COMMERCIAL CLUB TO BE ON NEW FOOTING

Interesting Meeting Addressed By Tom Richardson, of Portland.

Because of other attractions in the city, the meeting called for Tuesday evening at the I. O. O.
F. Hall in the interests of the re-organization of the Heppner Commercial Club was not as largely attended as it should have been. Especially is this true of our business men, who are expected at all times to have the larger interest in all matters pertaining to the development of our section. However, there was a good attendance of representative citizens which includes a large number of the ladies.

The meeting was addressed by Tom Richardson, promotion and community organizer of the Portland Commercial Club, who delivered an interesting talk along the lines of his work and strengthened the cause greatly at this place.

Mr. Richardson has been engaged in this work for the past 35 years; he was the original community booster, and his good work in Oregon under the direction of the Portland Commercial Club cannot be estimated.
He has put many a sleepy old town in this state on the map.
We do not like to have the outside think Heppner belongs to the class of the sleepy ones, yet we have been in drowsy state for some time, and Mr. Richardson has convinced us that the time to awake has come; it is right here and we must act.

His line of argument was based largely upon the great opportunity that is just now opening before the state of Oregon.

The Panama canal is completed.
The greatest exposition in the history of the world is to be held in 1915 at our door. The city of San Francisco and State of California are spending more than $50,000,000 to bring about this event. It means the attracting of millions of people to the Pacific Coast and these must be routed through our state, and while on their way many of them must be induced to make stops at the various towns in the rural communities en route. This can only be done by the local communities taking hold of the matter themselves, and Mr. Richardson fully explained how this can be done.

His talk covered other points as well and it should have been heard by every citizen of the county.

After all, this promotion work is an individual matter and the individual has to take care of it. The speaker took a rap at those who will make their home in the local community and live off of it for years, and yet never have a good word for town and community in which they live and prosper. Such as these he unhesitatingly brands as traitors.

The many examples of how old poky communities of the state have come to the front by community promotion since the work was taken up here under the direction of Mr. Richardson proves conclusively what our community can do under proper organization.

The completion of the organization of the Heppner Commercial Club will be made in short order. A committee appointed on Tuesday evening is looking after the financial end of the Club work just now and when this is completed and a sufficient sum is pledged monthly to carry on its work for a period of 24 months, the officers will be chosen, committees appointed and the Club put on a permanent working basis.

It is a treat to hear Tom Richardson and should he visit our city again at any time we express the sincere hope that it will be under such conditions that he will have a hearing such as the importance of his work deserves and that he will be greeted by the representative citizenship of the entire county. His work is not of a selfish nature and it is based upon the doctrine that what helps the local community in the county helps the entire county and the entire state.

Before the close of the meeting a telegram was read from Secretary C.
C. Chapman instructing Mr. Richardson to be sure to thank Minor Bros. for the potatoes furnished the Portland Commercial Club last year and this year, for Heppner Day at the Club, and also for the State exhibit at the Chicago Land Show. The quality of the potatoes made a big hit and the Heppner people deserve encouragement for their enterprise in advertising in this way. Mr.

Chapman also desired to express appreciation of the great work done by T. J. Mahoney as a member of the State Banker's Agricultural Committee at Salem in furthering Senate Bill 72, and expressed the further wish of being present at the Tuesday evening meeting to meet the Heppner live wires.

We wish to assure Mr. Chapman, and the Portland Commercial Club that the people of Heppner have a warm place in their hearts for him and his great organization for their work's sake, and thank them very much for sending Mr. Richardson to us at this time.
