Chas. Ritchie and family who have been up in the Pendleton country for the past three months returned to Ione last week.

Louis Padberg is the proud daddy of another big girl born Thursday of last week. Mother and child getting along in fine shape.

Miss Blanche Bristow who has been visiting with relatives in Ione for the past month, returned to her home at Vancouver last week.

Walt and Earl Pyear were passengers last Saturday morning for Missouri where they will visit with their people for some time.

Lum Mobly, who is home any where his hat is off, dropped into Ione last week and spent a few hours visiting with his wife who is the guest of Mrs. J. H. Bryson.

Mrs. Frank Robinson was an Ione visitor for a short visit last week, going through Ione on her way to Corvallis where she will school her boy this winter.

Harold Mason, after spending his summer vacation with his mother on her ranch, left last week for Corvallis where he will attend school this winter.

R. M. Akers and wife arrived from the East last week. It would take too much space to tell you all about the reception he received. Ask Frank, he will tell you all about it. We wish them all the happiness possible.

Mrs. Emma Dobyns and family left Ione last Saturday for Portland where Mrs. Dobyns will live this winter and give her boys the benefit of a business college course. We expect the call of the wild will result in her returning during the early spring.

SCHOOL NOTES.

Pictures of the school and the several rooms will be taken the latter part of the week.

Another room is being fitted for use. The intermediate grades will be moved in it next week. This provides a suitable recitation room for the high school.

Some trouble has been occasioned by the change of books as the supplies at Portland were insufficient, some texts are still lacking but we hope soon to be supplied with all necessary books.

The attendance thus far has been very excellent. Pupils and teachers are uniting in making this a most successful school year. We are glad to see that the parents are co-operating with us.

LEXINGTON ITEMS.

Mrs. Boothby is back at Lexington again after quite a visit with her son at Rufus, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bresthairs and daughter spent a very pleasant Sunday with friends at Sand Hollow.

Mrs. Delaney, mother of Mrs. Flint is back in Lexington again after a weeks visit in southern Oregon.

Geo. Zink was the lucky one and won the $50 saddle recently raffled off at Heppner. Lucky George.

Will Copenhaver and wife have gone to Salem for a week's visit with M. S. Copenhaver's father, Tom Scott.

Mrs. Peester returned to her home at Salem after a few days visit with her daughter, Mrs. Gould of near Lexington.

The splendid rain that fell Sunday evening was certainly welcome as it was badly needed to help the road situation.

Mrs. Zink has been quite ill at the hospital in Heppner for several days, but as she is getting better her husband intends to have her brought home this week.

We understand that Gus McMillan has sold his creek ranch and stock to Ed. Pointer. Mr. Pointer will move on the place at once and Gus will occupy the Mrs. Boothby property in town.

Most everyone has seen the change in the local train time. It will go down the line from Lexington at 8:55 in the morning instead of 9:25 as previously. There will be no change the evening schedule.

Sigsbee, the photographer at Heppner had an assistant here at Lexington the first of the week taking pictures. The pictures are certainly fine and now is the time that you always wanted to have the likeness of yourself, the barn or that fine stock taken.

The Flag Pole Controversy Is Still a Live One.

Wolf Creek, Josephine Co. Ore. Editor Heppner Gazette-Times:— Dear Sir:—I see by last week's paper that you have an argument on in Heppner as to who spiced the flag pole by Bank corner. Now I happen to be the party who cut and hauled that pole. I got it out of the head of Marlatt canyon. It was not cut up in honor of the Spanish-American war, but in honor of ex-senator John H. Mitchell who made a speech on the next day after it was erected and to the best of my memory Jim Roberts did help to splice it, but Ike Ennis, the electrician, did the job or was overseer of it. But understand it was erected in honor of J. H. Mitchell, and I had a hard time getting that pole to town and only got eight dollars for the job.
