

Merry Christmas — Happy New Year

Christmas Dinner

50c

TURKEY GOOSE
CHICKEN

12 M. to 2 P. M.

5:30 to 7:30 P. M.

NEW YEAR'S EVE

All-Night Country Dance and Entertainment
EIGHT O'CLOCK SHARP

Dancing will be interspersed with vocal solos by Lutie Bonine, of Heppner, and E. J. Klink, of Condon.

SUPPER AT MIDNIGHT

New Year's Day

Music by Prof. Parsons' Orchestra from 11 a. m. to 4 p. m.

DINNER 50c.

12 to 2:30 P. M.

SUPPER

5:30 to 8:00 P. M.

All are WELCOME

PALACE HOTEL COMPANY

HEPPNER, OREGON

WEEK'S NEWS.

Local and Personal Happenings.

1000 New Posts for sale. Phelps Grocery Co.

You may find that present at Haylor's.

Natt Webb, Jr. is down from Walla Walla.

Miss Kate Moore of Echo is visiting friends in this city.

C A Minor consigned a car load of hogs to the Portland yards this week.

J. B. Olden and wife were Tuesday morning passengers for outside points.

M. J. Devin of Sand Hollow, transacted business in this city last Saturday.

Miss Elza Love is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Fred Lucas during the holidays.

Born—In Heppner, Dec. 17, 1913 to the wife of Deputy Sheriff Geo. Mc Duffee, a son.

Wanted—Boarders by the day or week. For particulars inquire at Thomson Bros. store. 2t.

Born—At thier home in Heppner on Sunday Dec. 14, 1913, to Mr. and Mrs. Ingerson, a son.

Miss Gladys Cox returned from Portland Saturday after visiting with her brothers for a week.

Dr. F. N. Christenson and mother went down to Portland on Tuesday to spend Christmas with relatives.

Claud Keithley of Eight Mile, was taken to the Heppner Sanatorium on Wednesday where he was operated on for appendicitis.

More autos destroyed by fire than any other way. Protect yours by getting a policy of Smead. None as cheap. None better.

Miss Lilah Clark, faculty member of Heppner High school is attending a meeting of the State Teachers Association in Salem this week.

Ray Emerson, a former Heppner boy, but now a business man of Eugene, is up from the Lane county metropolis visiting with his father, A. L. Emerson.

Dr. A. D. McMurdo was called to the W. E. Wigglesworth ranch on Butter creek last Sunday evening, where he found one of the hired men sick with the measles.

One member of the O. A. C. Cadet Band is especially well known in this city, where he made his home for several years. This gentleman is Ralph, "Tige" Kenton, a former member of the class of 1912 of Heppner High school. It was only during the last two years of Mr. Kenton's residence in this city that his musical qualities were brought out. After leaving Heppner, he went to Albany and graduated from Albany High school. He has come out wonderfully under Captain Beards' direction. This is his second year at O. A. C. and he is a first chair man in the clarinet division. His old Heppner friends are justly proud of him.

Jesse R. Kellems and wife and James McCallum of Eugene, arrived at Heppner on Tuesday evening. Mr. Kellems and Mr. McCallum are the boy evangelists engaged to conduct a series of meetings at the Christian church in this city that is to continue over a period of four weeks. These young men are well equipped in their line and there is promise that Heppner will have one of the very best revivals in her history.

Frank S. Parker arrived at Heppner on Saturday from Philomath, Oregon, to join his family who have been in Heppner for several months past. He was accompanied by Mr. Clyde Crawford, of Shedd, Oregon, who will remain here for the winter. Mr. Parker and family expect to make their home in Morrow county.

Mrs. W. S. Taylor who has been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Stevenson in Heppner for the past three months, departed for her home at Oakland, Calif., on Saturday. Mrs. Taylor was called here by the serious illness of her mother who is now reported to be greatly improved in health.

Wilson O. Bayless was in from his Rhea creek home on Tuesday. Out his way there has been but very little of this fog that Heppner has been enjoying for the past two or three weeks and up to the coming of the little snow on Monday the people of his vicinity had been enjoying a season of pleasant sunshine.

Miss Hazel Fawcett, eighth grade teacher in the Heppner schools, departed for Salem on Monday to attend the meeting of the State Teachers' Association in session in that city this week.

W. E. Brown who was quite seriously hurt several days ago by being run over by a wagon loaded with wheat, is reported as improving very satisfactorily and will soon be about again.

The family of C. E. Jones have moved to town from their Eight Mile farm to remain for the balance of the school term.

The thermometer is getting a whack these nights. Tuesday night was the coldest of the season at Heppner and the mercury registered 9 above zero.

For sale, at a bargain, a fine high grade organ. A. J. STEVENSON. 1m.

Mrs. S. T. Robison, of Hardman, underwent a very serious surgical operation at Heppner Sanatorium Monday. She was just returning from a visit of several weeks with her people at Forest Grove and Portland and was taken ill at Heppner. The operation was reported very successful and Mrs. Robison is doing well at this time.

Sunt S. E. Notson left for Salem on Monday to attend the meeting of the State Teacher's Association.

It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to import or sell any infected or diseased fruit of any kind in the state of Oregon.

Any person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $100.

Printed by order of Harry Cummings, Fruit inspector for Morrow County. 4-mo.

For Sale—A four-year-old Guernsey bull. This is a splendid animal. I might consider trade for good beef producing cows.

Joseph Eskelson, Lexington, Oregon.

2m.

Wanted—A girl to do general housework. Inquire at this office.

Harry Morgan of Canyon City is visiting with his sister, Mrs. Artie Morgan Conder in this city.

PHOTOGRAPHS

FOR Christmas

MAKE AN APPOINTMENT
AT ONCE

B. G. SIGSBEE
The Photographer In Your Town

Imperial Cleaning & Dye Works

W. R. HUBBARD, Prop.

We have just opened up in the Garrigues building, east side Main St., Heppner.

Bring your old clothes to us and we will make them look like new.

Hats Cleaned and Blocked
Gloves Cleaned and Shaped

Holiday Specials

That "there is more pleasure in giving than in receiving" is doubly true when your heart is made glad by buying some of our

DECEMBER SPECIALS

and then your joy is made complete in our

PREMIUM GIFTS

FOR CASH CUSTOMERS

Case Furniture Company

We extend to all
Our best wishes for a
Merry Christmas and
Happy New Year
Oscar Borg
Jeweler and Optometrist