4-year-old branded NS on hip; one a light gray, 3-year-old with same brand. Owner can get these animals by paying cost of advertising and pasturage. Have been at my place the past two months.

JAS. FARLEY,
Heppner, Ore.

Good horse pasture 5 miles from Heppner on the Stalter place. Good fence, fine water $1.50 per head a month. See Dr. Winnard.

VACATION TIME IS HERE

Will it be the Beach--the Springs--the Mountains--the City--or the Country?

No matter where; your first consideration will be something to carry your belongings in—

A TRUNK--SUIT CASE--VALISE Traveling Bag or Telescope

We have just opened up and placed in stock a brand new line of these goods for you to choose from.

MINOR & CO.

Try the New

White River Flour

Made from Morrow County Wheat
by Oregon's Finest Mill.

NOTICE THE TASTE--You'll Like It.

YOU CANT BEAT IT.

Pure and Wholesome. Makes Whiter and Lighter Bread.

For Sale By

Phill Cohn

Heppner, Oregon