CHRISTHOFFERSON TO MAKE FLIGHTS DAILY IN LARGE AEROPLANE AT FAIR.

Contract Signed Up for This Big Sensation of the Coming Morrow County Fair—Other Attractions Also—Grounds now Being Put in Shape for Pavillion, And Stables for Housing Stock Being Erected.

There was a rousing business meeting of the Fair Board at the Palace Hotel parlors on Tuesday evening, attended by all members of the Board and a number of others who are on the various committees, as well as several citizens who are greatly interested in the success of the coming event.

At this meeting the Board was in position to make definite announcement as to some of the amusement features that will be pulled off. The chief one of these, of course, is the aeroplane flights that have been under consideration for several weeks past. The amusement committee has been in correspondence with several different booking agencies for this attraction, but until the past week were not able to close a deal that was satisfactory. They have at last secured one of the best aviators on the coast through the Allen Booking Agency of Portland. The contract calls for flights daily by Christofferson, the man who never fails to fly unless wind and weather conditions are entirely against him. He is acknowledged to stand in the lead among men of his class, and the people of the county can be assured that they will have splendid entertainment in this line. Depend upon it that the committee have the matter so arranged that there will be no disappointment in this feature. As an additional amusement feature, the committee have also secured Allzadi, the great magician and Punch and Judy man who has been at the Oaks amusement park in Portland filling an engagement, and he was liked so well that he has been hired for an extra week in excess of his contract.

The grounds are being rapidly shaped up for the construction of the main pavillion and carpenters are busy getting barns in shape for caring for all exhibits of live-stock. In fact the management of the fair is very busy all along the line and will have everything in shape when the fair opens.

From present indications there will be a large attendance; it is expected that fully 3000 people will be here and the capacity of our little city to entertain them will be tested to the utmost. Heppner's well established reputation for hospitality, however, guarantees that every one will be cared for in proper shape and no anxiety is felt along this line.

Exhibits are already beginning to come in, and every man, woman and child of Heppner and the balance of Morrow county should be a booster for this particular feature from now on. Urge your neighbor to get his samples of grain, fruit, vegetables, etc., in shape and send them in. H. Cummings, fruit inspector of Morrow county is out this week, and he will assist materially in these matters; he is a good judge of show stuff and promises that he will get a lot of it together.

THE MORROW COUNTY FAIR IS THE BIG THING FROM NOW UNTIL MIDNIGHT, SATURDAY, SEPT. 27, 1913.

START BALL ROLLING FOR NEXT SHOW

Morrow County Poultry Association Meets and Arouses Interest.

Two meetings this week of the Morrow County Poultry Association have been the means of injecting new life into that organization and of getting it on its feet again for the purpose of arranging for a show the coming winter. As yet no date has been set for the show, as some preliminaries have to be arranged before this can be done but that we will have a show, is a fact that is settled.

Pursuant to call of President Noble, a meeting was held Friday evening last in the council chambers for the purpose of canvassing the finances of the association and to get together any bills against the organization that had not yet been settled. A report of the secretary and treasurer was submitted, and the bills on hand were audited. Aside from this no further action was taken and an adjournment was had until Monday evening, when the business was completed, all bills settled and an election of officers for the ensuing year, held.

The election resulted as follows: E. G. Noble, president; W. P. Hill, Heppner, J. A. Waters, Lone, L. R. Kicker, Irrigon, vice presidents; Claud Cox, secretary; W. R. Irwin, Treasurer; D. C. Gardane, manager and J. F. Hall, assistant manager.

The secretary was instructed to correspond at once and get a line on a judge for the next show, and after this is settled the Association will set the date for the show. This will probably be during the first week in January, or just as close to that time as possible, as it is desired to avoid the holiday season.

The poultry show last winter was a success notwithstanding all that was against it. This year it is proposed to put in more work and commence a great deal sooner. The premium lists will be gotten out early and distributed in a manner that will help bring in outside exhibitors, and we can look forward to a much better show in every way.

While other matters are occupying your minds, do not forget this show, that represents one of the leading industries of our country and all poultry fanciers should begin now to lay their plans and get their show birds in shape. The second annual poultry show for Morrow county will be a good one.

We desire to state further that all awards will be distributed at once to parties entitled to receive them, and all obligations incurred by reason of the first show will be cleaned up.

Will Locate Here.

Dr. A. P. Culbertson and family arrived from Michigan this week and will locate permanently at Heppner. His daughter, Miss Lucile E. Culbertson will teach in the Heppner High school this year, and Dr. Culbertson has associated himself in the practice of medicine with Dr. H. T. Allison, and the new firm will continue their offices at the store of Patterson & Son, druggists.

Dr. Culbertson has been practicing for the past twenty-five years. He is a graduate of the University of Michigan medical school at Ann Arbor and has but recently finished taking post graduate courses in Chicago and New York, and is a man of high standing in the medical profession.

Since coming to Heppner, Dr. Allison has had an ever-increasing practice, and it is gratifying to his friends to know that he has reached a point where he is compelled to have an assistant. This paper is glad to welcome Dr. Culbertson and his family to Heppner, and bespeaks for the new firm abundant success.

IONE.

Miss Blanche Bristow, a nurse from Vancouver, B. C. is visiting with relatives in Ione.

Mr. Bulletin and Walt Smith went down to Cecil one day last week, going down in Walt's go-devil.

Mrs. Oscar Lundell from Rhesa siding is visiting with J. E. Swanson and family for a short time.

Clelie Mun and wife who have been up in the mountains for the past month returned to Ione last Sunday.

Bert Mason was a passenger for Portland last Monday morning where he has some business matters to attend to.

Mrs. Jordan reports the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smouse last week. Mother and child getting along fine.

Mrs. Joe Cronan who has been visiting down at Portland for some time returned to her home at Ione last Sunday night.

John Cochran who has been out at the Davidson ranch helping the harvesters look after L. P's crop returned to Ione Monday evening.

Miss Ruth Bewley and one of her friends returned from the Tillamook country last week. Miss Bewley says she had a splendid vacation.

Bill Knotholes drove down to Cecil last Sunday on a business trip. Bill said that there was plenty of real estate changing hands all day.

Jack Hynd, one of our prosperous Cecil ranchers was an Ione visitor last week. Jack has some of the best peaches in the county this year.

Frank Holmes has bought the business of Wm. Rice. Frank makes a very nice ice cream kid, and he is certainly there at the soda fountain.

Mr. Wattenburger from Butter creek was over at Ione last Tuesday with a load of that delicious honey. Better call at Walker's and get your order in before it is all gone.

Don't forget to step into Walker's store and take a look at their new line of shoes. We have shoes for men, women, boys and girls, also a nice line of Florshelms of the nobby kind.

We overlooked mentioning a week or so ago the birth of an eight pound girl to Mr. and Mrs. John Brenner. Both getting along fine and with proper care John will soon be able to drive his gas wagon again.

Mrs. Frank Engleman and two of her children who have been visiting down about Portland and Tillamook for some time returned to Ione last week, after a pleasant vacation.

Peanut Dan, Tuck the second and Theo. Jukes are very busy these days giving the school house a good paint job. These fine fellows are all No. 1 daubers and if you don't believe it go over an see for yourself.

Jack Devore came in from the ranch Monday suffering pretty severely from an attack of appendicitis. He was able to be out yesterday, however and is getting along so well that he will be able to avoid an operation.

The Misses Lulu and Lela Campbell left this morning for Portland. They will visit with friends there about three weeks.
