

WEEK'S NEWS.

Local and Personal Happenings.

M. L. Case, the local furniture dealer, transacted business in lone on Monday.

Robert Alstott and children were Heppner visitors from Eight Mile, Monday.

Mrs. Roy Iler returned home on Sunday from a visit of three weeks at the home of her father, W. E. Hiatt, at Carrolton, Wash.

Miss Ethel Casey, teacher in the public school, made a trip to Portland last Friday, returning home Monday evening.

George Flint and wife of Lexington spent a few hours in Heppner, Monday evening. Mr. Flint is a real estate dealer.

E. R. Huston, president of the Jordan Warehouse Co., was in Heppner Monday and Tuesday on business connected with that company.

Mose Ashbaugh was in Hermiston the past week where he has rented a place. He will move his family over to the project town at once.

W. B. Potter, of Spray, came over from the Wheeler county town on Saturday and spent several days visiting with his wife and son Miles.

Rev. H. A. Van Winkle made a trip to Portland last week, being absent several days. Rev. N. O. Williams of the lone Christian church preached at the evening service.

Vernon Jones and wife of Eight Mile moved their household effects to their new home near Irigon. They have purchased an irrigated tract and will raise alfalfa.

John Glascock came over from Pendleton, Sunday, to take charge of the Independent Shearing Plant. He had charge of this plant last year and a successful run was made. The boys will begin work at once.

A Mr. Chalmers, of Cornelius, Ore., came to Lexington Sunday and proceeded out to the Eastern Oregon Jack Farm of B. F. Swaggart to take possession of a jack which he shipped to his home town this week.

Conductor Fisk has been laying off this week for repairs. He has been hardly able for a number of weeks to attend to his work but we are now glad to state that he is getting better and that he will soon be able to take charge of his train again. Jay Hanlin, of The Dalles, is in charge of the train for the time being.

John Edwards was celebrating his 60th birthday on Monday and brought to town a bunch of coyote pups' scalps which he disposed of to Clerk Hill, receiving a little money with which to buy himself a birthday present. John has to admit that he is growing older as each year rolls around but he consoles himself with the thought that he is growing handsomer.

Hon. C. A. Barrett, of Athena, candidate on the republican ticket for the nomination to the office of joint senator for Morrow, Umatilla and Union counties, was getting acquainted with the voters of Heppner and vicinity, Tuesday. Mr. Barrett is an extensive farmer and business man of the Athena section. He is our present joint senator and seeks to succeed himself to that office.

LEXINGTON ITEMS.

The Home Mission met last Wednesday at Mrs. Beymer's.

Dave Porter is the new livery stable man.

Jos. Burgoyne is running the mill this week, doing some chopping and making some flour.

Frank Evans went to Milton last week after having received a telegram informing him of the death of his uncle.

Mrs. Ada Estes of Portland is visiting her sister, Mrs. Emma McCormick, and other relatives. Mrs. McCormick is still very ill.

Miss Lucy Davis, clerk at Burgoyne's general store, was off duty Thursday on account of illness.

Through an error, the local read that a dance was held at Zink's on Sunday night. This should have read on Friday night instead.

Gordon McHaffee, brother of Mrs. John Moore, has returned from an extended visit to Oklahoma and the East. He has been gone about 4 months.

Frank Burgoyne while riding on his motorcycle was thrown by colliding with a hog about two and a half miles from town. Frank was pretty badly shaken up but we did not learn how the hog fared.

Harvey McAllister is having about 15 acres plowed, harrowed and prepared in which he intends to sow corn. Mr. McAllister is having the ground out in excellent shape and ought to have a good yield.

Mrs. Evans received the sad news that her sister had died suddenly in Spokane. The young lady was slightly acquainted in Lexington as she made her sister a visit here last summer and was well liked by all who became acquainted with her. Mrs. Evans left for Spokane on Tuesday morning. The sympathy of the community is extended to her.

Don't forget the greatest entertainment ever known for the price of 25 and 35 cents will be given on April 17. Mr. Van Winkle is highly endorsed by all who ever heard him and you will be well repaid if you hear him. This entertainment is under the auspices of the Ladies Home Mission and besides affording great pleasure to yourself you will also be aiding them in their good work.

Mrs. Sarah M. Harwood, who has been visiting relatives in this vicinity for the past six months, left Thursday morning for Seattle, where she will visit with her son a few days. She then will return to her home in Council Bluffs, Iowa. Her nephew, R. L. Taylor, will accompany her as far as Portland.

E. A. Pointer recently returned from sunny California, having spent the winter at Long Beach and Marrovia. While there, he also had the pleasure of crossing over into Mexico and visited other places of interest. From all accounts, Morrow county seems good enough for him.

From all reports the wheat crop looks better at this time of the year than it has for several years back. Early fall sown grain is very rank in growth and jointing, and from appearances at the present time, grain will be a good height.

W. T. Campbell and wife returned from an auto trip to Walla Walla, where they attended the funeral of a friend, which was held there Sunday. Mr. Campbell reports grain looking good, and if anything, Morrow county crops are a little ahead in growth.

J. H. Campbell, the new owner of the Gould place northeast of Lexington, has finished summerfallowing for the year. Harry plowed 900 acres and says the main thing from now on is to keep the field free from weeds and the ground in good cultivation for next Fall's sowing.

Jas. Pointer, who occupies the ranch recently bought of F. M. Parker north of Lexington, has just finished drilling for water. An excellent flow of water was found at a depth of 275 feet. Jas. is now taking out casing and a windmill which will soon be installed for use.

R. B. Rice was in town this week from Strawberry. He reports everything looking good out his way. Summerfallowing is pretty well along and will soon be laid by for this season.

Chas. L. Owsly was in this vicinity looking over the country. Mr. Owsly is a foreman on one of the farms of the Plateau Farming Co. located at Mikkalo, Gilliam county.

Hon. C. A. Barrett of Athena, candidate for joint senator for Umatilla, Union and Morrow counties, was a visitor here Tuesday, interviewing the prospective voters of the precinct.

E. G. Erskine, a new well driller in this vicinity, has just finished a well for M. Barton, securing a good flow of water at 77 feet. Mr. Barton is well pleased with the work done.

Richard L. Taylor, who has been a resident of Corvallis for 25 years, arrived Friday evening to visit his two aunts, Mrs. E. J. McAllister and Mrs. Sarah Harwood, whom he had not seen for as many years.

The dance at the hall Thursday night, given by Davenport's orchestra, was well attended. Several people from lone and Heppner were present.

The O-W. R. & N. Co's. surveying crew was here one day this week locating a yard and corral for stock near the depot. It is to be ready for use by the 15th.

B. F. Swaggart sold an Eastern Oregon jack to a party in the Willamette valley. It was delivered here for shipment.

Elmer McMillan of Clarks Canyon has moved his family to Lexington for the summer. They will occupy the E. A. Pointer residence.

A beautiful rain fell Wednesday night, laying the dust and clearing the atmosphere. We hope the wind will not blow for a few days.

O. V. Gibson is moving to his farm near Alpine, after spending the winter in town.

E. G. Erskine has moved his well to Neil White's place to start drilling for water.

Al Zink and son George have gone to the shearing corrals above Heppner.

FROM CECIL.

Cecil, Ore., April 7—Some fears have been expressed lest the recent frosts have injured the peaches in this vicinity.

James Montague and family of Eight Mile visited with Mrs. Montague's father and brother, J. S. and J. H. Miller of this place, over Sunday.

Willie Ahalt was a Sunday visitor in Arlington between trains.

Mr. Yates of Pendleton spent several days in Cecil looking after his beef cattle, which are being fed at J. H. Franklin's.

L. E. McBea, Jack Hynd, John Miller and W. E. Ahalt were Heppner visitors Tuesday and Wednesday of last week. They made the trip in the McBea car.

E. J. Bristow and wife of lone were visitors at the Hynd ranch, Sunday, coming down in their Ford and returning the same evening.

W. H. Cronk and wife were Cecil business visitors twice during the past week, having come down Friday and again Monday. The latter trip they were accompanied by Mrs. Senska.

The contract for the new school house to be erected here was awarded to Everett Logan of Portland, the lowest bidder. Mr. Logan is a brother of M. V. Logan of this place. Work will be started as soon as material can be placed on the grounds. Mr. Logan has been contracting and building in Portland for the past six years.

Wallace Smead of Heppner was a Cecil visitor Tuesday in his official capacity of Sealer of Weights and Measures.
