Payrolls and Improve- ments in the Line of Manufactures.

Salem, Apr. 13--Two important decisions of the Supreme court during the past week hold that there is no limit to the amount of damages that can be collected by the family in case of death under the Employers' Liability act, and that the employer cannot escape liability by providing other ways of protecting employees.

The International Association of Stonecutters are asking that Oregon granite be used on the new million dollar Portland post-office.

Voters at Eugene authorize a municipal band, an armory, and the acquiring of Skinner's Butte by the city.

James J. Hill has given $50,000 to the Christian Church Bible School for a new building at Eugene.

Under the Pinchot policy of locking up the water powers not much development is looked for in Oregon in this line.

Officials of the Rogue River Public Service corporation have been visiting their plants at Grants Pass and are looking for a 5000 horse power site.

A $10,000 Episcopal church is to be erected at Oregon City.

Aurora is to have a $60,000 four-story Masonic temple this year.

The Willamette Pacific Coos Bay line is to have train service to the end of the line in a week.

The McVoy tub, pail and package company of Minneapolis are looking for a site for a plant in Oregon.

CREAMERY ORGANIZA- TION TO BE COMPLETED

The legal steps necessary to bring about the organization of the co operative creamery are now about completed by attorney C. E. Woodson. In fact, that part of the business is so well in hand that Mr. Sparling, the organizer, has fixed Saturday, April 25, at 2:30 p. m., as the date for completing the organization. The meeting will be held at I. O. O. F. hall in Heppner, and will be open to everybody interested in the development of this very valuable industry.

Thus far, shares to the extent of $4800 have been sold, which insures the purchase of a lot and the erection of a suitable building thereon. It is expected that a considerable sum will be raised in addition to that already in hand to take care of the early operation of the factory.

The amounts already subscribed are now due and should be paid at the very earliest convenience of the shareholders. Clyde Brock, temporary treasurer, is prepared to take care of the funds.

Off For Greenhorn.

After having spent the winter months in Heppner, D. B. Stalter took his departure on Wednesday for the mines of the Heppner Mining Company in the Greenhorn mountains near Susanville. He was accompanied by E. S. Duran, of Lexington who will remain with Mr. Stalter during the summer.

The Mayflower group of mines is owned by Heppner people, Mr. Stalter himself, being one of the principal stockholders. He has been working the proposition for a number of years, making extensive improvements and developments and has uncovered quartz of much value. Mr. Stalter has great faith in the richness of his mine, and hopes that before many more years it will have been sufficiently developed to be disposed of at much profit to himself and those associated with him.

A Reply.

The man the Bulletin evidently refers to at the heading of his last issue, did not wish or expect to draw the Bulletin into a debate on the subject of liquor advertising; nor is he blinded by "ignorance or party precedence" but simply desires to do his duty in calling attention to that concerning the welfare of the young people, and as a good citizen and a Christian who is certainly as liberal minded as a man can be.

Sometimes, my brother, we think because our own minds are beclouded by error, that the cobwebs we see are in the mind of the other fellow, when they are really in our own.

If we "boost" let us boost for the right and whatever is for the good of our fellow men and thus show our honesty and intelligence, if you please.

Yours respectfully,
Royal O. Brown, lone Or.

Black Prince, the well known Shire Stallion belonging to the French Bros. Estate, will make the season, commencing about April 27th. Mondays and Tuesdays at the French Farm on Hinton Creek; Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturdays at the Stable of W. T. McRoberts in Heppner. Rates, $8.00, $12.00 and $15.00.

See or address, L. W. Briggs, administrator. Heppner, Oregon.

The citizens of Heppner are hereby notified that they must screen in all privies or outhouses and make them absolutely fly proof. Persons keeping cows or horses within the city must clean away the manure every four days. The city marshal will see that these regulations are strictly enforced.

HEPPNER WOMEN WILL MEET WITH CLUB.

The organization of the Women's Auxiliary of the Heppner Commercial Club will be made complete at the regular meeting of the Club tomorrow evening. A large delegation of women is expected to be in attendance. It is desired that the women will carry out certain work along the city-beautiful plan, and Club expects to derive much benefit by extending their scope to the women.

The Club will also take up the matter of sanitation, acting largely upon the report of the committee, which submitted resolutions to the city council a week ago. The proposed methods of sanitation will be more thoroughly discussed at this meeting.

AT THE FEDERATED CHURCH NEXT SUNDAY

There will be a Congregational meeting of the Federated church next Sunday morning at the close of the service. Every member is urged to be present.

Rev. W. N. Ferris will preach both morning and evening. All are cordially invited. Strangers always welcome.

BASE BALL ASSOCIATION HAS MEETING MONDAY

The Heppner Base Ball Association met last Monday evening at the office of Dr. F. N. Christensen, with Chairman L. E. Bisbee presiding. The treasurer read his report which showed, after all bills had been paid, a balance of something better than four dollars.

There was much discussion over the week day and Sunday ball proposition. It has developed since the fans first decided for week day ball, that it is almost impossible to secure games for any other day than Sunday. A committee was appointed to make one final effort to secure games and arrange a schedule for week day ball. If this cannot be done, Sunday ball will be played.

Celsus Keithley was operated on at the Heppner Sanatorium on Saturday evening for an acute attack of appendicitis. He is doing well and will soon be out again.

E. D. Brown went to Condon this morning in the interests of the Heppner Milling Company.

ELOCUTIONARY ENTERTAIN- MENT AT LEXINGTON.

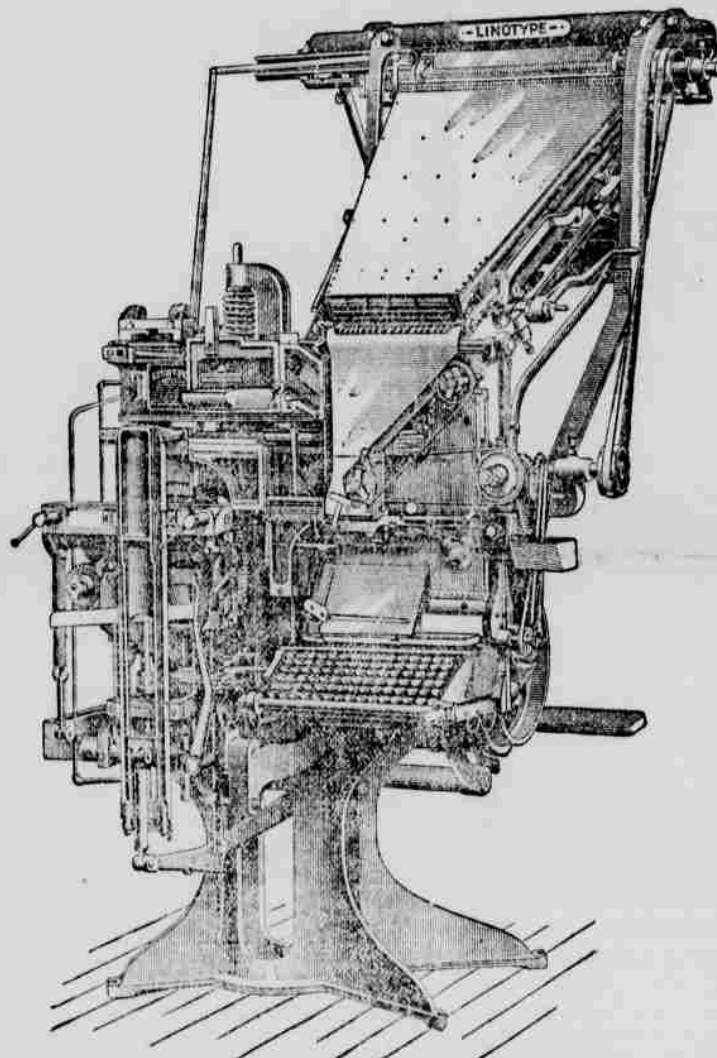

Professor A. F. Reddie, head of the elocution department of the State University, will be at Lexington the evening of April 20th. His program will be given at the Congregational church and will consist of readings, etc.

The writer has heard Professor Reddie a number of times in the East and knows him to be far above the average elocutionist. You will miss much if you fail to hear him. Lexington is his only stop in Morrow county and all people who can attend are invited to do so. No admission fee will be charged as Professor Reddie is brought under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher Organization.

PROF. L. A. DOAK.

H. A. Zehrung, mail clerk on the Heppner branch for the past five years, left for Portland on Sunday to join his family and take up his work in the parcel post station, recently established there. He has bought a nice home in the city at 4623 75th street, Arleta station, and will be pleasantly situated.

THE NEW TYPESETTING MACHINE IN THE GAZETTE- TIMES OFFICE

Two-Magazine Model K Linotype

The above is a picture of the new Model "K" Linotype installed this week in our office, and since it has been put in operation it has been the object of much interest by the friends of this paper.

This machine is one of the most wonderful inventions of the age. It is the dream of every country newspaper man, but its price has always been a bar to the realization of such a dream. However, The Mergenthaler Linotype Co. are now making such attractive terms on this model that the average weekly in the smaller towns can secure them, and they have recently installed quite a number in Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

Our machine is the first one to be put in operation in Morrow county, and we have set up a part of this issue on it. Mr. G. G. Moorhead, agent of the Company, and an expert Linotype operator, put in two days of hard work with us installing the machine and instructing our force in the manner of its operation, and for his faithful and painstaking care he has our sincere thanks.

To our many friends and readers we extend a cordial invitation to come in and see the machine work; we can explain it to you better in that way than by any word picture, so don't fail to call and see it.

By adding this improvement to our equipment we are better prepared than ever to serve our readers and the public in general. We have faith in the future of our business and in the community in which we have resided for the past twenty-five years, and feel that our efforts to make a clean, newsy local paper will be appreciated still more in the days to come than they have been in the past. We are not "blowing our heads off" with big promises, neither will we put the paper ahead of the field and beyond a point where it is not a paying proposition. So we shall let the paper continue to speak for itself, knowing that improvements we are to make will be of genuine value to our readers and advertisers, and we shall therefore be content to continue in the enjoyment of the splendid patronage the people of Heppner and the entire county have accorded us.

It has cost us a heavy outlay in cash. We shall need those subscription dollars and we know that you will see that we get them. 'Nuff said.

Will Have Social Session.

Lexington Local No. 68 of the Farmers Union will hold a social session at Lexington on Saturday, April 25. It is planned to have a basket dinner at noon, and in the afternoon a leading feature will be a lecture by some prominent speaker on a subject of general interest. This meeting is to be open to the general public, and a genuine social time is planned for all who attend. The Lexington Local has adopted the plan of giving an entertainment of this sort at least once a year, and these events have heretofore been very enjoyable affairs.

Notice.

We have taken up on our Springhollow ranch the following described animal; one buckskin horse, star in forehead, two white feet, branded H on right shoulder; also an obscure brand on left hip. Weight about eleven hundred pounds. Owner may have same by calling at our place and paying for the costs.

Rugg Brothers.

Ranch For Sale.

169 acres. 80 acres in crop. One fourth interest in crop goes with the ranch to purchaser when sold. $15 per acre. Mrs. Olive Browning, McMinnville, Ore. Box 37, P. D. 3.

Harry Morgan of Canyon City left for Heppner Wednesday. He expects to reside at Heppner--Blue Mountain Eagle.

Dr. Culbertson of Heppner, was over this week. He was accompanied by Wm. F. Culbertson, a brother, and an old friend of W. H. Skinner. W. F. Culbertson left Wednesday for his home in South Dakota, but before doing so purchased a part of the Vincent estate on Butter creek.--Hermiston Herald.

Newt Whetstone, a prominent sheep man of Morrow county and who owns considerable land in the Cottonwood country near Hamilton was in this country the first of the week buying sheep.--Long Creek Ranger.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY

E. O. EDITORIAL ASSOCIATION.

Following is a complete list of resolutions adopted by the Eastern Oregon Editorial Association at the meeting recently held in Pendleton.

"We wish to go upon record as opposing any further invasions in the field of legislation and public administration of freak laws and policies, tending to interfere with industries and the development of our state, along the lines of legitimate business. We pledge ourselves to give the fullest publicity to all abuses of a public nature and believe in the enforcement of laws giving the people the greatest possible publicity in local and state affairs, to the end that they may have the fullest knowledge of what their public servants are doing with the taxes wrung from the people.

"We favor the election of careful and conservative public officials to all offices, men who will restore confidence in our state and promote its development by making investments in property secure, and more certain to bring returns that will be satisfactory to our own citizens and to those who may come to cast their lot with us.

"The further development of eastern Oregon is largely dependent upon the improvement of our great waterway, the Columbia river, and the completion of contemplated irrigation projects. We therefore urge the promotion of this development by the press of this part of the state and pledge ourselves as an organization to work for the same in all proper ways.

"We are further pledged to stand for clean men and clean policies, the promotion of all those things in our different fields that stand for advancement in public and private morals, that the press of our state may be a great moving factor in the upbuilding of the civic side, as well as the great motive power back of our commercial activities.

VAWTER CRAWFORD,
W. D. NELSON,
W. J. PEGG,
Committee on Resolutions."

PLAN TO BOOST THE NORTHWEST

Four Big Railroads Have Joined With the Coast Cities to Boost in 1915.

Portland, Or., Apr. 14 (Special)--During the past week representatives of the four great railroads traversing this territory joined with the commercial organizations of Portland, Spokane, Tacoma and Seattle in the preparation of plans for properly presenting the numerous attractions of the Pacific Northwest to the tourists who will next year make a pilgrimage to the exposition at San Francisco. Another conference will be held in about two weeks at which time the details of some co-operative scheme will be worked out. It is probable that a tourist bureau will be established at some central point in the Middle West from which efforts will be made to induce tourists to purchase tickets over lines serving the Northwest states. The expenses of such a bureau will be borne jointly by the railroads and the commercial clubs.

April 25 has been set aside as "Good Roads Day" in Oregon and on that date it is expected that not less than 2,000 husky men from the Portland Ad Club and similar organizations will don overalls, arm themselves with pick and shovel, grab their trusty dinner pail and go forth to do a more or less serious day's work on the roads. The O-W. R. & N. Ry. will run a special train of flat cars to various points on the Columbia River Highway and the gas company and various contracting firms will loan the necessary tools. Governor West and the county road officials will be present to see that the amateur laborers do no loafing on the job. All other parts of the state are expected to fall in line and the aggregate result should be many miles of well improved roads.

At a recent meeting of the Manufacturer's Association of Oregon, strong resolutions were adopted favoring common point rates for Astoria. The discrimination against Astoria and in favor of the Puget Sound and other Coast cities, has been a serious handicap not only to the development of Astoria but to the entire Columbia River basin. It is believed that the granting of terminal rates to Astoria will be of great benefit to the entire state of Oregon.

"Commercial clubs in Oregon are getting busy," said Tom Richardson after a visit to numerous points throughout the state. "Salem is a notable example of community union. There is no discord at the Capitol city, the entire citizenship is a chorus in its commercial club work. Recently the club has almost doubled in membership and is planning many new undertakings for the benefit of the surrounding territory as well as for the welfare of the city. The Cherry Fair, especially, is to be made bigger and better than ever."

At Eugene, M. J. Duryea has been elected Commercial Club secretary for another year. He is devoted to his work and Eugene appreciates him. Judd Fish has retired from the secretaryship at The Dalles and his place will be filled by E. R. Hill, an experienced man. Fossil is happy over a most successful two months commercial club experience.
