We understand that Howard Lane has bought out T. L. Barnett and will move back to Lexington in the near future. They all come back to Lexington you know.

Mrs. Chas. Bershears enjoyed a visit from her cousin, Frank Wright the Illinois Central agent at Bradley Ill. Mrs. Bershears had not seen her cousin for nine years.

Friends of the late Mrs. William Hynd were shocked indeed to hear of her sudden death on last Tuesday at her home in Sand Hollow. Our heartfelt sympathy is extended to the family in this, their hour of great sorrow and trouble.

After a years faithful and diligent work, The Ladies Aid have prepared a large number of useful and fancy articles which they will dispose of at their annual bazaar to be held Dec. 25, at Lexington. On this date you will be given the opportunity to purchase all these nice Christmas gifts that you just didn't have time to make your self.

Years ago when a couple were married a few children would give them a chivari that would last about ten minutes and then all would be quiet. All of this however, has been declared out of date. The chivari which lasted over an hour Sunday night when hard working people were trying to get their rest, was certainly trying and an annoyance. Hasn't the marshall the power to protest against what is a nuisance and a public annoyance.
