The Woodmen entertained the Women of Woodcraft and their friends to a clam feed at the I. O. O. F. hall last Thursday evening. The fore part of the entertainment consisted of a program of songs, violin and piano solos and recitations. There were about ninety people present.

Fred Tash returned from Buhl Idaho last week, accompanied by his brother John. John will visit here with his relatives for a couple of weeks. We understand that Fred has given up his position with the Farmer's Warehouse. He will probably move his family to Buhl, where he owns a farm.

If you want to save doctor bills, put fat on your ribs, muscles on your bones and gray matter in your head, use rye bread made from Heppner Milling Company's Rye Flour, which is made from the best of the Morrow County Rye. This is the sweetest and richest Rye Flour on the market. Try it and be convinced. tf

Lester Goff, one of the men implicated in the Grant county cattle rustling case, was found guilty this week. The next man to be tried is Ben Colvin, a wealthy cattle man from near Ritter. The case is of particular interest to the people of this section, since many local people have been called to Canyon City as witnesses.

After an illness that has lasted for many months, during which he was confined to his home and most of the time to his bed, John Natter a pioneer of Heppner is convalescing. He made his first walk down town last week. Mr. Natter is improving steadily now, and indications are that he will regain his lost health.

W. G. McCarty, prosperous Morrow county sheepman, departed last Saturday for The Dalles to visit over the week end with his daughter Mariel, who is attending school there. R. W. Turner left on Monday morning, was met at The Dalles by Mr. McCarty and these two gentlemen are journeying to Vacaville, California. They will settle an estate left by Mr. Turner's father and will probably be absent from Heppner until the middle of January.

The boy's basket ball team of the Commercial department of the High school defeated the High school boys at the Rink last Friday by a 13 to 12 score. The game was just as close as the score would seem to indicate. It took the last minute of play to decide who was to be the winners. Neither team displayed team work. They have had no coaching, but there is good material on both sides.

The girls of the High school put up a better exhibition of basket ball, although the game was much more one sided. The score stood 21 for the juniors and sophomores to 4 for the seniors and freshmen. Hazel Rankin made 19 of the points for her side.

The attendance at these games was not as good as at previous games. Lexington is trying to arrange with Captain Fisk for a game with the local High team in the near future.

Oscar Borg and Loy Turner were busy the fore part of the week moving Mr. Borg's wireless apparatus from the top of the jewelry store to the hill side west of town. It is thought that the wireless will give better results in its new position because it is on a higher eminence than formerly, and the pole is also much longer.

W. P. Dutton, erstwhile citizen of Heppner, and yet an extensive landowner of these parts, was up from his Portland home this week. Mr. Dutton is making some improvements to the water system on his two places next to town, and also looked after the leasing of the places again to the present tenants, Charles and Emmett Jones.

Ben Anderson, a wheat farmer of the Eight Mile section was a Heppner visitor on Monday evening. Mr. Anderson says he has wheat that was sown in June that looks better now than his last year's crop did in May. Things never looked better in that section according to Mr. Anderson.

Harry Snider, the young man who was wanted here for jumping his board bill, had no sooner paid his bill than he was grabbed by an officer from Umatilla county and taken to Pendleton Tuesday morning. He is wanted there on a charge of securing money under false pretenses.

HOME PORTRAITS

The Very Latest in Photographs.

I AM PREPARED TO MAKE THEM.

Pictures of the children at play among familiar surroundings. Grandfather and Grandmother in their easy chairs, The musician with her favorite instrument, The student with his books, These and many other attractive pictures are made possible only by the photographer going to your home. Technically the pictures are equal to the best studio work. The poses and expressions are superior—more natural. The preparation necessary to going to the studio is avoided. There is nothing more highly appreciated or appropriate than PHOTOGRAPHS for Christmas. Make an appointment to-day, and avoid the later rush.
